DEATH OF VIOLA HAWKINS

The Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hawkins—Farming On a Boom—Wheat Crops Good, And the Stork Busy.

Campbell, May 22.—News has just been received here of the death of Viola, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hawkins, formerly of Sandy Ridge, now of Glen St. Mary, Florida. The little body is now on the way home for burial, and is expected to arrive tomorrow at Madison and will be brought to Sandy Ridge. The stricken family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many relatives and friends in this section, who only wish they could be with them to comfort them in this, their darkest hour. May the all-wise Father help them to bear up under this great affliction, is the prayer in the hearts of all their loved ones at home.

Rev. J. A. Joyce filled his regular appointment at Oak Ridge Saturday and Sunday, preaching excellent sermons to large crowds.

Mr. Decatur Hutcherson has accepted a position at Tarboro, N. C., to which place he will shortly remove his family. It is with many regrets that we see our good people leaving the county.

Now and then we see this item: "Farmers are behind with their work etc." It is not the case in this section. Farming seems to be on a boom. More new barns and dwellings have Wheat crops are good. Corn is up and some are working it, and gardens are flourishing. The fruit crop, however, will not be abundant. But the good ladies canned and preserved enough to last year for two years.

The stork has been busy in our section, having left a dozen or more babies scattered around. The latest arrivals are a boy at W. S. Snider, and a girl at W. S. Steele's.

COULDN'T COOK A MEAL

The Trouble Mrs. Buchanan Had, And How She Finally Overcame It With Cardui.

Liverpool, W. Va.—Mrs. N. J. Buchanan writes from this place: "I suffered for three years with womanly troubles, and had such pains I thought I would die. I could not stand up long enough to cook a meal. I would work a little, and then have to sit down. At last, I had to be in bed half the time. My husband read a Cardui advertisement that described almost the way I felt, so I sent for some Cardui. After taking it, I began to get better right away.

Now, I am cured, and I am very grateful, indeed, for what Cardui has done for me. I shall always praise it."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening remedy for women, especially for women, from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients. That's the reason for its 50 years of success. It will pay you to test it for yourself.

W. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

On complaint of her husband, Mr. Isaac Bullen, that he feared personal injury at the hands of his wife, Mrs. Betsy Bullen, who, he alleges, is insane, the woman was locked up in jail here last week and will probably be sent to the asylum at Morgantown.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.
