GERMANTON EVENT

BEAUTIFUL CHINA WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McKenzie Celebrate the Twentieth Anniversary of their Marriage.

Germanton, April 27.—Well, it was the smartest, the fullest of real charm and social pleasure of anything that Germanton has seen and enjoyed for many a day. I mean the occasion of the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McKenzie. This home, one of the nicest and I'm sure the most complete in all its appointments in this section was a thing of beauty on the eve of the twenty-second and the memory of it all must be a joy forever. It must always be thought of as one of those bright spots, rare social flower-gardens that occasionally adorn and enrich the pathway of life.

The rooms were resplendent and beautiful in the soft, mellow light and floral decoration; where palms and ferns so fittingly reminded one of the natural loveliness of our Southland.

At 7:30 the guests began to arrive and soon the whole town almost, and many from the country and neighboring towns were gathered there "where bright lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men."

About 9:30 the guests were ushered into the spacious dining room where the table groaned under its burden—not of delicious refreshments but of dozens of pieces of elaborately wrought china—all most beautiful in hand painted decoration. This came from the guests and good friends everywhere. Splendid refreshments were served as if by magic. Unseen at first the several courses showered down as if borne by the wings of fairies. The Misses Rierison of Walnut Cove were the active geniuses to preside at this feature of the occasion. While at the table, where the body was being so abundantly provided for, that other part of dual man—the soul—was being filled and thrilled to the height of ecstatic emotion by the sweet strains of music and song. Dr. L. H. Hill, Mrs. J. D. Powers, Misses Annie Hill, Etta Crews, Mabel McKenzie, Stella Rierison, Mary Matthews and Messrs. J. M. and P. H. Hill were the artists of a musical program such as it is seldom one's good fortune to enjoy.

Conspicuous among the genteel throng that circled the dining-room the genial pair, the host and hostess—looking so full of youth and free from care, that tin and not china should have adorned the table in the center. The host was in his usual garb of wit, humor and hospitality, while the charming hostess was attired in a splendid gown of black silk and voil with pink corals, and as has been said the twenty years of conjugal felicity have so eluded the rasping finger of time that the stranger there that night, might have taken her for the young bride just entering the matrimonial relation.

After the dispensation of the dining room the gentlemen repaired to the smoking room, there to enjoy the fragrant Havanas and to listen with eager ear to the reminiscent fund of anecdote and story which the presence of the host and his inimitable friend S. C. Hill warranted to be forthcoming.

This feature over, again the parlors were filled and while music and song and mirth resounded, the hours slipped by all unheeded, and too soon did all realize the hour of departure had come. And as the guests went their way the stars seemed to look down with eyes of flashing envy.

DAVIS-FULTON.

Two of Walnut Cove's Popular Young People Wed in Winston.

The following is taken from last Thursday's Winston Journal: A marriage that will be of interest to the many friends of the bride and groom, especially in Stokes county, was celebrated very quietly in this city late yesterday afternoon, when Carrie G. Fulton became the wife of Mr. Harry H. Davis, Rev. L. W. Collins, pastor of Grace Methodist church of this city, officiating.

The bride and groom are both from Walnut Cove and came to Winston-Salem late yesterday afternoon, going directly to the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mrs. F. T. Marshall, where the marriage occurred, in the presence of a few of the relatives of the bride in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will leave this morning for Walnut Cove, where they will reside.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Jacob Fulton, a prominent merchant of Walnut Cove, and the groom is a prosperous young business man of the same place, having been engaged with his father-in-law in the mercantile business for a long time. So far as is known there was no objections to marriage, but the young couple merely came to Winston-Salem to add a touch of romance to the affair and, incidentally, to surprise their friends at Walnut Cove.

The Reporter extends congratulations to the happy couple.

H. H. Young's Plan.

Smith, April 17. Messrs. Editors: Will you allow me a reply to Mr. H. H. Reid on the road question.

Mr. Reid, your plan is good if the country was uniform. I had rather work one mile of some road than fifty yards of some.

What are you going to do with those that are just here and yonder? Just allot his to him and maybe he will work it once, then he says every man has his part. Then he will say, "I will hunt me another job, I can get just as much as I am getting." Then who is going to work that part of the road. You would start off over good roads and come to a place you could not pass, what would you think?

My friend, I want to give you my plan to work the roads, that is to work the roads six days in the year, or more in case of water. When you see a road that has twelve days work in two years, you will see a very good road. Why not pay the overseer? I think he should have $6.00 per year, then if he fails to put in his six days, make him pay $10, then you will see the roads begin to improve. The most of the overseers just before court will go over the roads and drag in a few dry clods when the land is soft and mellow. That is the time to warn in your hands for two days and work the roads.

H. H. YOUNG.

Mr. E. O. Caudle, the liveryman and horsetrader of King, was here Monday.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH.

"After our child had suffered severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, legrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs, its the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

BIG MEMBERSHIP AT START

Ceremonies in the Junior Hall—Several Danbury Citizens Join.

Messrs. J. Spot Taylor, C. M. Jones and W. C. Slate went to Walnut Cove Wednesday night where they became charter members of a new Odd Fellows lodge instituted at that place.

The lodge begins its career under most favorable circumstances. Following is a list of those elected to membership, by Salem Lodge No. 36 of Winston-Salem, that lodge having been given the privilege of balloting on the members: R. S. Nunn, W. F. Bowles, D. L. Caudle, J. W. Fulp, S. W. Rierison, T. S. Petree, Julius A. Neal, E. C. Young, Charles J. Marshall, P. W. Gunter, O. N. Petree, W. P. Wheeler, J. M. Vaughn, L. H. Isom, W. C. Slate, N. R. Hedgecock, Jas. W. Lasley, T. H. Gerry, M. N. Wheeler, S. L. Murray, J. R. Voss, P. H. Linville, J. Spot Taylor, J. N. East, J. H. Fulp, J. L. Mitchell, Ray L. Vaughn, S. C. Hill, R. A. Hedgecock, N. E. Burton, W. G. McPherson, J. M. Westmoreland.

