

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. D. A. Hodgkin, of Greensboro, was here Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Spot Taylor is spending a few days at Winston-Salem.

Mr. J. G. Clark, of Campbell, visited the Reporter office Tuesday.

Mr. J. B. Coon, of Pilot Mountain, was here Monday buying furs for shipment.

Mr. Osa Smith, of Danbury Route 1, was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. Gorrell Hall, of Vade Mecum, was here on business Tuesday.

Postmaster W. J. Edwards, of Pinnacle, spent a few hours in Danbury Tuesday.

Mr. A. W. Davis, postmaster at Walnut Cove, was here Tuesday on business.

County Commissioner Jno. W. Gann, of Madison Route 3, was a Danbury visitor Tuesday.

Mr. P. C. Campbell was here with a load of beautiful Patrick county wine-saps today, which he retailed at $1.25 per bushel.

Messrs. Moses B. and Larry H. Mabe passed through today on their way to the dry prizery with tobacco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gibson, of Mizpah, spent Friday night here the guests of their relatives, Dr. W. C. Slate.

Messrs. O. C. Taylor, of Campbell, and W. I. Mitchell, of Walnut Cove were among the visitors Friday.

Mr. Alfred Mabe was here Monday from Danbury Route 1. The Reporter was pained to learn of the continued serious illness of his wife.

Mr. G. W. Wood, a progressive young merchant of Campbell Route 1, was among the crowd in town Saturday, accompanied by Mr. E. K. Vernon.

It is learned that the Danbury Union Sunday School will have a Christmas tree, with appropriate exercises by the school one night during the holidays.

Mr. Richard Woods, of Hartman, dropped in to see the Reporter Tuesday. Mr. Woods killed several nice porkers last week, the best one weighing 488 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Pulliam, of King Route 1, spent a while here Saturday. Mr. Pulliam is one of the best citizens of Yadkin township, and one of its biggest farmers.

Mr. Jim Nelson, of Meadows Route 1, is spending a few days in town. It is said that Mr. Nelson preaches occasionally, being an adherent of the Primitive Baptist faith.

Mr. P. H. Young, of Sandy Ridge Route 1, was here yesterday with his daughter, Miss Vera who was suffering with a felon on one finger, which was treated by Dr. McCanless.

Mr. C. A. Wagner, of Mizpah, has sold his place and moving this week to his new home at Dillard. His Mizpah plantation was bought by his brother, Mr. Earl Wagner.

Mr. J. D. Shelton, of Danbury Route 1, or Campbell, is critically ill with diabetes. There is but little hope entertained for his recovery. He is quite a young man, about 30.

Mr. M. T. Chilton, of Danbury, has purchased the Caudle farm in Rockingham. The consideration is said to have been $12,000. This is one of the finest farms in Rockingham county.

Mr. J. N. Young and family, of Meadows, moved into the Taylor hotel, which they have leased, Monday. Mrs. Finchum, who was only a temporary occupant, has moved into the dwelling house recently occupied by the Cardwell family.

Talking Machines are not sold by Miller-Walk Co. at Rural Hall because they sell goods for cash. This business does its own talking. Their reduction sale during December enables you to get a pair of $3.00 shoes for $2.00.

PIEDMONT Sells Lots of Tobacco and Sells It HIGH

Read the Figures :

Wednesday, December 6th, Piedmont sold 77630 pounds for $8,720.53; average $11.23. (44 per cent. of market sales for this day.)

Thursday, December 7th, Piedmont sold 43338 pounds for $4,766.62; average $11.00. (43 per cent. of market sales for this day.)

Friday, December 8th, Piedmont sold 43780 pounds for $5,334.20; average $12.18. (44 per cent. of market sales for this day.)

It will pay you to get some tobacco ready right away and sell it at... Piedmont. You shall have good prices for it.

M. W. Norfleet & Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

FIRST SALE DAYS FOR DECEMBER : EVERY MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Tobacco Moving.

A good deal of tobacco is moving now, with this slight season. It is estimated that more than half of the crop is out of the farmers' hands.

Public Sale.

On Dec. 21st, I will sell to the highest bidder my entire line of merchandise, consisting of dry goods, notions, groceries, etc.

J. P. SMITH, Campbell, N. C., Route 1.

Entertainment December 23.

