

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS.

Saturday is "All Fools' Day." Easter comes on the 16th of April this time. Dr. W. C. Slate went to Winston-Salem yesterday. Mr. J. Spot Taylor returned from Winston yesterday. Mr. E. W. Carroll, of Winston, spent Sunday and Monday here. A "box party" will be given by the Meadows public school Saturday night. The regular monthly meeting of the county commissioners will be held next Monday. Considerable repairs will be made to the cottage of Hon. J. C. Buxton at Piedmont Springs in the near future.

Mr. R. W. Mitchell, of Gideon, was in Danbury Sunday. Messrs. Grover and Walter Smith, of Francisco, spent Sunday here. The Flat Shoal public school will close Saturday with an entertainment. It is learned that Mr. Will Alley, of Hartman, is very low, which will be learned by his many friends with deepest regret. Among the Danbury people who attended the commencement exercises of the Walnut Cove High School were Mrs. M. T. Chilton, Misses Nell Joyce, Jessie Pepper, Virgie Martin, Annie Blair, Grace Taylor and Janie Martin.

ON TO LITTLE ROCK.

Confederate Veterans Annual Reunion to be Held At Little Rock in May. The next annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans will be held May 16, 17 and 18 at Little Rock, Arkansas. All veterans who are unable to provide or pay for their entertainment will be lodged and fed by the citizens of Little Rock. It is important that all veterans who expect to be entertained free should as soon as possible communicate with Mr. B. L. Roberts, chairman of the committee on encampment for veterans. The encampment will be in a central part of the city and convenient to the auditorium in which the business meetings will be held. Delightful entertainments will be given free. It is hoped that North Carolina will be largely represented at the reunion and all the veterans who can go are urged to attend. The railroads will give unusually low rates heretofore given for the reunions so that the traveling expenses will not be much. While North Carolina has eighty camps, more than half of them pay their dues and are entitled to representatives at the general reunion. The attention of the commander of the camps is especially called to this matter and they are urged to see that their camp dues are paid before the first day of April.

PUBLIC SALE OF LAND.

By virtue and authority of a decree of the Superior Court of Stokes County in case of James Blerson and W. W. King against Z. V. Robertson and others and as Commissioner appointed by the Court in said case, I will sell at public auction at the Court House door in Danbury on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1911, at 12 o'clock, M., being the first Monday of said month, a tract or parcel of land, being 18 1/2 acres more or less, made up of four smaller tracts the outside boundaries around the whole, as surveyed under said decree by E. M. Barnard on the 4th, 5th and 6th days of June, 1901, as follows:

Beginning at the ford of January branch thence with the old January road as it meanders North 85° West 18 poles, North 73° West 19 poles to a small branch, West 12 poles—South 83° West 7 poles, South 84° West 27 poles—north 65° West 16 poles, North 80° West 20 to the cross roads known as the Five Forks, thence North 6 1/2 deg. East with a road 24 poles N. 25 deg. East 12 poles—North 5 deg. West 32 poles to a bend—North 30 deg. West 28 poles thence leaving the road and runs South 87 1/2 deg. East 86 poles crossing two branches to pointers and Sourwood bush, North 2 deg. East 126 poles to a Black Gum Smith's line with same South 88 1/2 deg. East 52 poles to a Chesnut Oak on north side of Ward's Gap road, continuing South 88 1/2 deg. East 63 poles to pointers in the Jesse Mabe tract afterwards James M. Taylor's thence with same line and James M. Taylor's home tract line South 2 deg. West crossing said Ward's Gap road at 44 poles and continuing same course in all 137 poles to pointers formerly Sisk's Post Oak corner, thence North 87 deg. West 40 poles to a prong of January branch, thence down said branch as it meanders South 26 deg. West 44 poles—South 22 deg. West 52 poles—South 2 deg. West 15 poles to the beginning, adjoining the lands of W. R. Hylton, John Leak and James Smith, the former home place of James M. Taylor, and others.

The above land will first be offered in the four smaller tracts, separately, and then all together as one tract and knocked off at the highest bid or bids offering the largest amount. A map of said lands showing the separate tracts and as a whole can be seen at the office of W. W. King at Danbury. This land all lies well and is watered with several branches and has branch bottoms. To be sold for partition, subject to the confirmation of the Court. Terms of sale—cash. This the 28 day of March, 1911 J. H. ELLINGTON, Commissioner.
