A SIGN OF BIGGER AND BETTER FARMING.

One of the best evidences of the improvement in farming methods in Stokes county is the fine equipment of mules on the plantations. It is a subject of comment among visitors that Stokes county farmers own better mules than any other county in the State. We believe this is so. Farmers are often criticised for going in debt for costly mules. It must be admitted that going in debt too heavily is to be looked on with disapproval, but unless a farmer has good land, good stock and good tools, he cannot succeed by growing tobacco on the present small margin of profits. After equipping himself with all three of these indispensable adjuncts to his farming operations, he must still have good judgment, energy and enthusiasm to win success. With the whole six, you can't hold him down, and it's no use to try.

HAS IREDELL GONE CRAZY?

The other day Iredell county, N. C., followed the lead of many other progressive counties of North Carolina, by voting a bond issue of $400,000 for the building of modern roads. Some people might say that Iredell county has gone crazy, but from the evidence in hand it appears that the Iredell people had studied the question very carefully, having ample time to deliberate. From the overwhelming majority in favor of the bond issue, it would seem that the great majority of the people were in favor of it. And the record shows that Iredell county is a careful, sane and sane county, and that within her borders are just as sensible, just as cool-headed, just as conservative people as you will find most anywhere.

DELEGATES TO GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

The Reporter, for its part, is very much pleased to note the evidence of progressiveness displayed by our county commissioners in appointing a number of Stokes representatives to attend the Good Roads Convention at Winston on the 13th and 14th. While there is of course no pay attached to the office of a Good Roads convention, it is a distinguished honor and of immense importance. The five men appointed are representatives of our best citizenship, and men who stand among those who are highest in character, intelligence and property. It is hoped that they will all go.

AN ABSENT BOY'S LOVE FOR THE OLD HOME COUNTY.

Mr. E. W. Carroll says he will give $50 per year for a period of ten years for a good road from the Forsyth county line north through Stokes via Danbury, and from Rural Hall to the top of the mountain at Gap. Mr. Carroll does not live in Stokes county but his home is in Winston-Salem. Such is his love, however, for his old home county, and for his friends, that he would be thus liberal to see a good road here, which would mean so much for the up-building of the county.

The friends of County Commissioner Chap Bodenheimer, of Germantown, it is learned are strongly urging him to be a candidate for Sheriff next election. Mr. Bodenheimer is very popular with his party, and will no doubt make it interesting for his competitor.

COMING MONDAY

REIDSVILLE GIRLS DELAYED

Party of Automobilists to Arrive At Piedmont On Monday, June 12—Will Possibly Be Forty Or Fifty In the Crowd.

The Reidsville Review's automobile party to Piedmont Springs did not make the start on last Monday owing to a hitch in the arrangements, but will arrive next Monday, June 12. The Review sends the Reporter word that if the weather continues good, so that the roads can be used by the machines, that there will be forty or fifty in the party. They will be joined at Madison by another delegation, largely augmenting the crowd.

The Review's popular voting contest closed Wednesday night, May 31, and the following young ladies were found to be elected: Miss Mary Windsor, of Reidsville, 16,654; Miss Inez Wooten, of Reidsville, 9,119; Miss Edna King, of Reidsville, 9,169; Miss Della Jones, 4,239; Miss Gladys Cummings, New Bethel, 5,350; Miss Iris Fitzgerald, Ruffin, 4,811; Miss Bessie Richardson, Wentworth, 6,329; Miss Gertrude McKinney, Williamsburg, 9,162; Miss Luda Mosely, Winston, 2,365; Miss Wilson Watlington, Caswell, 5,188; Miss Mattie Gardner, Danville, 1,849; Miss Kittie May Irvin, Reidsville, 6,619.

The following young ladies were not elected in the contest, but did some good work for the Review, and will accompany the party to Piedmont, partly on their own expense and partly on the expense of the Review: Miss Nettie Pettigrew, Reidsville.

Miss Lillie Glenn, Stoneville.
Miss Eliza Pratt, Madison.
Miss Annie Mosely, Wentworth.
Miss Lelia Ellington, Reidsville.
Miss Maggie Meador, Reidsville.
Miss Lelia French, Reidsville.
Miss Mary Gibbs, Reidsville.
Miss Bloomer Gloss, Reidsville.
Miss Vera Gilliam, McIver.
Miss Ila Pritchett, Brown Summit.
Miss Bessie Rice, Caswell county.
Miss Kate DeShazo, Ridge-way, Va.
Miss Mary C. Jones, Ridge-way, Va.

On account of the short time which intervened between the close of the election and the proposed date for the start to Piedmont (June 5), many of the girls who had felt a delicacy in getting ready for the trip without being certain of their election, found themselves unable to make the necessary preparations in so short a time. Consequently the publishers of the Review felt impelled to extend the date of starting another week. This action on the part of the promoters of the trip met the approval of nearly all of the young ladies, as well as many of their friends and relatives who desired to accompany them.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.
