

Eager for Education

It is a significant fact that in Japan 95 per cent of children of school age are in educational institutions, modernized and adapted rapidly to make the Japanese nation a reading people. There is almost no other place on earth of which such a fact can be stated. How imperative, therefore, is the demand to see that these boys and girls and young men and women of this great people shall be persuaded to search the Scriptures.

State of North Carolina, Stokes County. Della Joyce, Plaintiff, against John Joyce, Defendant.

In the above entitled action, it appearing to the court upon affidavit filed, that the defendant John Joyce is a non-resident of the State of North Carolina, and cannot after due diligence be found therein, and cannot be personally served with process, and is a necessary party to this action, the same being an action for absolute divorce; also for the care and custody of Thomas W. Joyce, a child born of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant.

It is ordered by the court that publication of notice be made for four successive weeks in the Danbury Reporter, a newspaper published in Stokes County, N. C., notifying the defendant John Joyce to appear at the next civil term of the Superior Court to be held for the county of Stokes at the court house in Danbury, N. C., on the 8th Monday of the first Monday in Sept., 1914, being the second day of November, 1914, and answer or demur to the complaint now on file in said cause.

And let the defendant take notice that if he fails to appear and answer during said term, the relief demanded in the complaint will be granted.

This the 17th day of July, 1914.
M. T. CHILTON,
Clerk Superior Court.
N. O. Petree, Atty. for plaintiff.

SALE OF LANDS.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Stokes county, N. C., rendered in the special proceeding entitled "J. W. Simmons, Executor of John E. Simmons against Letitia Jessup and others," I will expose to public sale to the highest bidder, upon the terms set forth below, on the premises in Stokes county, at the old home place of John E. Simmons, where he lived at the time of his death, on the 27 day of June 1914, at the hour of one o'clock p. m., the real estate of the said John E. Simmons, consisting of 231 acres.

The land is bounded on the north by the lands of J. H. Lowe, on the west by the lands of Samuel Cook, on the south by the lands of John Cain and on the east by the lands of Thos. Jackson and Wyatt Hunter.

The land will be sold as a whole and in separate tracts, in order to ascertain in which way the best price can be obtained.

The above land is very valuable, lying on the waters of Pinch Gut creek, with about 50 acres of bottom. It is good wheat, corn and tobacco land, with one six-room dwelling house, out buildings, two good tenant houses, five tobacco barns, and a good well. Land lies principally to the South.

Persons desiring to purchase good land, should go and see it before the day of sale.

Terms: One third cash on day of sale, one third in six months, and the remainder in twelve months, with bond and approved security bearing six per cent interest from day of sale, with privilege to purchaser or purchasers to pay all cash if they so desire.

This the 8th day of June 1914.
C. W. SIMMONS,
Executor.
