

J. M. FAGG WRITES

ON NEW STOKES LEGISLATION

A Synopsis of the Late Acts Passed With Especial Reference to This County.

Red Shoals, April 5.

Mr. Editor: At your request I write regarding some of the acts of the legislature which concern the people of Stokes county.

An act was passed authorizing the county commissioners of Stokes to use the surplus funds on hand for the payment of our outstanding bonded indebtedness, and, by the way, I understand our court house and jail bonds have recently been paid off.

A bill passed the house, and I think it passed the Senate also, to allow the county commissioners $3 per day and mileage for the time they are actually in service as such commissioners.

An act was passed making it a misdemeanor for any person or persons to throw into the public roads of Stokes county any rocks or stumps or anything else that tends to obstruct the public roads. The same act makes it a misdemeanor for any person, persons, firm or corporation owning a telephone line along the public roads to allow either the wire or posts to be and remain in the way of the passing public for more than ten hours during daylight.

A bill was enacted into law to authorize the county commissioners to order an election to vote on a special school tax district at Germanton.

A bill was enacted into law making the owner of a dog liable for damages done by said dog to cattle, sheep, hogs or fowls. The State-wide dog tax bill failed to pass directly, but was so amended as to give the county commissioners the power to tax dogs in their respective counties.

The new tax-listing act (Machinery Act) probably will affect more people than any act passed by the legislature.

The Appropriation act is supposed to increase the pensions of the ex-Confederate soldiers. It also extends the marriage limit of soldiers' wives from 68 to 70. The length of the term of free schools is supposed to be increased.

As my letter is getting lengthy, I will close.

As ever, yours to serve, JAS. M. FAGG.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS.

Mr. J. S. D. Pulliam, of King, came over Sunday afternoon, returning home Monday.

Messrs. G. W. Smith and Roy Boyles, of King Route 2, were among Danbury's visitors Monday.

Mr. C. O. Boyles, the hustling manager of the Boyles Mercantile Co., at King, spent Sunday night and Monday in Danbury.

Quite a number of citizens were in Danbury Monday attending meetings of the County Commissioners and the Board of Education and looking after other business.

Mr. Walter George, of Francisco Route 2, who was here Monday, stated that recently two of his fine fox dogs had been caught in steel traps that had been placed in the woods for foxes. Neither of the dogs were killed, as they were found and liberated soon after being caught.

At this writing the condition of Mr. Will Alley, of Hartman, is critical, and doubts are expressed that he will live for 24 hours. Mr. Alley is a member of the firm of Alley Bros., merchants. He is suffering with tuberculosis. Mr. Alley is an excellent young man, and sincere sympathy is felt by his many friends.

The peach crop is probably almost entirely killed in this section, but the prospect for plenty of apples is good so far.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Martin, of Madison, spent Sunday night and Monday at the McCannless Hotel. They came up in their automobile.

Mr. Hillery G. Tuttle, an energetic and successful young farmer, of the Walnut Cove section, was a visitor at the Reporter office Thursday.

Sheriff C. M. Jones left yesterday for Morganton with Frank A. Martin, the insane white man who was brought here recently from Yadkin township and confined in jail. Martin was examined and adjudged insane and will be placed in the Morganton asylum.

Mr. G. M. Allen, of King, was in town this week and last—Saturday and Monday—on business. Mr. Allen recently had a severe fall, striking his shoulder against a piece of timber with such violence as to give him a temporary paralysis in his arm, the effects of which are still troubling him. Mr. Allen is offering his dwelling and lot at King for sale, having decided to move back to his farm.
