LETTER FROM TURNER, MONT.

Mr. W. E. Sheppard Tells His Success In Farming In Montana.

Turner, Mont., 22. — Here I am from old Montana, three thousand miles away, but it seems good to read the Reporter from old North Carolina, as I long to see her once again. It makes me think of long ago to read the paper where the young people are going to church and having such a big time, but it is different here. I haven't been to church in two years. There is no churches or Sunday Schools here, but of course we must remember this is a new country. Dancing and waltzing is all the go here; but of course we will have churches and Sunday Schools after a while.

Now as far as you can see is level land, and new houses are being built by the new comers. You can easily count from some views 45 to 75 new houses. It is so level here that you can see just as far as your eyes will let you. I can see my place for 8 miles on the level. I had always longed for a place like this for several years back. My father was here several years ago and when he returned to old Virginia he often told us boys about such fine free land. So a little more than 3 years ago I left old Virginia for Montana, and have always been glad of my trip, but although I like old Virginia and am longing to return on a visit. But a young man just starting out in life to make a living can do so much better up here than back in the Eastern States. My brother and I have claims joining, 640 acres, 320 each, and speaking of good land it is up here in Montana.

We left home 3 years ago and only had money enough to get here, and last year we farmed a little and only raised 555 bushels of flax and only worked 4 horses and this year we are working 7 horses and got in 70 acres of crop. We could easily sell out now for five thousand dollars. How is that for a start? Maybe this letter will interest some of you people who are thinking of going West to seek a free homestead, but all of the good land around here has been claimed, that is all of the good level land. Our claims here is just as level as my father's garden on Russell Creek, I guess lots of you people know where that is. I am now working 6 horses to one plow.

I am yours truly,
W. E. SHEPPARD.