The ceremonies took place in the Junior Hall, the work being done by a picked team from Salem No. 37 and Bethabara No. 106. Those who came from Winston-Salem for the occasion are:

John F. Griffith, W. A. Walker, N. D. Dowdy, Mack Asburn, J. G. Morefield, E. P. Albea, W. H. March, R. P. Clingman, H. M. Brandon, H. P. Reid, S. H. Dula, H. G. Hall, M. M. Morgan, J. W. Snider, W. A. Holder, W. E. Beck, H. B. Gunter, J. W. Frazier, S. C. Harper, H. F. Chreitzburg, G. F. Hinshaw, B. W. Powell, R. M. Tuttle.

Eighteen of them came in a big "Gramm" truck, driven by S. G. Miller of the Motor Company, while others came earlier on the train. Those who came by auto left after the lodge was installed, while those who came by train will return home tomorrow. The degree team was in charge of Grand Marshal John W. Frazier.

The Winston-Salem men are quartered at the New Hotel Dodson, one of the best hotels to be found in North Carolina.

Notice.

I hereby forbid any one feeding, hiring or harboring my son, who left home April the 20th, going in the direction of Rocky Mount, Va., in company with Arch Dillard, colored, who lives at Wadesboro.

My son is chunky, 16 years old and his color is dark brown and any one who will arrest him and notify me I will pay all expenses for same.

WILL SHUFF, (col.)
King, N. C., Route 1.

Notice.

There will be a special meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association, Monday, May 8th, at 1 o'clock P. M. All members are requested to be present, also all merchants that desire to join.

E. C. Sheppard, Vice-Pres.

Messrs. J. J. Priddy, J. L. Coleman, Rufus P. Mabe, John G. Mabe and Joseph Ashby were among the visitors here Monday.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.

STOKES BOY LANDS

CARL RAY ACHIEVES FAME

Tributes to the Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ray By the State Papers.

Some people are born to fame, others achieve fame, while still others have fame thrust upon them. Carl Ray, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ray, who until a few weeks ago was working on the farm near Danbury, obscure and unsung, today is the sensation of the State baseball enthusiasts and has been signed up as pitcher for a league team at a salary of $1,200. In other words, Carl has suddenly achieved fame. The Winston Sentinel says he is the equal of Tony Walters in the latter's palmist days. Reporting the game in which Ray for Whitsett fanned 12 of Winston-Salem's players, the Sentinel says:

The decided feature of the game was the twirling of a Stokes county boy who fanned twelve of Clancy's classiest men. His name is Ray and his father is a big tobacco grower on one of J. Spot Taylor's farms near Danbury.

Ray is red-headed, just 21 years old, a southpaw and he has been dubbed the equal of Tony Walters in his palmist days. Some of the older fans declare that the Madison man never had as much speed on his underhand ball as the one delivered by Ray. Earl Holt and other old ball players are predicting that Ray will become a wonder, having no mishaps. He has had offers to play with Greensboro and Elizabeth City, but both propositions were turned down.

The Whitsett players told the writer that if Ray could be with Clancy a few weeks they believed he would soon become the star twirler in the Carolina league. They admitted that he needed training, that he was a little careless about watching bases and other points.

Had the Stokes boy been given errorless support, the score would not have been 4 to 1.

Swindell pitched the opening innings and the "big boy" showed up well. Boyle, who succeeded him, did well for a man with a sore arm. Every man in the line-up played the game, with one exception—they just would hit under that "rise" ball delivered by the boy from Stokes.

Here is the box score which tells its own story of the contest:

PIEDMONT SPRINGS

THE SEASON TO OPEN EARLY

People to Come in the First to Middle of May—Hotel Opens June 5, With Number of Guests Expected At the Start.

The Piedmont season will open soon. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Saunders and the Misses Allen, of Winston, will occupy their cottage at the Springs the first of next week; Mr. Jesse H. Prather and family, of Mt. Airy, will arrive to spend the summer about two weeks later; and other cottagers are expected to come in soon. The hotel will open on June 5th, on which date a crowd of Rockingham, Caswell and Virginia young ladies, with a number of their friends, are expected. Other guests are also being looked for the same date from Winston, Reidsville, Mt. Airy and other places.

Mr. A. J. Fagg, of Danbury, will open a store at the Springs the latter part of May. Mr. R. P. Joyce, the Walnut Cove liveryman, will start an up-to-date livery in the hotel stable about the same time.

A good deal of work is being done at the Springs on the cottages of Messrs. Saunders, Buxton, Prather, and others.

A Challenge.

The Danbury second nine baseball team requests the Reporter to challenge any second nine ball team of the county to meet them on Danbury's diamond Monday, May 8.

Drs. J. H. Ellington, of Sandy Ridge, and J. W. Neal, of Meadows, two of our county's leading physicians and most substantial citizens, had business here Monday.

The many friends of Major W. S. Ray will be pained to learn that he is quite ill at his home a mile south of Danbury.

DO GHOSTS HANT SWAMPS.

No Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that causes ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, remedy only. 50c at all druggists.

NOTICE!

The road supervisors of the various townships of Stokes County, N. C., who have not heretofore held meetings in their respective townships are earnestly requested to do so at once, and look after the public roads of their townships, and see that the overseers properly work and care for the roads under their charge. By order of the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County, N. C. This May the 1st, 1911.

W. C. SLATE,
Register of Deeds and Ex. Officio Clerk of the Board of Commissioners.
