Lasley-Voss.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 31.—Miss Flossie Pearl Lasley and Mr. Nathaniel Voss were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lasley, near Walnut Cove, N. C., yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

Rev. Mr. Brendle, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very pretty attired in a going-away suit of midnight blue, with hat and gloves to match. She carried an armful of lovely white chrysanthemums.

After congratulations, the guests were ushered into the dining-room, which had been prettily decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums, potted plants and ferns. A delicious two-course luncheon was served.

The bridal couple left in an automobile at 11:30 for Winston-Salem in a shower of rice, where they boarded the Southbound train for points of interest in South Carolina and Florida. After November 15th, they will be at home in Manatee, Fla.

A number of handsome and useful gifts were received.

'STARVING TO DEATH'

Was Mrs. Bell, of Florida, When She Began Taking Peruna.

"Yes, I was starving to death," said Mrs. Emma Bell, of Fort Pierce, Florida, Box 291, "when I began to take Peruna. I could not eat anything. If I swallowed anything it seemed to burn my stomach. My stomach was very much swollen. My bowels acted as if I had acute dysentery. I was in great distress and pain. Three doctors had been employed, but gave me no relief. I was continually growing worse.

I Was In Despair.
"In my despair I caught at every straw. Picking up a newspaper I saw some account of Peruna. There was a testimonial from a woman who had been troubled much like myself. I concluded to try Peruna.

I Wrote to Dr. Hartman.
"At the same time I wrote to Dr. Hartman. He pronounced my case catarrh of the stomach and bowels. I soon began taking Peruna. At once I began to improve. After taking half a bottle my stomach was so improved that I could eat some."

I Began to Recover.
Then this good housewife goes on to narrate in detail her rapid improvement and final recovery. She said, "After taking two bottles of Peruna I was strong enough to stand up to wash the dishes." When she began taking Peruna she weighed 102 pounds. After she had taken five bottles of Peruna she weighed 122 pounds. She concludes by saying that she is well.

It Was Twelve Years Ago.
The letter from which the above quotations were made was received January 29, 1901. In a later letter, written September 11, 1904, she says, "I sing the praises of Peruna far and near. It is used a great deal in our vicinity. This seems to be a bad place for catarrh." We have received letters from her since. The last time

Every citizen of North Carolina, whether he derives an income from some of the products of the forests or not, is interested in their preservation, because it is from the forests that we derive our lumber supply, with all the many industries dependent upon it, and a good portion of our fuel supply. we heard from her, December 1912, she was still a friend of Peruna.

The stomach and bowels are lined with a mucous membrane. They are therefore subject to catarrh, the same as the nose and throat. Catarrh of the stomach and bowels will derange the functions of these organs. The stomach can no longer digest food. The food lying in the stomach, even for a short time, without digestion, immediately sours. The souring produces gas and irritation.

Food Sours in the Stomach
A portion of the undigested meal is absorbed into the system by the blood vessels of the stomach. This poisons the whole system, producing a condition now known as auto-intoxication; self poisoning. The fermenting, irritating mass, as it passes down into the bowels irritates the bowels, producing sometimes a chronic diarrhea, sometimes producing the very opposite, constipation.

The average dyspepsia medicine helps to artificially digest the food. Even when such medicine does its work it is only temporary. A permanent relief can only be expected when the catarrh is overcome.

Symptoms of Catarrh of the Stomach.
The symptoms of catarrh of the stomach are: First, heartburn. Second, food rises in throat after meals. Third, sour stomach. Fourth, heavy feeling after eating. Fifth, stomach bloated, belching of gas. Sixth, palpitation of heart. Seventh, poor digestion, have dyspepsia. Eighth, tongue coated light brown. Ninth, tenderness over pit of stomach. Tenth, cannot bear tight clothes around waist.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.
