

Population of Stokes County By Townships

SAURATOWN MAKES THE BIGGEST GAIN. MEADOWS THE HEAVIEST LOSER--NET GAIN FOR COUNTY IN TEN YEARS, 285, ONE-HALF OF THIS BEING FURNISHED BY TOWN OF WALNUT COVE.

The Reporter is in receipt of a census sheet issued by the government showing the population of Stokes county for 1910 by townships, as compared with the years 1900 and 1890:

TOWNSHIP.	Year 1910.	Year 1900.	Year 1890.
Beaver Island,	1,923	1,836	1,534
Danbury,	1,185	1,097
Meadow,	2,274	2,374	3,274
Peter's Creek,	2,164	2,189	2,034
Quaker Gap,	3,901	3,797	3,001
Sauratown,	2,472	2,546	1,994
Snow Creek,	2,375	2,469	2,313
Yadkin,	3,587	3,558	3,049

The report shows incorporated towns as follows: Walnut Cove—year 1890, 320; year 1900, 336; year 1910, 480. Germantown—year 1900, 129; year 1910, 154.

The net gain in population for the county as a whole during the last 10 years is 285, and Walnut Cove furnishes a little over half of this gain. Beaver Island Township makes a gain of 87, Danbury of 88, Quaker Gap 104, Sauratown 196, Yadkin 29. Meadows loses 100, Peter's Creek loses 25, and Snow Creek shows a loss of 94.

Messrs. Geo. and J. P. Lewis, of Germantown Route 1, visited Danbury Tuesday, qualifying as administrators of the estate of their father Mr. A. Lewis, who died a few days ago, leaving quite a landed estate. Mr. Lewis the deceased was aged 88 years, 6 months and 28 days, and a most highly respected and honorable gentleman. His death was due to a general breakdown of the system. He had been declining in health for several years. He was buried at the graveyard near his home, instead of Palmyra, as was erroneously stated in the last issue of the Reporter.

Little Misses Lillie May and Mattie Joyce, of Walnut Cove, visited friends and relatives here this week, spending Easter.

LOST HOME AND CASH

WOMAN'S SAD MISFORTUNE

Mrs. Julius Miller Now Realizes Her Serious Mistake of a Life-time—She Now Believes in Banks.

A Hickory, North Carolina, newspaper, tells of the burning of the residence of Mrs. Julius Miller, of Hildebrand, Catawba county, recently. Mrs. Miller was not at home when the fire started, but when she arrived she rushed into the burning building, "snatched at the hiding place, and rescued something like $175.00 in greenbacks. She did not have time to get the coin, and just as she emerged from the house, the roof fell in."

Mrs. Miller now has a mass of melted silver which she wants redeemed, but which the government does not redeem. The value of melted coin money is only the value of the metal just as if it had never been coined.

It is presumed that the first place visited by Mrs. Miller after the loss of her life-time savings was the bank, where she deposited the $175.00 saved from the fire. If she had been keeping it in the bank all time, she not only would not have lost the greater part of her money, but the interest it would have yielded would go far toward rebuilding the destroyed house.

The people everywhere are learning—some of them through sad experience—that the place for money is in the bank. Sometimes one not only loses the money itself by keeping it hid away in the house, but loses life and property. You can't keep people from the knowledge that you have money, neither can you prevent people from talking about where you keep it.

The Bank of Stokes County has offices at Danbury and Walnut Cove, where money in any amount, large or small, is taken either on checking account or interest account. If you put it in on checking account, you get a nice check book free, and can check out your money as you need it. If you put it in on interest account the Bank pays you 4 per cent compound interest every three months, and any day you need interest or principal you can get it.

Write or call any day.
