

THE DANBURY REPORTER.

The State Library

VOLUME XL.

DANBURY, N. C., APRIL 3, 1912.

No. 2, 82

FOR ROOSEVELT

DELEGATES ARE INSTRUCTED

Republican County Convention Here Monday—Delegates Elected To State and Congressional Conventions—Much Interest Shown In Candidacy of Roosevelt.

At the county Republican convention held here at the court house Monday intense interest was manifested in the candidacy of Roosevelt for President, while the feeling against President Taft was bitter, some prominent members of the party openly declaring in the convention that they would not support him even if he received the nomination.

A resolution was offered and approved by the convention instructing the delegates to the State and Congressional conventions to vote for delegates to the national convention who are favorable to Theodore Roosevelt as the candidate of the Republican party for President.

Mr. Jno. W. Kurpees, of Germanton, presided over the convention. The attendance was very good.

Delegates were elected to represent the county in both the State and Congressional conventions as follows:

Messrs. O. N. Petree, J. H. Fulton, R. L. Nunn, Jno. G. Morefield, Jno. W. Gann, Jno. M. Reynolds, Jno. W. Kurpees, R. J. Petree, Robt. H. Priddy, G. W. Neal, H. H. Reid, T. G. Shelton, Dr. J. W. Slate, R. F. Fulk, J. W. Spainhour, T. S. Petree, Jno. H. Neal.

Alternates were elected as follows:

Messrs. Wesley Mabe, Jno. R. Smith, R. F. Shelton, L. L. Nunn, John W. Young, J. Frank Dunlap, Chap Bodenheimer, Robt. G. Petree, F. M. Amos, J. J. Priddy, J. W. Shelton, J. W. Throckmorton, J. S. Morefield, D. V. Carroll, Ollie Boyles, P. H. Young, Jas. H. Mabe.

News of King Route 2.

King, Route 2, Apr. 1.—As it was very cool last week there were 3 fine porkers killed in this section. Mr. L. B. Boyles killed one that weighed about 30 lbs., Mr. W. G. Whitaker killed one that weighed about 40 lbs., and Scribblers killed one of the same kind and put it in a sack and started to scald it but on the way stopped to rest, and while resting he dropped off to sleep and when he woke up he found that some mischievous cat or dog had eat his hog up.

Some of the people of this section made their order too soon. They have drank up all their whiskey and have to make another order so they can have some on had to help them climb the mountain Easter.

Mr. Wesley Eaton and Miss Ola Ham paid Miss Rozella Boyles a visit Sunday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jones, a fine daughter.

SCRIBBLER.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results. It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

THE ETUDE MUSICAL CLUB

Holds Its Second Meeting With Miss Grace Taylor—Young Men To Be Admitted To the Club.

The Etude Musical Club met with Miss Grace Taylor, who was the charming hostess, on Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The subject was Mozart.

The first thing on the programme was an interesting talk on the life of Mozart by the President, Mrs. J. W. Hall. Next was an instrumental duet by Misses Luna Taylor and Agnes Martin, by Mozart.

Misses Nellie and Raynor Joyce read interesting and instructive selections on Mozart.

A beautiful selection by Mozart was played by Mrs. J. W. Hall. The colors adopted by the club are blue and gold.

It was decided to accept young men as members, and owing to this change the meetings will hereafter be held on Friday evenings.

The committee to arrange the programme for the next meeting is Misses Raynor Joyce and Agnes Martin.

A delightful three course luncheon was served after the meeting which was the most enthusiastic in the history of the club.

The next meeting will be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Annie Blair.

Pine Hall News

Pine Hall, April 1st—Mrs. J. S. Grant and children are visiting relatives at Stokesdale and Greensboro this week.

Miss Viola Creakman is going to entertain a number of her friends Easter Monday night.

Miss Effie Blackwell went to Madison shopping Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. L. Hairston, of Roanoke, was here last week.

Miss Mamie Flynn is visiting relatives in Stokesdale this week.

Louise, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hanes, is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. Willie Powell was here Wednesday a while.

Mr. J. S. Grant went to Roanoke Thursday on business.

Mr. George Smith cut himself right badly.

Mr. J. C. Flynn and daughter, Miss Lelia, went to Winston shopping Monday.

REDWING.

Postcard Scenery.

Twenty-five cents stamps or silver will bring you a dozen of the prettiest post cards you ever looked at, printed on fine glazed cardboard, in various colors, the following views: Cascade, Moore's Knob, scene on Dan river, Dan river bridge at Danbury, Piedmont Springs Hotel, Court House at Danbury.

Suitable for framing or keeping, or for mailing to your friends. Every person who lives in Stokes county, and every person who ever lived in the county, or who has friends in the county, should own an assortment of these beautiful cards.

Two for five cents, or 25 cents for dozen—mailed postpaid to any address in the United States.

REPORTER,
Danbury, N. C.

Posse Returns to Hillsville Unsuccessful Once More.

