NEW ARRIVALS

Auto Parties Spend Saturday and Sunday—Other Items.

(A. Dore Korner.)

Piedmont Springs, July 29.—Life at Piedmont continues gay and festive. On last Friday evening a delightful porch party was given at the hotel, its spacious verandas being set with tables for progressive auction and progressive rook. Quite a number of ladies from Cottage Hill joined the ladies of the hotel in the games, which were called at 10 o'clock. At the west entrance to the piazza Misses Kate Rucker Penn, of Reidsville, and Caroline McRae, of Winston-Salem, presented the arriving players with score cards in pink and white. Upon finding their places the ladies began the games, playing most enthusiastically for two hours. At the end of that time it was found that in auction the first prize belonged to Miss Tupman, the second prize to Miss Louise Hill, of Lexington, and the third prize to Miss Laura Noel, of Elkin. In rook Miss Ethel Rowe was presented with the first prize, Mrs. Rowe, of Greensboro, with the second and Miss Mamie Lebey, of Savannah, Ga., with the third. After the games a social hour was spent, during which a refreshing ice course was served. The hotel orchestra furnished delightful music at this affair. Those in attendance were Mesdames W. P. Hill, J. C. Buxton, R. T. Stedman, Lawrence McRae, Edgar Vaughn, H. M. Sanders, M. L. Mott, of Winston-Salem; Mesdames E. Fulp, of Fulp; J. Gilmour, of Kernersville; R. Walker, of Martinsville; W. J. Rowe, of Greensboro; J. C. Tiedeman, of Savannah; Misses Anna Buxton, of Winston-Salem; Freeman, of Greensboro; Mamie Lebey, of Savannah; Margaret Stedman, of Raleigh, Louise Walker, of Martinsville; Ethel Rowe, of Greensboro, Elizabeth Hill, Margaret Vaughn, of Winston-Salem; Briggs Prather, of Mt. Airy; Louise Hill, of Lexington; Dore Korner, of Kernersville; Laura Noel, of Elkin.

The dance of Saturday night was an unusually large one and presented a very pretty picture with its feminine dancers in vari-colored evening costume. Auto parties attending the dance from Winston-Salem were composed of Messrs. A. H. Bahnsen, Fred and Frank Hill, R. M. Ogburn, Wilson Gray, M. L. Mott; Misses Eunice Tate, Edith Moir, Messrs. Brockton Lyon, H. S. Richardson, Jas. S. Morehead, Jr., R. R. King, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkman, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Davis, Samuel Davis, Jr., Robert McArthur, E. E. Gray, Lawrence McRae.

Following the dance on Saturday evening a watermelon feast was given to a number of their friends by Miss Briggs Prather, of Mt. Airy, and Brian Floyd of Spartanburg, S. C. The party gathered upon the lawn near the ball room and it was there that the delicious ice cold watermelon was served. Those fortunate enough to be present were Misses Anna Buxton, Margaret Vaughn, Elizabeth Hill, Francis Prather, Ada Allen, Laura Noel, A. Dore Korner, Margaret Stedman, and Louise Hill; Mrs. M. L. Mott, Messrs. Toy Ray, Jim Hill, E. B. King, J. C. Tupman, Wilson Gray, Eugene Gray, R. M. McArthur, Mesdames J. C. Buxton, Edgar Vaughn and H. M. Sanders.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Episcopal services were held on Cottage Hill in the home of Mrs. John Galloway. In the evening at 8 o'clock the ball room was used in which to hold services conducted by Rev. C. W. Ervin, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Danbury. A good sized crowd was in attendance. The Sunday evening concert immediately following the religious services was up to its splendid standard set by the three very able musicians Messrs. Merz, violinist; Monoly, cellist; and Tupman, pianist. The selections rendered formed the request program which delighted the hearers.

