

DEATH OF ROBERT GEORGE

Former Stokes Boy Passes Away At His Home At Stuart, Va.

Mr. Robert L. George, of Stuart, Va., a former Stokes county boy, and son of Rev. R. W. George, of Francisco, passed away at his home at Stuart, Va., last Tuesday almost suddenly.

The Stuart Enterprise has the following in regard to Mr. George's death:

Mr. R. L. George, a well known business man and prominent citizen of Stuart, died suddenly at his home Tuesday night about 9:30 o'clock. Mr. George had been under treatment of his physician for several days, but appeared much better Tuesday, and came up to town in the afternoon. Mr. George had never recovered from a blow received over the head while in a difficulty with Jim Haley over a year ago and it is thought that he died from a sudden affection of the brain.

Mr. George is survived by his wife and two little children, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. George, of Francisco, N. C., and brothers, Mr. W. W. George, of King, N. C. and Mr. T. J. George of this place.

The funeral takes place today at ten o'clock and his remains will be laid to rest in Stuart Cemetery.

NEWS OF MADISON.

Mr. John Galloway Buys Big Farm--Rockingham Court November 17 -- Other Items.

A two week's civil term of court will convene in Wentworth on Monday, November 17th. Judge Henry P. Lane will preside.

A large tract of land near Pine Hall, known as the Rawls land, was sold by order of the court for division among the heirs last Saturday, Mr. J. M. Galloway, of Madison, being the highest bidder. The tract contained 585 acres and was at one time a part of the large estate of the late Len Anderson, having been willed by him to one of his daughters. At the sale Saturday it brought $12,375, or a fraction over $21 per acre.

Quite a number of people in this section turned out to work the roads on the 5th and 6th and a great many bad places have put in good shape. Others who could not work in person have contributed money towards hiring teams and hands to haul sand, etc. Altogether quite a great deal of good has been accomplished in this section.

Very few live 'possums are being offered on the market these days, notwithstanding the fact that the woods are full of them. The reason for this is said to be that the hides are now worth a dollar a piece and the farmers are therefore skinning them and eating the meat themselves, as the hides will bring more than a live 'possum.