Hillsville, Va., April 1.—Two bloodhounds today were set upon the trail of Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, the remaining fugitives of the Allen clan. The heavy rains are thought to have washed away the scent, and at nightfall the posse returned unsuccessful.

ENGINEER ARRIVES

TOLL ROAD BEING SURVEYED

Mr. R. T. Brown, One of the State's Highway Engineers, Arrived Monday, and With a Force of Assistants Is Now Laying Out the Stokes-Forsyth Turnpike.

Engineer R. T. Brown, of Chapel Hill, a member of the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey, and of the Staff of Dr. Jos. Hyde Pratt, State Geologist, arrived here Monday afternoon to locate the route for the turnpike. Mr. Brown is a very capable man. He is trained by both education and experience for the important work of surveying scientific routes for roads, and is moreover well acquainted with the details of practical road building. While here he will, besides locating the road, ascertain suitable materials for surfacing, etc.

Today Mr. Brown, with several assistants, is working in the hill country between Danbury and Meadows.

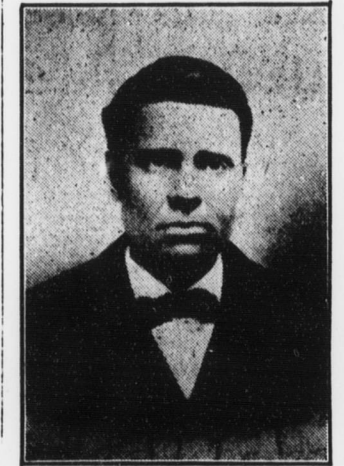

Stokes Man Dies In Richmond.

A message was received in Winston Tuesday announcing the death of Mr. Ernest Vaughn. His death followed an operation in St. Luke's hospital which was performed several days ago.

Mr. Vaughn was a native Stokes county boy, the son of Mr. John W. Vaughn, who died only a few months since in High Point.

WHY HE WAS LATE.

"What made him so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.

SIDNA ALLEN

The leader of the outlaws who killed the Judge. Comm. Health Attorney and Sheriff in Carroll county, Va., on March 14, 1912.

THE DANGER AFTER GRIP

lies often in the run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Mr. D. E. Nelson, of Ararat, was here on business yesterday. He spent last night with his father, Capt. Leander Nelson, of Danbury Route 1.

NEWS OF THE COVE

ENTERTAINMENT FOR SCHOOL

Mr. Martin Hinsdale Desperately Ill—A Law Suit—Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Lewis Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Walnut Cove, April 1.—Mr. R. W. Hedgecock, from Winston-Salem, the veteran brick manufacturer, was in town Thursday looking after his interest here.

Mr. Martin Hinsdale, who has been desperately ill so long, was in extremis last evening and hardly expected to live through the night.

Mr. G. W. Smith, of Smithtown section, spent Thursday night in town on his way from the Winston tobacco market.

Some of the citizens are planting cabbage this week.

Mr. D. S. Boyles' little son, who was so sick, has recovered. Mrs. Boyles has been confined to her bed for several days, but is better and able to be up.

The bowling alley seems to be holding its own pretty well these rainy days.

Capt. Johnson of the N. & W. railway, so well and favorably known in this section, has been seriously sick at his home in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Robert H. Priddy passed through town Thursday on his way home from Statesville where he has been attending school the past winter.

Mr. L. G. Lewis and wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on last Thursday 28th.

Born unto Mr. Thomas Caloway and wife, a fine son, Monday 25.

Last Friday the bridge at Rocky Mt. on the N. & W. was washed out again. It seems the railroads are in hard luck.

Mr. J. E. Cookers has dug a well and basement at his new residence on Main St.

Mr. Dee Marshall has moved to Stokesburg to live with his daughter.

Mr. C. W. Glidewell and Mr. Tilley had a law suit here last week. I think it was about the payment for some fertilizer, Mr. P. W. Glidewell appearing for the plaintiff and Mr. N. O. Petree appearing for the defendant. I heard they reached a compromise.

Mr. George Lewis' daughter, Mrs. Vallie Smith, who lives in Colorado, writes him she is delighted with her adopted home; says they have such fine roads, travel in automobiles all winter. She says she thinks she will make that her home for all the time.

Mr. Jack Barker, while cutting barn logs, accidentally cut his foot very badly. He is now able to walk by the aid of a crutch.

Mr. John A. Burton did himself proud in his millinery opening. The display was just grand and they had the Stokesburg band to dispense sweet music during the evening. It was the swellest opening that has ever been here.

I hear there will be a wedding near here in a very short time.

Time all this week and next to plant Irish potatoes.

Mr. Will Marshall will move to Walkertown soon.

Mr. Virgil Ham will move in to the cottage down near the bridge recently vacated by Mr. Dee Marshall.

Mr. Oscar Gerry moved here from Ore Hill.

The tobacco bag factory is running on full time and then some.

Mr. Anderson Duncan from Dillard visited in town Saturday. Sheriff C. M. Jones was in town Saturday.

Mr. Sky Jack, the night agent

MITCHELL-JOYCE WEDDING.

