Dear Reporter:
I will write a letter to let the little girls hear from me. I have been going to school. I like to go to school, but it is most out now and I am so sorry. We have a good teacher. I like him fine. His name is Mr. Frank Lynch. My age is 12 years. I have light hair and black eyes. All of you little girls write to the Reporter. I like to read the letters from the little girls and boys. I have two sisters married and one brother, and I have four sisters single. I have got one pet. It is a little black calf. It is pretty and minds me good.
