WALNUT COVE NEWS

NUMBER OF LOTS SOLD

Much Building To Be Done In The Spring—Good Prospect For Union Depot—Mr. Hanes Linville Buys Out Mr. J. E. James.

Walnut Cove, Feb. 22.—The big lot sale was pulled off on schedule time here the 16th. A large crowd was present and the bidding was lively. This was the second lot sale that has been held here recently and some 50 or 60 nice town lots were sold at reasonably low prices considering their beautiful locations. They are all on Main and Depot streets. The purchasers of these lots are from all parts of the country and quite a lot of building will be done on them as soon as the weather will permit. This means a great deal and speaks well for Walnut Cove. There are 30 or 40 dwelling houses needed here, and they can be rented at a fair price.

Mr. Pfaff, of Winston, is here installing the machinery in the Farmers' Union Dry Prizery, which he will complete in a few days. Mr. Pfaff says that when this dry prizery is completed it will be one among the best of its kind in the State. It has a first class brick building and the best grade of the latest type of machinery. It will soon be ready for the farmers to unload their tobacco there instead of pulling it to Winston. The engine and boiler have not been put in yet owing to the fact that the weather has been too cold to do the brick work necessary to install them.

We have been reliably informed that Walnut Cove is to have a union depot in the near future, and it is badly needed. The transfer of express, such as heavy drummers' trunks and other heavy stuff, some 175 yards, is burdensome. If we should be so fortunate as to get a union station it will add quite a little to our magnificent little town.

Say, boys, when you pass this way some time in the early fall cut your eye around and look for a large up-to-date warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco, which will go along with the dry prizery. The farmer can then use his pleasure about selling the same day or storing his tobacco in the dry prizery for better prices.

Mr. Hanes Linville, of the Belew's Creek section, has purchased the stock of goods of J. E. James, next door to Jacob Fulton, Sons & Co. Mr. James is a good business man and we regret his retirement from the mercantile business. We think lots of Mr. Linville and wish him much success in his new undertaking. He is worthy of a large patronage and has a host of friends in and around Walnut Cove.

By the way, has Mr. Humphreys, the Danbury attorney, a law office at King? He seems to go up that way quite often.

Smithtown School Closes On Account Of Measles.

Mr. L. L. Spencer, of Campbell, was here yesterday on business. Mr. Spencer told the Reporter that the Smithtown school, taught by Mr. Elmer Biggs, was closed yesterday on account of a number of the pupils having been exposed to measles. This is to be regretted, since it is said that the school at Smithtown was better this season than for several years. Only last Thursday Mr. W. R. Stovall, a good citizen of that section, was in the Reporter office and requested us to thank Supt. Smith and the Board of Education for giving them such a good teacher. It is hoped that the school can soon open again.

Big Slaughter Sale to Be Conducted By Mrs. R. L. Hartman & Son.

Mrs. R. L. Hartman & Son, of Hartman, will, beginning on Wednesday, March 8th, conduct a 10-Day Slaughter Sale. Everything must go regardless of cost. The firm is preparing to receive their spring stock, and will have a great cleaning up sale. The store will be closed for two days before the sale begins. On Wednesday morning March 8th the doors will be opened. The sale will continue until 10 o'clock P. M., March 18th.

This will be a great opportunity to purchase supplies at very low prices.

A large crowd will doubtless attend the sale.

See the big ad in this paper.

LIFE SAVED AT DEATH'S DOOR.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wilmington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me.

"Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

Preaching Appointments By Elders D. Collins and M. H. Adkisson.

Pinnacle Route 2, Feb. 20.

Editor Reporter :

You will please publish the following appointments for Elder M. H. Adkisson and myself :

Flat Shoals, on Saturday before the first Sunday in March, which will be the 4th; North View the 6th; Wilson the 7th; Buffalo the 8th; Snow Creek the 9th; Piney Grove the 10th; Rock House the 11th and 12th.

Your friend,
D. COLLINS.

Putting a special tax on old bachelors has put lots of them on the matrimonial road, we notice.

BLACK JOE.

VALENTINE PARTY

EVERYBODY HAD GOOD TIME

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Morefield Entertain—Mrs. Bettie Caudle Seriously Ill—Marriage—Other News of Walnut Cove Route 1.

Walnut Cove Route 1, Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Morefield gave the young people a valentine party Feb. 14th. Those present were as follows :

Messrs. Nat Voss, Gray Rutledge, Ralph Miller, Chas. Voss, Albert and Frank Young, John Huff, Marshall Mickey, John Lewellyn, George Tuttle, Trossie Wall, Charlie Wall, Oscar Shelton, Richard Martin, Charlie Young and Ernest and Roland Moser; Misses Minnie and Beatrice Tuttle, Minnie Wood, Carrie and Martha Rutledge, Minnie Crews, Ida Knight, Mamie and Margie Redman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rutledge.

Music was furnished by Messrs. Chas. and Gray Rutledge and Oscar Shelton. After spending the hours so pleasantly the jolly crowd extended their appreciation of the gathering to Mr. and Mrs. Morefield's home, and then departed for their respective homes.

Mr. Nat Voss, who has been in Alabama 4 years, is at home, to the delight of his parents and many friends.

Rev. Tom Glenn preached an excellent sermon at Rose Bud Sunday, but on account of the rough weather the congregation was small.

Mrs. Bettie Caudle is seriously ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jeff Rutledge. Charlie Tuttle is also on the sick list.

Miss Mary Burge was married last Sunday to Mr. Bud Long, of Tobaccoville. We wish them a long life of happiness.

