

MISS JETTIE MOREFIELD WRITES

Is Anxious For Stokes To Wake Up and Get Good Roads—Calls on Her Friends To Stand By Her In the Voting Contest.

Altamahaw, Nov. 17.
Dear friends:
Wonder how every one in dear old Stokes is? I feel that I would like to be back in my county if it is hilly and rough, but I would like to go better if we only had grand roads like Alamance county has, in which I am in. There are beautiful roads down here, and it is so much enjoyment to take a drive on fine roads. Why can't old Stokes wake up and not let the other counties beat her? I'm sure we have some as good citizens in dear old Stokes as are any where else, and why not prove it?
I rec'd our dear old home paper today and it is much comfort to me to read of the home people. I didn't realize how much I appreciated it until I got away from home.

I notice that my name has been entered in the contest, and I wish to thank the friend who honored me by doing so. I feel glad to know I have a friend or friends that still remember me while I am away and take such an interest in me. Since my name has entered the contest I hope many of my friends will remember "Little Jettie" and vote for her every chance. I'm sure no one will appreciate the kindness of their friends more than I. I am liking my school fine. We have a nice Literary Society, meet every Friday night and have good debates, essays, etc. I am on for debate Friday night. Won't you all come and hear me speak?
Any one who wishes to enter a good school, I advise them to come to Gilliam's Academy. Old "G. A." is a hustling place especially when the boys get to kicking tin tubs about, rattling chains, turning trunks and chairs top side down on professor's bed.

Hope all my friends will remember me and do all they can to let "Jettie" be one among the crowd of jolly young ladies to take a trip to the sea coast.
Best wishes,
JETTIE MOREFIELD.

SAVED MANY FROM DEATH.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

Mr. H. H. Reid of Danbury Route 1, was at the Reporter office Monday, to the particulars, etc., with reference to the big Voting Contest recently put on by the Reporter. It will be recalled that Reid was one of the principle workers in the last contest which the Reporter conducted, his daughter Miss Trudie, winning the piano. When Henry Reid goes after a thing, he is mighty apt to land. It is understood that he is interested in this contest.