On Wednesday a horseback party made an excursion over the picturesque road to Vade Mecum where they took dinner, returning to Piedmont in the late afternoon. A stay was made at Moore's Springs and Cascade on the return trip. Those in the party were Misses Briggs Prather, of Mt. Airy; Elizabeth Hill and Margaret Vaughn, of Winston-Salem; and Dore Korner, of Kernersville; Messrs. Brian Floyd, of Spartanburg, S. C., Toy Ray, of Rock Hill, S. C.; and King, of Leaksville.

A party composed of Misses Jessie Pepper, and Kathleen Simpson; Mrs. Carl Merz, Messrs. Eugene Pepper and Tom Petree, who left here last week for Atlantic City and New York, returned to Piedmont Wednesday.

Arriving last week to occupy a cottage on Cottage Hill were Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Holland and children, Mr. Wright and Miss Wright of South Carolina. A camping party from Germantown arrived here last week and spent several days near the hotel lawn tenting. The three young men in the company were Messrs. Lauriston Powers, Holly Hartgrove and Ernest Westmoreland.

Mrs. W. L. Trotter, of Greensboro, who is now occupying her home on Cottage Hill, is entertaining a jolly horse party of young people this week, the party having arrived Saturday. Making up the young ladies and gentlemen are Misses Noel Pruder, Pearl Ashworth, and Mabel Ridge, of Greensboro;

PRIMARIES HELD

Delegates Elected To County Republican Convention.

HERE SATURDAY, 1ST

Sharp Contests In the Appointment of Delegates For Clerk and Treasurer.

The county Republican primaries were held at the various voting precincts in Stokes Saturday and delegates were elected to the county convention which will be held at the court house here next Saturday.

A majority of the precincts voted to repeal the resolution passed by a former convention that no officer should hold more than two terms of the same office and the delegates were instructed to vote in favor of repealing at the convention here next Saturday.

The only contests in the primaries were in regard to the candidates for Clerk of the Court and Treasurer. For Clerk of the Court Mr. M. T. Chilton, the present incumbent, received a majority of the delegates, the others being divided between Messrs. D. V. Carroll, Chas. R. Hellsabeck, H. McGee and C. M. Jones. Mr. Hellsabeck has most of them.

In the Treasurer's contest Messrs. J. A. Fagg and R. P. Glidewell broke about even, while Mr. L. T. Tucker was a close third, and Frank Petree has nearly as many delegates as Mr. Tucker.

Dr. W. C. Slate, the present Sheriff, and Mr. John G. Morefield, the present Register of Deeds, were voted for without opposition.

Lilly Starbuck, of Weldon; Elizabeth Milliken, of Pittsboro; Mary and Grace Smitherman, of Troy; Messrs. Pete Joyner, Wade Dunbar and Cosay Barnes, of Greensboro; June Peebles and Jack Milliken, of Pittsboro.

Those arriving at the hotel during the last few days are Messrs. J. E. Maddox and Mock D. Sternberger, of Greensboro; H. E. Balance, of Greensboro; S. E. Hall and family of Winston-Salem; Mrs. D. A. Bodenheimer; Messrs. Lyle and Arnold Bodenheimer and Clay King, of Kernersville; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Tinsley, of Greensboro; M. L. Mott, W. P. Hutton and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clapp, of Greensboro; H. F. Dorsey and A. S. Kernickie, Jr., of Winston-Salem; J. C. Amos and W. Trotter, of Reidsville; J. M. Cabanis, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Johnson, Miss Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Harris, of High Point; Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lyack, Messrs. Julian Hart, J. A. Holton, Watt Hutchinson, of Winston-Salem; N. A. Newell and N. A. Newell, Jr., of Greensboro; Rush Bowman, H. J. Campbell, W. R. Hairston, D. Lanier Dowell, of Oak Ridge; M. E. Miller, Washington; A. W. Davis and Miss Verna Davis, Walnut Cove; Dr. Cora L. Manoly, of Washington; Mr. J. J. Bandel, Granville, Iowa; Judge and Mrs. R. M. Douglas, Misses Myers, of Greensboro.