The school closed Saturday with a nice entertainment. A large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Miss Minnie Crews, of Mayodan, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Messrs. Ralph Miller and O. G. Rutledge spent Sunday evening at Mr. G. G. Tuttle's.

Mr. Robert W. Young left last week for Whitsett, where he will enter school.

FALLS VICTIM TO THIEVES.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. He's well now. Unrivalled for constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia. 25c at all Druggists.

Mr. John Bennett, of King, was here yesterday.

Mr. R. J. Petree, of German-ton, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Messrs. R. M. Campbell and L. L. Spencer, of Campbell, were in town Tuesday.

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL

ORGANIZED LAST SUNDAY

At Quaker Gap Baptist Church—Farmers' Union At Haw Pond Growing—School at Haw Pond Closes Next Saturday With An Entertainment.

German-ton, Feb. 20.—Choppings seem to be all the go in this section now. Suppose the people are preparing wood to burn plant beds and to cure the 1911 crop with.

Mr. W. W. Boles left last week for near Winston, where he and Mr. Rober Ferguson enter into the mercantile business. They are two bright and promising young men. The community doesn't like to give such boys to Forsyth, but may success he theirs, is the wish of all their friends.

Sunday School was organized at Quaker Gap Baptist church the 1st Sunday with Mr. W. G. Slate as Supt. and Mr. J. H. Covington, assistant. An able and competent body of teachers were also elected. Eighty scholars were enrolled. Everyone should come out and take part in this noble work, of which the children can realize so much benefit.

Think Miss Pringle will be glad when her school is out. Suppose she wants to get out of the Haw Pond section since Mr. W. W. B. has gone.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Baker was laid to rest in the Haw Pond cemetery on the 15th.

The Farmers' Union at Haw Pond school house is growing. They met last Thursday, and carried Mr. A. P. Stephenson through the long and impressive initiation. This makes about twenty on roll now. The union is quite young in this section, but all the members are workers.

The Misses Hall gave the young people an old time Valentine party Tuesday night, 14th. The principal enjoyments were a play, "Coming of St. Valentine," and a cake cutting. The cake contained a ring and a thimble. The one getting the ring was said to be the first to get married, and the one getting the thimble would never get married. Everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion. Some of those present were Misses Dora and Martha Tuttle, Minnie Stanley, Mary and Lillie Covington, Glennie and Leatha Boyles, Genie, Fannie and Anna Tedder, Mamie and Bessie Bennett, and Messrs. C. A. Neal, Roy Redding, Ives Gordon, Allen Bennett, Jas. and Zonie Covington, Ernest Fowler, Herman Oldham, Harvie Johnson, Willie and Foy Hartgrove, Ross Darnell, P. L. Smith, Frank and Grover Tuttle, Gaither Davis, Franklin Hall, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Meadows, and Harry Boyles.

The school at Hawpond, taught by Mr. G. C. Davis and Miss Ruth Pringle, will close on Saturday, Feb. 25th, with an exhibition, which will begin at 9:30 o'clock.

A. M. The Reporter and its many readers are cordially invited. The program is as follows :

GOOD NEWS FROM THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.

We have had to make The Youth's Companion larger to get in all the good things that Companion readers ought to have. The added amount would make four hundred pages of standard magazine size and print; but we have kept the price just the same—$1.75 for the fifty-two weeks of 1911.

We would like to tell you what is in store for Companion readers during 1911. We cannot do it here, though; there is not room. But send us your address on a postal card, and we will send you the beautiful Prospectus of the Companion for 1911, announcing many new features, together with sample copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion.

The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, reproducing in twelve colors and gold a beautiful water-color garden scene.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of her life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by all dealers.

ON KING 'JTE 2

PLEASURA APRON PARTY

Mr. Edwards Entertains—Death of Miss Minnie Eaton—Death of Mrs. F. Combs.

King Route 2, Feb. 20.—On last Saturday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rena Edwards, Mr. S. F. Edwards gave for the pleasure of his and his mother's many friends an apron party which was a very pleasant social event. Quite a number of their relatives and friends were present. The time from 7 to 11 o'clock flitted away only too soon. Of course the principal feature of the evening was the hemming of the girls' aprons by the boys, which, by the way, was well done—infact so much so that it was the conclusion of all that some of the boys had had some experience in this work. There was a healthy spirit of rivalry apparent during the performance, every lady thinking that her partner should have the prize. Miss Olive Boyles, of Pinnacle, in some way succeeded in landing her partner, Mr. C. Boyles, who won the prize, a nice tie. In addition to the above mentioned features the guests were entertained by playing many fire-side games, which were enjoyed by all present. Following are the names of those who enjoyed the excellent entertainment given by Mr. Edwards, as well as the hospitality and interest of Mrs. Edwards: Messrs. Wiley and Ed Edwards, Tom Ham, Charlie, Roy, Cornelius, Sam, D. L. and N. O. Boyles, Lewis and Ernest Bowen, Clarence Boles and Ola Ham, Pruna, Vallie, Genie and Mattie King, Olive, Ella and Rozella Boyles and others.

Miss Minnie Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Eaton, of Pinnacle Route 2, departed this life on Saturday night, Feb. 18. She died from that dreadful disease—consumption. The remains were laid to rest at the family burying-ground Monday at Olive Grove church, with a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends present. The deceased was one of Stokes county's most highly respected young ladies. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Mr. F. Combs, wife died on last Friday and was buried at Little Yadkin church Sunday. She leaves a husband and four children, besides a host of friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

It seems that apron parties have been our most amusing and entertaining events of the season. But in order to make a change in social circles a most exciting and side-splitting play will be pulled off at Oak Grove on Saturday, March 4th, at the close of the school. Everybody is cordially invited to come out and see it well done.