Miss Mary M. Joyce Becomes the Bride of Mr. Rober H. Mitchell.

Madison Route 3, Apr. 1.—A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin T. Joyce on Sunday morning, March 31st, at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary Emma, became the bride of Mr. R. H. Mitchell, Jr. The parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Several friends and relatives were present. The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of blue silk. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Joyce, of Sandy Ridge. After the ceremony the bride and groom and attendants went to the dining room where a most sumptuous dinner had been prepared. The bride is a popular and highly esteemed young lady of Madison 3, while the groom is a popular young man of Guilford College. They will leave for Guilford College Tuesday, where they will reside in the future. We wish the new couple a long and happy life.

ONE PRESENT.

Campbell.

Campbell, April 1.—Services were held at Jute school house last Sunday by Revs. J. G. Southern and Watt Priddy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. and J. A. Sheppard and Messrs. Noah and Roy Doss, Wheeler Smith, Sam Brown and Sam Taylor and Rev. Watt Priddy and Miss Erma Sheppard visited at Mr. H. H. Taylor's last Sunday.

Mr. Percie and Miss Isca and Elsie Sheppard, who are attending school at Central Academy, Va., are expected home Friday to spend Easter with their parents.

TIXY TAPSY.

Newton Young Accidentally Shot In the Hand.

Newton, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Young, of Danbury, had two of his fingers shot almost off Tuesday. The accident was a very peculiar one. Newton was carrying a 32-caliber cartridge in his pocket and desiring to get rid of it threw it against a rock with the result above stated. Dr. J. W. Neal, of Meadows, dressed the wounds and he is getting on all right.

Messrs. Jno. W. Gann, Chap Bodenheimer and T. M. Lawson, the members of the board of county commissioners, spent Monday night here, returning to their respective homes Tuesday.

at Pine Hall, will soon be transferred to another point.

The school is practicing every day now preparing for the commencement which will take place soon.

Capt. Charlie Cranty, a popular conductor on the N. & W. railroad and former citizen of this place, was in town Sunday shaking hands with old friends.

Mr. David Head, a liveryman and horse trader of King, was in town today.

Turnip greens have made their appearance in abundance on our streets and we are all happy.

Mr. Dave Kallum moved in the Bob Samuel house today.

Mrs. Paul Davis lost a brother last week at Summerfield. Mr. Dogget had been an invalid for some time.

There are two old colored men I often see on the streets together, their combined ages being two hundred and five years.

COUNTY FATHERS

IN SESSION HERE MONDAY

New Bridge Ordered To Be Erected Over Old Mill Creek—School Election Called In Beaver Island and Snow Creek Townships—Other Business Transacted.

The county commissioners in session here Monday ordered the erection of a new bridge across Old Mill creek at Walnut Cove to replace the one washed out in the recent freshet. The contract for the bridge was awarded to the Roanoke Bridge Co., at the price of $875.00. It is to be of steel and will be completed by May 15th.

Upon the petition of citizens an election was called in a special district composed of parts of both Beaver Island and Snow Creek townships to vote a special school tax for the district. The election is to be held on May 11th. The proposed special tax will be 30 cents on $100 valuation and 90 cents on the poll.

Mr. B. J. Savage and other citizens of Germanton were before the board with a proposition to build a good road from Germanton to intersect with the proposed Stokes-Forsyth turnpike at Meadows. Mr. Savage offered to secure by private subscription half the amount of money necessary to build the road provided the county would furnish the other half. No action was taken by the board in the matter.

The petition asking for bridges at Kiser's Mill and also at Kiser's Old Forge were not acted upon.

A new road through the Nunn settlement in Quaker Gap township was ordered layed out and established.

From Danbury Route 1.

Danbury Route 1, April 2.—Easter is almost here. Wonder what the boys and girls are going to do for fun.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nelson a fine boy.

Those who visited Miss Nannie Bennett Sunday were Misses Murpha and Minnie and Isabell Fagg, Gilmer Nelson, Chester Flinchum, Gid Mabe, Johnnie and Lindsay Bowlin, Sanders Smith.

There was preaching at Mr. Jackson Mabe's Saturday night. A large crowd attended.

Those who visited Miss Verda Bennett Sunday were Misses Maggie and Jettie Mabe, Messrs. Cleve Mabe, Monroe Fagg, Jessie Mabe, Charlie Reid, Ernest Mabe, Arthur Whitten, Cicero White, Alex Nelson, Jessie Bennett.

Mrs. O. M. Bennett has just returned from a visit to Winston where she visited her mother.

CHUMS.

A Difference In the Cost.

The Reporter received a 2,000-pound shipment of paper this week from Richmond, Va. The cost of getting it from Richmond to Walnut Cove, a distance of more than 200 miles was $5.00, while the cost of getting it from Walnut Cove to Danbury a distance of only 10 miles, was $10.00. This is only one instance of the excessive tax we are paying for bad roads.

"My little son had a very recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street Sydney Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Mr. E. C. Sheppard was here from Lawsonville today.