BOYLES BROS.

Pistol Toting Problem.

Cherokee Scout.
A road sentence on every pistol toter would soon break up the habit and put a stop to so many homicides in the State. Human life is getting too cheap, and something has got to be done. The press of the State is calling upon the judges to impose road sentences on pistol toters and thus protect the people from this class. Such a course would reduce the number of homicides in the State each year and the good reputation of our State saved. Just a few judges with a stiff backbone could work wonders.