WALNUT COVE LETTER

Mr. V. W. Ham Held Up By Highwaymen, But Escapes.

MUCH BUILDING

Large Attendance At Republican Primaries Saturday—Other Items.

Walnut Cove, July 29.—With probably the largest attendance of any ever held here the Republicans of this precinct met Saturday for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention to be held at Danbury next Saturday. A slight wave of dissension was noticeable in the meeting and three sets of delegates were placed in nomination by the contesting factions. When the ballot was taken Messrs. A. W. Davis, Wesley Mabe, D. A. Boles, J. F. Hawkins, and A. J. Fair were declared the elected delegates. When the vote was taken for office of Treasurer Fagg received 37, Glidewell 37 and Petree 8 and delegates were instructed to cast their vote at the county convention exactly in this proportion. A section was made and carried unanimously instructing the delegates to vote for the abolishment of the famous two-term resolution. Although the primary passed off quietly there is a feeling in their air which means that interesting times are assured in the county convention.

Quite a great deal of excitement was occasioned on Main Street late Saturday evening when Policeman Smith attempted to arrest a gentleman who had imbibed too freely of corn-juice and was expounding his convictions in a loud and profane tone of voice, without regard to the wishes of his audience. After several attempts to escort his prisoner to the lockup the officer turned the loaded victim over to his friends who agreed to care for him. During the struggle several gathered around and it looked for a while as if there would be a general mixup.

Just after midnight Saturday while on his way home from his barber shop Mr. V. W. Ham was held up by a gang of men and would have been robbed of a considerable amount of money had he not ran at full speed to his home where he secured a gun to defend himself. In the meantime the robbers had followed him into his yard and several shots were exchanged before he left him alone. During the same night the store of Garfield Hairston was broken into but nothing was taken. A colored man who was crossing the street near the store had a lantern shot to pieces in his hand and barely escaped with his life.

The sound of the hammer and saw can be heard incessantly on every side during these summer months and every stroke is significant of the growth and progress of Walnut Cove. The new warehouse is being rapidly built, the new brick garage almost completed, and several new residences are in course of construction.

Mr. Will Fulton, of Greensboro, spent Sunday and Monday here with relatives, going from here to King where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Dr. Keiger.

Mrs. R. A. Hedgecock and J. R. Voss went to Winston-Salem on business Thursday.

Mr. Sullivan Booe, of Walkertown, was here Monday on business.

Elder H. D. Mickey preached an interesting sermon at the Junior Hall Sunday night.

The LaBerta show gave nightly performances here last week with large attendance every night.

Messrs. Jno. W. Gann, J. W. Burrell, Walter Hawkins, B. J. Savage, R. L. Nunn and Joseph Martin were among the business visitors here the past week.

Mrs. Lillian Yew, of Old Fort, is spending some time here with relatives.

Rev. T. J. Folger, of Danbury was here on business Friday.

Gideon.

Gideon, July 28.—The threshing machines are about through threshing grain in this community.

Messrs. Manuel George and Lemmie Duggins called on Misses Berchie and Avis Dunlap Friday night.

Misses Bettie and Minnie Roberts, Sadie and Bessie Mae Flinchum; Messrs. Cary Flynt, John and Elmer Flinchum, Wiley Carpenter and others visited Miss Myrile Fagg Thursday night.

Miss Avis Dunlap spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ethel Flynt.

Mr. John Flinchum called to see Miss Annie Young Sunday evening.

Mr. W. M. Flynt and sons, Cary and Hillery, made a business trip to Walnut Cove last week.

Messrs. Cary Flynt and Stacy Rothrock called on the Misses Johnson Sunday p. m.

Misses Sadie and Bessie Flinchum spent Thursday night with their uncle, Mr. J. M. Fagg, at Dillard.

Mrs. W. M. Flynt and daughter, Miss Ella, visited at Mr. Alex Flinchum's Monday afternoon.

A protracted meeting began at Delta Sunday.
