FARMERS' UNION VOTES TO BUILD TOBACCO FACTORY AT WALNUT COVE

ENTHUSIASTIC RESOLUTION ADOPTED

REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF UNION HERE SATURDAY TO ELECT OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR--NEARLY ALL OF OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED--LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Stokes County Farmers' E. and C. U. of A. a resolution was introduced and adopted by a unanimous vote looking to the early building of a tobacco factory at Walnut Cove for the manufacture of the pooled tobacco. A committee consisting of several leaders of the Union in the county was appointed to formulate plans, confer with wealthy farmers in regard to what amounts of stock in the proposed factory may be enlisted, etc. The report was current here Saturday that B. J. Savage, of Germanton, and W. M. Watts, of Walnut Cove, among the county's wealthiest citizens and farmers, would subscribe liberally for the stock, the former agreeing, it was said, to take as much as $10,000. The matter was discussed in the meeting with a good deal of enthusiasm.

The following officers were either elected or re-elected for the ensuing year:

- R. L. Nunn, President.
- J. R. Martin, Vice-President.
- G. A. Hutcherson, Secretary-Treasurer.

- Door-Keeper, L. W. James.
- Conductor, L. F. Tuttle.
- Chaplain, J. A. Lawson.
- Executive Committee--Z. V. Martin, Chas. Huff, J. A. Lawson.

The following members were elected delegates to attend the Union at Wilson, which will be in session the 13th, 14th, 15th inst.: J. Spot Taylor, B. J. Savage, J. A. Lawson, R. L. Nunn, J. D. Martin, C. C. Huff, G. G. Tuttle, H. C. Thornton.

Misrepresentations Circulated By Enemies of Dry Prizery, Corrected

Certain enemies of the Union Warehouse Company have circulated the report that Oscar Lash, a colored man, offered to pool at Walnut Cove, and the price tendered him was so low that he carried his tobacco to the warehouse, where he sold it for a much higher price. The report is entirely untrue. The facts are as follows: Lash brought his tobacco to our plant, but under the rules of the organization, he was not allowed to pool on account of the fact that his tobacco was found to be encumbered with debt. He then took it to the warehouse and was paid less than we would have offered him, which was 8 1-2 cents average.

Crazy Negro Brought Back to Jail.

Dave Finney, a crazy negro, who was some times brought to jail here and later released, has again become violently insane and was brought back to jail a few days since. He is giving the authorities considerable trouble, having to be kept tied in his cell all the time. An effort is being made to get him in the insane asylum at Goldsboro, and he will probably be sent there in a few days.

LATER. Messrs. Thos. S. Petree and A. H. Joyce, Jr., carried Dave Finney to the insane asylum at Goldsboro yesterday.

Mr. Taylor Preparing To Erect Stores - Two Fights Reported - Other Items.

Walnut Cove, Dec. 11.—Mr. James E. Shelton stopped at the Central Monday and said he was on his way to Winston to see his daughter, who has been sick with fever for seven weeks. We are glad to know she is a little better.

Dod Watts and John R. Smith had a sparring match and after the smoke of the battle had cleared away, Mr. Smith had a gash on his head made by a stone in the hands of Dod Watts, and Dod in turn had a sore head caused by a stick in the hands of John R. Smith.

There has been a stock company formed by the base ball boys of this place, and I am told they have leased from Mr. Taylor the land below Mr. Bowles livery stables and will have an up to date base ball park.

Mrs. Lite Isom is on the sick list.

Prof. Byerly is not so well. He called in Dr. Tuttle yesterday.

Mr. W. L. Hairston, who has been down on his farm, had an altercation with a colored man last week and was badly hurt about the head and face.

The Roanoke and Southern in connection with the government ran an agricultural train from Roanoke to Winston-Salem, stopping two hours here on last Saturday morning. One speaker made a talk to the school children and three made talks to the farmers, one on soil culture, and one on beautifying the country homes, and last but not least one on good roads and the advantages to be derived therefrom. The agricultural display was just fine and taking it all together it was very helpful and instructive.

Mr. J. E. Cookers has moved in his new house on Main St.

Mr. James Tuttle has moved in Mr. John Davis house.

The roller mill has been shut down for ten days owing to having some needed repairs done to the engine, but it is now running on full time. Mr. John Lackey is a hustler and is making quite a success of the milling business.

Mr. John Taylor, of Winston, is having lumber put on the lot where he will soon commence the erection of a brick block.

Does It Pay to Advertise?

Mr. M. D. Hart, of Birmingham, Ala., wished to sell his one-third interest in a lot of land in Stokes. He put an ad in the Reporter one time, and then ordered the ad out, for he sold his property to a Winston man who saw the ad, in less than a week.

Does it pay to advertise? If you advertise in the Reporter, it does.

OAK GROVE FARMERS

EATING HOG AND HOMINY

Good Crop of Corn Raised, and Many Porkers Killed—News and Personals of Interest.

King Route 2, Dec. 11.—The farmers of this section are in better spirits and enjoying life better than for some time. As they are about through sowing wheat, getting up and shucking corn, and now many of them have killed their hogs, got in their winter's wood and are sitting back by a good fire and eating hog and hominy.

The people of this section are about over their scare from last summer's drought. They have made the best crop of corn and meat they have ever made. Work like this means prosperity to the homes of the people. The people ought to remember that in some way or other the Lord will provide.

There are no rabbit and bird hunters in this section. The boys are at work or in school, as there is no time to be lost.

