TO MEET NOV. 26

Start Campaign For Good Roads In Yadkin Township

AT MOUNT OLIVE

Citizens Will Discuss Matter of Working Roads By Taxation—Public Is Invited.

The citizens of Yadkin township are requested to meet at Mount Olive school house on Tuesday, Nov. 26th, and discuss roads, formulate plans and means and adopt resolutions to put before the people of Yadkin township in regard to working the roads by taxation. There will probably be a good roads speech at 1:30 o'clock.

This meeting was decided upon at Boyles' precinct on election day. Every citizen who would like to have better roads is requested to come and let's begin like we mean business.

J. WALTER TUTTLE.

Items of Interest From Germanton Route 2.

Germanton Route 2, Nov. 11.—People of this section are about done sowing wheat. Most farmers have sown a larger quantity than usual, as the season has been extra good.

Corn shuckings and opossum hunting will be the next thing on the program.

Most all the tobacco in this section has been sold and every one is well pleased with the prices.

I guess everyone is glad the election is over, while all are not pleased with those elected.

Mrs. T. J. Crumpler and two little girls have returned from a visit to Westfield. Mrs. Crumpler spent several days with her father, Mr. J. E. Simmons, who is in bad health. Mr. Simmons is 86 years old and has been quite feeble for some time.

Mrs. G. T. Crumpler is spending a few days in Winston-Salem with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Joe Smith, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is gradually improving, we are glad to note.

Mr. Charlie Flynt left Sunday for Dania, Fla. He will join his friend, Mr. E. A. Rainey, who is holding a position for him in R. G. Crews' automobile shop.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Quarterly Conference Here Friday—Annual Conference Convenes 20th—Preaching Sunday.

The fifth and last quarterly Conference for Danbury circuit of the M. E. church will be held at Danbury on Friday, the 15th, at the Methodist church. Presiding Elder R. M. Taylor will be present, and Pastor T. J. Folger requests that all the stewards of the church attend, as matters of importance will come before the Conference for consideration.

It is learned that some of the churches on Danbury circuit have not met their obligations financially, and it is hoped that the deficiencies will be made up as early as possible.

The annual Conference of the M. E. church will convene in High Point next Wednesday, the 20th inst. Rev. T. J. Folger, of Danbury, will leave Tuesday to attend the Conference.

Mr. Folger will no doubt be returned to Danbury circuit for another year. He likes the people and is very much liked in return throughout the circuit, and has accomplished much good.

On next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock Mr. Folger will preach his last sermon here for this conference year. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Stokes Young Couple Marry In Winston-Salem.

Miss Jessie Morefield and Mr. James Thore, popular young people of Stokes county, were united in marriage Saturday night at the Hotel Neil in Winston-Salem, Elder J. A. Ashburn officiating.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 7:30 in the presence of a few friends.

Miss Morefield is the daughter of Mr. John Morefield of Vade Mecum, and is connected with other prominent families.

Mr. Thore is a young farmer of splendid means, and has many friends who will be interested to learn of his marriage.

Mr. L. A. Woodruff, of Kernersville, spent Tuesday night at the Young Hotel.

LUTHER RHODES DIES

He Suffered With Typhoid and Had Been Ill Several Months

SEVEN ISLAND ROAD

May Be Discontinued On Account Of Its Bad Condition—Other News of the Lawsonville Section.

Mr. Wade Shelton, of Campbell, was here Tuesday and told the Reporter of the death of Mr. Luther Rhodes, who passed away Monday at his home on Campbell Route 1, after an illness of several months with typhoid fever. Mr. Rhodes was aged about 30 years, and leaves a wife and one child to mourn his departure. He was a son of Mr. Powell Rhodes, and was a hardworking and respected young citizen. He lived at the Jim Taylor old place, near Smithtown. The interment was made Tuesday afternoon at Snow Creek cemetery, attended by a large crowd.

Mr. Shelton reports that the farmers are busy sowing grain, and that more wheat than usual is being put in.

Mr. James Robertson, of the Lawsonville neighborhood, is preparing to move to Rockingham, where he has rented land for the next year from Mr. Herbert Robertson.

Mr. Shelton thinks the Seven Island public road should be discontinued, as it is in a deplorable condition, and is being almost totally neglected by the overseer and hands, as well as other roads. A great deal of complaint is being made of this road, and the prospect is that the road will be petitioned to be discontinued.

Thanks From Gov. Kitchin.

In a private letter here Governor Kitchin extends sincere and hearty thanks for the support of his friends in this county. He says the vote in Stokes was the best he got in North Carolina under all conditions—it standing next to his own county.
