

PIEDMONT SPRINGS

The Concert and Classical Recital a Success.

MANY AUTOMOBILES

A Party of Young People to Spend the Night On Moore's Knob This Week.

Piedmont Springs, N. C., July 15.—A concert and classical recital was given by the guests of this resort on Friday night last under the direction and management of Mrs. Colonel Galloway for the benefit of the Episcopal Mission Hall at Mayodan. The entertainment was a success financially and a rare treat to the large audience in attendance. Dr. Geo. W. Brittain, of Reidsville, in a few words made known the wrecked condition of the Parish Hall which was caused by a tornado which recently visited that town, stating that it was necessary to have a certain amount of money to make the needed repairs. After a grand olio by the orchestra "Great Britain" began the introducing and announcing the cast in regular order as programmed:

1. Grandolio, "Sally's Dream," Simpson, by the orchestra.
2. Song, "Oh, Believe Me," Moore, Miss Ethel Follin.
3. Recitation, "Poor White Trash," Lindsay Ellington, Miss DeWitt Chatham.
4. Song, "Ah, I Have Sighed," M. Pepper, Miss Ruth Price.
5. Vocal duet, "Annie Laurie," Eugene Pepper, Mesdames Means and Noel.
6. Recitation, Selected, Byerly, Miss Elizabeth Wilkerson.
7. Song, Selected, Dr. Brittain, Miss Ethel Follin.
8. Recitation, "Nothing At All," Ben Gray, Miss Elizabeth Bynum.
9. Monologue, "Brunswick Stew," Great Britain.
10. Music, "Everybody," Verday, orchestra.

Piedmont is rapidly becoming distinguished for its many automobile parties. Among those Sunday were the following: Messrs. Wm. R. Dalton, Abe Womack, W. W. Smith and B. W. Staples, of Reidsville, who arrived here Sunday morning from their home, it requiring only three hours to make the trip. Later in the day Mr. W. Lee Springs, of Winston, accompanied by Mr. Chas. Siewers, and family of Winston, came over in Mr. Springs' big Cadillac. On the same day Mr. C. J. Tinsley and family, of Greensboro, came in their Chalmers. Added to these was the big Hupmobile which plies regularly between this place and Walnut Cove, and it brought Messrs. Lawrence McRae, Eddie Sheppard, A. W. Davis, Mr. Gates and others. Dr. J. C. Wiggins and Mr. Will Hill spent the day here, coming through in Dr. Wiggins' car. Almost any hour one may see a machine driving up loaded with guests here now.

Misses Delphine, Eleanor and Willie Carter and Mrs. Woodruff, their sister, of Winston, arrived Saturday to spend some weeks here.

Dr. Brittain, of Reidsville, is among the entertaining guests spending the summer here.

A party composed of the following young people will spend the night this week on top of Moore's Knob: Misses Evelyn Shipley, Ellen, Mary and Lucy Sheppard, Ruth and Charlotte Critz, Ida Wilkinson, Ruth Price, Margarette Moses, Messrs. Ben Gray, Eddie Sheppard, Allen Sharp, Watson Scott, James Norfleet, and others and will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. J. W. Shipley.

A huge rattler was killed by Mr. A. D. Lajoie, of Charlotte, three miles west of here Saturday.

Misses Eleanor Follin and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Follin are among those who arrived here Saturday to spend the summer.

Mr. Cabell Hairston, of Walnut Cove, came up Friday to join his daughters, Misses Willie and Lula, who are summering here. They are also accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Texas.

Among the new arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hill, Misses Elizabeth Hill, Louise Horton, and Mrs. Lawrence McRae, of Winston; Mrs. C. P. Wall and family of Spray.

There are 125 or more guests in the hotel and annex now, and large numbers expected this week and next. Probably 150 are residing in the cottages.

Oak Grove.

Oak Grove, July 14.—Mrs. Permelia Lambert, the wife of James G. Lambert, was born Dec. 16, 1825, and departed this life July 7, 1913, aged 87 years, 6 months and 21 days. She professed faith in Christ in youth and connected herself with the church at an early date, and lived a consistent life until the summons came. She was the mother of five children, of which three are living and two dead. She leaves 19 grand children and 17 great grand children to mourn their loss. The remains were placed at Olive Grove Baptist church in the midst of a host of relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Yewel Matthews, of Pilot Mtn.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Mary T. Wilson, who has been a life-time subscriber to the Reporter, is seriously ill at this writing.

Misses Emma Gentry and Minnie Boyles spent Sunday at Mr. G. W. Smith's.

Messrs. C. T. Darnell and R. K. Long went to the river fishing Saturday. They came back late Sunday evening with a sack of frogs. They report no fish but a lot of fun.

Messrs. A. S. Marsh and G. A. Jones got them some sox and a cake of soap and went to the footwashing last Sunday.
