

COMPOUND CALLOUSES
Tells Splendid Cure for Them and All Foot Troubles.

A compound callosus is the secondary stage when it grows inward and presses on the nerves, causing intense pain. Callouses never cure themselves but always get worse, sometimes irritating the whole nervous system. The following is a most effective and speedy cure "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. (Less time will not give the desired results.) The soreness will disappear immediately and the callosus can be easily peeled off. Repeat this for several nights. A little olive oil rubbed into skin is very beneficial."

This Calocide is a very remarkable preparation for all foot ailments. Bunions, corns and ingrowing nails get instant relief and are soon cured. Bad smelling and sore feet need but a few treatments. Calocide is no longer confined to doctors' use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually enough to put the worst feet in fine condition. It will prove a blessing to persons who have been vainly trying ineffectual tablets and foot powders.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society
Holds Interesting Meeting.

The most interesting meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society for many months was the one which took place in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

The committee, Mesdames Taylor, King and Joyce prepared an unusually attractive as well as instructive program, and immediately after the doxology, all the members were invited into the church annex, where the society was delightfully entertained by the charming committee.

The most delicious refreshments were served on little tables which had been beautifully decorated with ferns and roses.

The entire society tendered their thanks to the committee for one of the most pleasurable afternoons ever spent.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one tenth as much. For sale by all dealers.
