REGISTER BIRTHS AND DEATHS

The Law Now Requires that This Be Done—Get Particulars From Registrar Lynch.

The registration of all births and deaths that occur in North Carolina is required by law. The aims of the law are:

To preserve your name forever. To settle your rights to property.

To safeguard your children's title to your estate.

To provide a means of locating preventable diseases.

Every birth and death occurring in the State after October 1, 1913, must be registered with Local Registrar of Vital Statistics.

What are the birth and death rates of your community?

You cannot tell now, but you will be able to do so in another year if your whole community works together to see that the law is enforced. If the United States Bureau of the Census finds the registration complete in your county it will be included in the registration area of the United States; if not complete, your county will be excluded. It is up to you.

For full information regarding the law, call on

FRANK S. LYNCH, Quaker Gap township, Pilot Mtn., N. C., Route 1, Local Registrar of Vital Statistics.

DEATH OF N. GLEN WILLIAMS.

Well Known Yadkin County Man Dies of Apoplexy At His Home.

Mr. N. Glen Williams died at his home in Yadkin county yesterday at the age of 49 years from apoplexy. Mr. Williams had been ill for several months.

Mr. Williams has resided at his home in Yadkin county, about half a mile from the Forsyth county line, all of his life. His farm, comprising about fifteen hundred acres, is conceded to be one of the finest and most valuable farms in the State and it is said that Mr. Williams refused an offer of $75,000 for it.

For the last few years, he has devoted his time to his farming interests, raising hay and corn principally.

Up to a few years ago when the State prohibition law went into effect, Mr. Williams was engaged in the manufacture of whiskey, representing the fourth generation of his family in the manufacture of whiskey at the same place.

There is now on hand at his place about 15,000 gallons of whiskey that was left over from his distillery when the prohibition law went into effect.

In earlier years he took an active interest in politics and was for a time a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee. He split with the Democrats on the Watts law, however, and thereafter took very little interest in politics.

Mr. Williams was a member of one of the oldest and best known families in the State and has a number of relatives in this section. He was a most affable gentleman on close acquaintance and his friends were closely attached to him.

Mr. Williams had been in bad health for quite a time and his friends were not surprised to hear of his death.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Union will be held on Saturday, Dec. 6, for the purpose of electing new officers. Delegates will be elected to the State meeting at Shelby.

Mr. Jno. W. Priddy, of Campbell, spent a short while here on business yesterday.
