

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS.

Sheriff Jones is out again after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. John M. Taylor, of Winston, paid a flying visit here Friday.

Mr. E. C. Sheppard, of Lawsonville, was in town Monday on business.

Messrs. E. S. and J. A. Lawson, of Lawsonville, were in town Saturday.

The Reporter is very sorry to learn of the death of the infant of Mr. Rufus Mabe, near Seven Island a few days ago.

Miss Helen Sparger, of Mt. Airy, spent Sunday here, the guest of Misses Nell and Mary Joyce, returning home Monday.

President R. L. Nunn, of the Farmers' Union, spent Sunday here after attending the county meeting of the Union Saturday.

Mr. J. H. Covington, of Capella, was here Monday on business from Capella. Mr. Covington is a zealous Sunday School worker, and is a high type of gentleman. He always finds a welcome at the Reporter office.

Mr. T. M. Lawson paid us a pleasant visit Monday, being in attendance on the meeting of the county commissioners. Mr. Lawson is one of the biggest farmers of Yadkin township, as well as one of that good section's best citizens.

Mr. James E. Miller, of Dalton, was here Saturday shaking hands with his many friends. He was a delegate to the Farmers Union. James hadn't been here in more than eight years, having spent six years of the time he was away in Texas.

Elder J. G. Southern, of Flat Shoal, was in town Thursday. Mr. Southern, who is a Baptist minister, promised to preach at Danbury some time soon, and assured us that he would do us no harm. Mr. Southern is a mighty good, clever fellow, and they say he preaches with great eclat.

About twenty-five head of horses and mules were brought here Saturday by Messrs. J. Spot Taylor and Smoak & McCreary. On Monday Messrs. Taylor and Alley Blum broke the record in the county for horse-dealing, making some 18 or 20 trades, selling in a number of cases, and swapping in others.

Messrs. R. J. and Harry Petree, of Germanton, attended the County Farmers' Union meeting Saturday, returning home in the afternoon, while on Sunday evening, the former came up again accompanied with Mr. O. N. Petree, of Walnut Cove, both spending the night in town and attending the meeting of the county commissioners Monday.

The heaviest hail and snow of the season fell yesterday.

Mr. Duke Taylor was here Monday from Hartman.

Mr. J. D. Humphreys returned from a trip to Raleigh yesterday.

Ex-Sheriff J. C. Wall, of Walnut Cove Route 3, was in town Monday.

Mr. W. C. Moore, of Campbell, paid us a pleasant visit Saturday.

Eugene Ray, who has been ill of appendicitis at King, is reported better.

The Reporter was glad to see Mr. J. R. Forest, of Francisco, here Saturday.

Mr. C. H. Sheppard, who is one of the best mill men in the county, was among the crowd Saturday.

Master Odell Jones left again Monday for school at Wilkesboro, much to the regret of his many young friends.

Mr. V. G. Lawson, of the Asbury section, a strong Union young man, was among the Union workers here Saturday.

Dr. W. L. McCanless has been confined to his room with grip for several days, and Dr. Will has been kept on double duty since.

Rev. R. L. Doggett filled his regular appointment in the M. E. Church Sunday night. We hear many compliments being passed on Mr. Doggett's sermons.

Messrs. S. H. and W. S. Steele and L. W. Griffin, prominent farmers and good citizens of Sandy Ridge, visited Danbury Saturday.

Mr. James Kington, a hard working and deserving young farmer, of the eastern section of the county, was among the crowd here Monday.

Mr. Wallace Webster, of Germanton Route 1, spent a while here Thursday. Mr. Webster reported his wife, who has been sick recently, as improved.

Mr. R. H. Pulliam, one of the best citizens and most prosperous farmers of the Mount Olive neighborhood, was among the crowd here Saturday attending the Union meeting.

The term of Mr. F. P. Stone, as member of the Board of Education of Stokes county, having expired, Mr. S. P. Christian, of Westfield, was appointed in his stead last week by the legislature.

Major W. S. Ray was in town Monday selling spectacles. These glasses offered by the Major are guaranteed to make the blind see, and to bring back to old eyes the lucid visions of youth—only try a pair and you will never be sorry.

COUNTY FATHERS

ORDER COURT HOUSE INSURED
Amount Placed on Building Is Ten Thousand Dollars—Mr. Bondurant Qualifies As Surveyor—Other Business Transacted.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Commissioners was held at the court house Monday. A full board was in attendance. The question of insuring the court house was again taken up and it was decided to have policies issued for $10,000. Miss Helen Sparger, of Mt. Airy, and Mr. O. N. Petree, of Walnut Cove, came before the board, each asking that the insurance be taken with their respective companies, and the board took $5,000 in each of the representatives companies. In taking out this insurance on the county's court house the commissioners acted wisely. It should have been done sooner.

Mr. R. F. Bondurant appeared before the board and qualified as county surveyor, filing his bond with the commissioners.

Some additions were ordered to be made to the small bridge recently built on the Danbury-Piedmont road.

The petition filed some time ago asking that a public road be laid out from the Quaker Gap road, near Capella, to the Volunteer road, by way of Lunsford's mill, will be considered at the next meeting of the commissioners.

Among the crowd in town Saturday at the Farmers' Union meeting were Messrs. B. J. Savage, D. F. Tillotson, F. L. Moore, and Frank Robertson, leading Union men in their respective sections of the county.

Do you know that of all the miner ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.
