

Yield, Flavor and Shipping Quality of strawberries are improved by the use of a fertilizer containing 10% of

POTASH

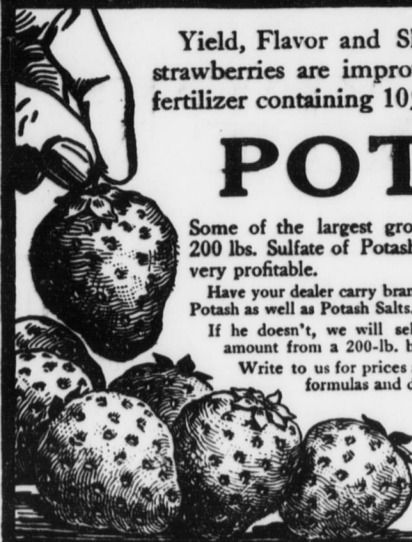

Some of the largest growers of the South use 200 lbs. Sulfate of Potash to the acre and find it very profitable.

Have your dealer carry brands of fertilizer rich enough in Potash as well as Potash Salts.

If he doesn't, we will sell you Potash direct in any amount from a 200-lb. bag up.

Write to us for prices and for free book of fertilizer formulas and directions.

Francisco News.

Francisco, Dec. 31. — There have been a few weddings this week. Mr. Will Slate to Miss Lucy Sheppard and Mr. J. R. Chilton, of Westfield, to Miss Callie Rogers, of Ashbury, the four sons and daughters of good farmers and citizens. We wish them a long and happy married life.

Misses Maud Garner and Mary Moser have returned to their boarding places, where they will begin teaching again new year's day.

Mr. Fount Clifton, of Pilot Mtn., has moved his son, Will, on the farm of Mr. F. P. Stone.

Miss Lillian Simmons, who has been attending college at Red Springs, has returned home to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Simmons.

Mr. Sam Jessup, of Westfield, is very sick from a stroke of paralysis last week.

Mr. Andy Rogers goes down the road quite often. I wonder what attracts his attention so?

News of Walnut Cove Route 4.

Walnut Cove Route 4, Jan. 5—Christmas has gone and everybody in this section had a nice time.

Mr. M. D. Linville is aiming to move his sawmill in a few days down near Goodwill.

Messrs. Ernest and Governor Flynn left last Tuesday for Moran's sawmill.

Messrs. Hard Knight and Latney Flynn called at Mr. Israel Knight's Tuesday.

Mrs. Sallie Bowles and daughter, Miss Dora, will leave Saturday for Rural Hall and Tobaccoville, where they will spend a week or two with friends and relatives.

Mr. O. J. Stone will soon have his house completed. Guess he will give a party then.

Guess Mr. G. C. Davis is not smiling now as he called to see Miss Louella one night and she was not at home.

SLATE-GRAVITT.

Marriage of Popular Young Couple On King Route 2.

King, Jan. 2—A beautiful wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gravitt on King Route 2, Dec. 27, when their daughter, Miss Claudia, became the bride of Mr. L. C. Slate, son Mr. J. E. Slate, of Mizpah.

The marriage was witnessed by only relatives and a few friends. The bride wore a gown of blue messaline silk, which was very becoming. Miss Mamie Gravitt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, Mr. D. O. Slate, brother of the groom, was best man, Miss Beulah Slate, sister of the groom, and Mr. G. W. Gravitt, brother of the bride, next, Miss Lonie Gravitt, cousin of the bride, and Mr. T. J. Rier-son, of Winston. Soon after the ceremony was performed they received a welcome invitation into the dining room where they had prepared a most beautiful dinner for the occasion which was enjoyed by all to the utmost. After dinner they all returned to the parlor and had some good music on the organ by Mr. D. O. Slate. All seemed to enjoy themselves until about 2 o'clock, when they started for the home of the groom, arriving about 4 o'clock I suppose. I am sure they found a hearty welcome awaiting them. The writer was not present at the home of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Slate expect to make their future home at Mt. View.

Wishing them a long and happy life.
