Mr. R. L. Murphy has been very much indisposed for the last few days with deep cold, we are sorry to note.

Mr. Reaves Jones returned Sunday from Washington where last Tuesday he witnessed the inauguration of President Wilson. On his return trip home he went by Liberty to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Herbert Smith.

Mr. Natt Hedgecock returned from Winston-Salem Saturday where he had been to see his father, Mr. R. W. Hedgecock, who has been real sick for several days with lagrippe.

Rev. J. H. Brendall filed his regular appointment at the Junior Hall Sunday night at seven o'clock.

New Departure In Tuttle's School.

Walnut Cove, March 10. Editor Reporter:

Tuttle's school has formed an industrial club to give school time credits of so many minutes each for home work by school boys and girls.

We give five minutes each for bringing water, carrying and feeding cows, feeding pigs, and so on. We give 15 minutes credit for boys and girls coming to school each day with their hands and face clean, hair combed and teeth washed. The children keep memorandum record of each day's work and credits, and have them signed by the parents, and countersigned and dated by the teacher. This work is progressing very satisfactorily to all concerned.

I herewith hand you the names we have on the honor roll in this work:

Matt Tuttle, Ralph Tuttle, Paul Westmorland, Dora Westmorland, Bertha Westmorland, Andrew Heath, Etta Smith, Herald Tuttle, Herman Tuttle, Roy Tuttle, Eula Tuttle, McDuffie Neal.