Mr. D. L. Boyles was united in marriage to Miss Daisy Bullington last Sunday as we expected. We wish them much success in married life.

Mrs. D. W. Gordon, of Pinnacle Route 2, has moved to Pilot Mt., in order that she may educate her children.

Mr. S. K. Anderson has gone to Mt. Airy after a load of apples and chestnuts for Xmas.

Rev. Simmons, of Vade Mecum, preached an interesting sermon at Oak Grove last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Hamm, of New York, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hamm, of Pinnacle Route 1. Mr. Hamm has been in New York for 6 years. He talks interestingly of that country.

Mr. Jim Southern and sister Miss Lula, of Germanton, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. W. R. Boyles on King Route 1.

Mr. Tom Hamm is very sick at this writing. We hope he will soon be well so he can go to Pinnacle Xmas. His best girl will look for him then.

There have been good hogs killed in the Oak Grove section. The list is as follows: D. F. Boyles four, 1,400 pounds; E. W. Edwards, two, 680 pounds; J. H. Gibson, two, 658 pounds; W. H. Boyles two, 745 pounds; I. B. Gentry, three, 1,000 pounds; R. G. Gentry, three, 1,228 pounds; B. H. Boles, three, 900 pounds; S. K. Anderson, three 900 pounds; T. G. Gentry, two, 1,000 pounds and a lot more to kill. It seems from the report the people will have hog and hominy for the next year.

SCRIBBLER.

The thanks of the Reporter's printers is due Dr. W. C. Slate, the Register of Deeds, for the nicely prepared annual county exhibit, which he delivers to us typewritten, headed and arranged ready for the compositors, an innovation which can be properly appreciated only by those who have in the past been burdened with this work. The typewriter is an invention which ought to have a very large monument, and Dr. Slate ought to have a larger one for writing his report on it.

The big sale of G. W. Neal at Campbell is to be from 9 A M to 4 P M, on Saturday, December 23, and not 9 A M till 10 P M, as erroneously stated in the advertisement.

MR. ROSS TO SPEAK

COMING TO THE CORN SHOW

Saturday, December 23, Will Witness Really a Very Interesting and Important Event at the Reporter Office—Many Corn Growers Probably Coming.

The announcement of the Corn Show to be given at the Danbury Reporter office on Saturday, December 23, seems to have struck a very popular chord in a number of sections of the county. Already samples of corn are coming in to be entered for the prizes. The first person to enter is Mr. Walter L. Nelson, of Danbury Route 1, who sends an ear which will be hard to beat.

Remember the contest is open to any corn grower of Stokes county, man, woman or child, and the prizes to be awarded are as follows:

For the best ear, $5.00 in gold given by the Danbury Reporter. For the second best ear $2.00 in cash, given by the Bank of Stokes County.

For the third best ear, 1 year's subscription to the Danbury Reporter.

In all probability there will be a good sized crowd at entrees here to contest for the prizes, from various sections of the County. The judges who will render the decisions, are Messrs. I. G. Ross, J. Spot Taylor and W. H. Flinchum.

An interesting feature of the occasion will be a corn speech by Mr. I. G. Ross, the head of the county corn demonstration work. The following better just received from Mr. Ross explains itself:

Locust Hill Farm, Dec. 9.

Editors of the Reporter:

"As I am a judge at the Corn Show, I want to say to the corn growers of the community that I will be toere to talk to them about seed corn, how to choose it and what kind is best suited to their localities, and what is required of an ear to be a good sud ear. I want as many as can to be there, for knowing good seed corn would be adding greatly to the average of our acres, and a great increase to our next years' corn crop."

"I. G. ROSS."

Hunt through your corn pile, pick out two or three of your best ears, you may get one of the prizes.

A full account of the show, together with the names of the prize-winners will be published in the Reporter the following issue.

Pilot Mountain.

The above shows the standing of the contestants in the Popular Voting Contest as the Reporter goes to press today.

Since the last issue of the Reporter went out, a large number of votes have been issued, and a good many of them cast. One man alone received 4,950 votes, which he declined to cast now, and which he remarked he would hold till later developments.

Miss Daisy Dearmin, the leader this week, is the deservedly popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dearmin, of Westfield. Miss Daisy is well known, especially in the western part of the county, where she has many friends. She is certain to make a good run in this contest. No one has yet ventured a prediction as to who will win the highest vote and receive the silver-engraved cup. It would be much easier to say who will go on the trip to the ocean, than to speculate on the cup-winner. Because a girl has eight chances to go to the sea-coast where she has one to win the highest vote premium.

The votes will pour in during and after Christmas. During the week from Dec. 25 to the 31st there will be many social events and gatherings at which the crowds will speculate on the winners, and on these happy occasions thousands of votes will be cast for the various candidates, when the holiday feeling runs high, and the generous Christmas spirit is abroad in the land. Some of the friends of the girls, as is the custom in these contests, will get in buggies and scour the neighborhoods for votes, and the figures will run high.

The publishers of the Reporter find it necessary to omit the printed coupons from the paper after December 27. No coupons will be printed during the remainder of the contest which runs into the new year. The reason for this ruling is on account of the difficulty of counting the coupons, which would otherwise pour in by the thousands on the last day. All coupons being held should be sent in by the first of January, if possible. No coupons received after January 10 will be counted. All coupons received up to and including January 10 will be counted.

Remember it costs nothing to vote, and all amounts paid on subscription, job work or advertising are good for votes.

Save every coupon, get every subscriber you can, as every vote will be valuable in electing your favorite young lady. But remember she will need every every one you can muster.
