FAMILY REUNION

The Children and Grandchildren of Mrs. Hessie Meadows.

HAPPY OCCASION

Various Other News and Personal Items From Germanton Route 1.

Germanton Route 2, March 23.—Easter Sunday was the first time in nine years that all of Mrs. Hessie Meadows' children and grand-children have been together at home. Mr. James Meadows, wife and four children of Germanton Route 1; Mrs. Amanda Southern and four children of High Point; Mr. C. Reece Meadows and wife of Okolona, Miss.; Mr. Silas Carroll and wife of High Point; Mr. Ross Meadows, wife and two children, Mr. Grover Meadows, of High Point, and Mr. Earl Meadows. They all passed quite a pleasant day, and all enjoyed themselves fine. Besides the family there were quite a number of visitors, as follows: Mr. John Smith and wife, Mrs. Vally Smith, of Germanton Route 1; Misses Dora, Bertha and Primmie Tillotson; Messrs. Joe Carroll, Jim Baker and Mr. Tillotson, and many others.

Messrs. Ross Meadows, Earl Meadows, Ernest Mitchell and Lat Neal were among the ones who went on the excursion to Roanoke, Va., Easter Monday.

Mrs. Amanda Southern and children and Mrs. Florence Carroll of High Point will spend a week or two with relatives before returning home.

Mr. James Meadows and Mr. C. Reece Meadows are getting their moving picture show under way and expect to be in operation in a few days. It will be known as the Meadows Amusement Co.

Mr. L. Reece Meadows, who has been traveling for the past ten years, returned home a few weeks ago. He says that Stokes county has changed wonderfully in the past ten years, and that the people have changed lots, but no sooner had he got off the train at Walnut Cove and started home than he found he was back in old Stokes by its roads, for the mud holes he left here ten years ago were just as bad when he came back, and he thinks they are the same ones. He says that everybody ought to be for good roads, and that the man that is against good roads is very much like a little puppy before it is nine days old. They just haven't got their eyes open yet. They ought to open their eyes and look about them and see what is going on and figure for themselves what they are losing every year by having to worry and pull their stock to death in the mud. He says he can't vote in the good roads election but he expects to die barking at the hole or have good roads regardless of who is against them.

TEAM RUNS AWAY

Dr. J. W. Slate and Mr. T. B. Smith Have Narrow Escape.

BUGGY IS INJURED

Correspondent Takes This Occasion To Discuss the Bond Issue and Bad Roads.

King Route 2, March 24.—Mr. T. B. Smith and your correspondent were in Danbury last Saturday attending the meeting of the Farmers' Union. Mr. Smith was accompanied by Dr. J. W. Slate on his return home, and as they were coming down one of those steep hills about a mile and a half from Danbury, the latch of the breast-tree broke and let the buggy pole drop to the ground, frightening the team and causing them to run away. Dr. Slate, being young and active, leaped from the buggy but hurt his hand when he fell. Mr. Smith, not being so active, decided to remain in the buggy and risk the consequences. The writer, accompanied by his son, was about 400 yards in front of them, and hearing an unusual noise looked back and saw the frightened team coming. The road was too narrow for the team to pass so it was fight or die. I drew my whip and went to meet the frightened team, causing them to stop, and thus probably saving the life of Mr. T. B. Smith. The damage to the vehicle was about $15.00. Mr. Smith says he is in favor of the bond issue for good roads as this damage would have paid his taxes for 2 years or more.

We think that if Mr. Oliver could be in a few wrecks like this he would stop writing such long-winded articles against good roads and go to the election and vote for the bond issue. According to nature Mr. Oliver in the near future expects to go to a country where the roads have been made smooth for him, and when he is walking the streets of the New Jerusalem and looks back here and sees us tugging through the mud he will surely say: "If I had my time to live over I would help my fellow citizens get out of the mud and help them build passable roads." I said in a former letter that when you touch a man's pocketbook you touch his heart, but God has placed us in this rough country and has given us the means to make smooth roads and if we don't do it we fail to discharge our duty.

Ministers should not bow to the God of this world, to-wit: Laying up treasures on earth. Holy writ tells us that the rich shall weep and howl for the misery that shall come upon them. James 5:1. It also says they have heaped up treasures for the last days. James 5:3. By turning to Ezekiel 7:19 we read: They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed. This shows that the roads are to receive a proper amount of money.

It seems from the brother's letter that the "body of death" would be a great misfortune to the surviving generations. This brings to mind an only son of his who is now in another State in business. The attractions of farm, farm life, roads, etc., are not able to induce him to stay in Stokes. Then why should the bond issue be such a burden to the brother when his children are not much interested in the treasures he has laid up for them?