Sandy Ridge, Dec. 11—The Moore's school is progressing nicely under the efficient management of Mrs Annie B. Hawkins, and a very interesting program is in preparation for an entertainment to be given Saturday December 23rd, at 2 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited.

Christmas Trees and Entertainment.

A public entertainment in connection with two Christmas trees will be given at Quaker Gap Baptist church on the night of December 25th, Christmas. There will be one tree for the public, and one for the school. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring presents.

Geo. and Sid Come To Town.

Messrs. George Washington Smith, of King Route 2, and Alfred Sidney Marsh, of Pinnacle, spent a few hours in Danbury on business today. Mr. Marsh had the misfortune to almost totally lose his tobacco crop in a hailstorm back in the early summer. Geo. says the only things that bothered his crop was dry weather and laziness—and, Sid adds courting.

A Pie-Eating Contest.

The ladies of the Capella school district deserve the premium for ingenuity in contests. The box-party is a back number up there, and the latest thing is a pie-eating contest. On Friday night, December 8, sixteen pies were sold, the proceeds of which amounted to $20.70. The pie that brought the biggest price was one which Mr. S. J. Overby had the exquisite felicity of munching with Miss Stella Ferguson, and which privilege Mr. Overby paid $3.00 for.

For pains in the side or chest dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

Singing School At Oak Grove Closes Sunday—Dillard Items.

Dillard, Dec. 12.—Messrs Long and Thomas Wilson, of Intelligence, visited Mr. Wilson's sister.

Mr. Garfield Wilson, of Wentworth, visited at Mr. L. J. Duncan's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adkins spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Emily Adkins at Summerfield Farm.

The singing school which is being conducted by Mr. Andrew Carter at Oak Grove will close Sunday.

Messrs. Ashley Willis and Will Fulp of near Walnut Cove were visitors in our town Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Mitchell is visiting Mrs. J. E. Willis at Walnut Cove Route 5 this week

A.

Christmas Goods==

BUY YOUR Christmas Goods FROM ME.

I have all kinds of Toys, Dolls, Candies, Oranges, Raisins, Cocoanuts, Figs, and everything good to eat. Buy early before somebody gets what you want.

Come and see me. WILL TREAT YOU RIGHT.

A. J. Fagg DANBURY N. C.

Handsome High-Grade

TALKING MACHINE Given Away

I will give away to each customer whose cash purchase amounts to $25.00 one of the beautiful, high-grade Talking Machines shown above. Every family in Stokes county should own one of these machines, which will be a pleasure and joy to the home. All kinds of Christmas Goods at the Lowest Prices. The highest market prices paid for produce. Give me a call. I will treat you right.

J. A. LAWSON Danbury Route 1.

YOU

Have But

10 Days

to save your good money at the Big Yellow Front on Trade St.

We are offering great Money Savers THIS Week and NEXT.

YEAR END CLEARANCE SALE

FLETCHER BROS.

Winston-Salem, N. C.

Buy Your Christmas Supplies

Such as Fancy Candies, Oranges, Raisins, Cocoanuts, Extracts, Ammunition, etc. of

E. H. BIGGS & CO., Sandy Ridge, N. C.

I have a complete line of Shoes, Dry Goods, Notions, etc., at the very best prices.

Highest prices paid for all kinds produce.

Call and see us.

Our motto: A square and fair deal with everyone.

We are planning to give our customers the best of music on Thursday, Friday and Saturday

before Xmas and during Xmas.

Thanking you for past favors, we are, and beg to remain

Yours truly,

E. H. BIGGS & CO. Sandy Ridge, N. C. ROUTE 1.

T. G. GLENN, Auctioneer J. B. VERNON, Floor Mg'r T. L. LEWIS, Bookkeeper.

Farmers Warehouse Stoneville, N. C.

NOVEMBER—First sale on Mondays Thursdays DECEMBER—First Sale on Saturdays and Wednesdays

First or last sale, come to Farmers warehouse. We are best equipped for a grand display of your Tobacco, having the best sales floor in town. We pride ourselves on having the best Auctioneer in the State, together with a hard-working force on the floor, and accommodation that cannot be equalled for man or beast. Remember we guarantee satisfaction, if to be had. J. B. Vernon and T. L. Lewis will be glad to serve their friends at any and all times.

Very respectfully,

T. J. Glenn & Co. Proprietors.