

NINETY-FOUR CENTS PER HUNDRED

JOHN T. SIMPSON

What Does That Headline Mean?

It means simply this—that every farmer who sold his tobacco at Brown's got 94 cents per hundred more than the man who sold at some other house. You are a free and independent farmer. Then why not consider these facts as they are? These figures are not of our making but are the official figures of the Winston Tobacco Board of Trade and cannot be denied.

The Winston market sold from August 1st, 1913, to May 1st, 1914, 28,617,711 pounds for $4,427,111.44.
Brown's sold 9,117,977 lbs for $1,468,900.54; average $16.11.
All other houses sold 19,499,734 lbs for 2,958,111.90; average 15.17

Brown's Average $16.11. Other Houses Average $15.17

Brown's beat all other houses 94 cents per hundred, which proves that the farmers who failed to sell at Brown's lost $188,296.18. What part of that did you lose? When you sold one thousand pounds of tobacco at some other house you lost $9.40. That's what we say and that's what the Board of Trade figures say also.

John Simpson and Joe Glenn know what the buyers can pay for each grade. That's why your tobacco brings 94 cents per hundred more at Brown's. We will expect you with your first load.

Your friends,

BROWN, SIMPSON & GLENN.

Walnut Cove, N. C., Oct. 21, 1914.

The tobacco sales on the local market during this week have been heavy and a marked increase in the price is evident on every sale. Monday was perhaps the biggest day in the present week when about 25,000 pounds on both floors sold for close on to $3,250.00, averaging almost $13.00 per hundred. Every farmer who sold here on that day went home highly pleased. The quality of the weed while a great deal better than the offerings on previous days was hardly on the average of the usual article offered by the Stokes county farmers and yet it was a rare thing to find a man who would not say it did much better than expected. The Export Company one of the biggest price boosting concerns on the markets bought a great volume of the tobacco while the American and the Liggett-Myers Co. secured their share of all the grades. The Imperial, another of the price boosters, will put a buyer on the sales here this week and it will not be surprising any day to see the prices on the brighter grades soar to the high water mark they reached last year. However the growers will make no mistake to place their product on the market as fast as they can get it in shape. At least this is the opinion of practically all the experienced tobaccoists.

At a convention held here Friday afternoon the Democrats of Sauratown township nominated for Road Commissioners, Messrs. Flint Fulp, W. G. Dodson and Jno. W. Redman; for Justices of the Peace, Messrs. Winburn Paris, Thos. J. Covington, Jos. N. Lasley; for Township Constable, J. E. James.

A great many from this place attended the Primitive Baptist Association at Pine Ridge about six miles southeast of here Sunday. The crowd on Sunday owing to the inclement weather conditions was not large but a more quiet, peaceable congregation on an occasion of this kind would be hard to find. Scores of visitors from nearly every section of the country where this loyal and devout church has a following were in attendance to hear the masterful sermons so earnestly delivered by their leading Elders. It was a day well spent to mingle with these good people and to be in an atmosphere of such profound loyalty, unselfishness and goodwill. It is learned that the next association will be held at Russell Creek, near the Virginia line.

The school is progressing nicely but according to Capt. R. L. Murphy the present building is absolutely inadequate to accommodate the great number of students who are enrolling daily. So far none have been denied admittance nor will they be so long as a seat can be found or devised but unless an addition is made to the building it will be impossible to accommodate all the children. It is to be hoped that some move will be made to enlarge the structure because the school is by far the greatest asset of the community and must never be allowed to go backward.

Hon. Victor Bryant, of Durham, one of the most brilliant young orators in the state, will address the people here Thursday night on the political issues of the day. Mr. Bryant is an eloquent speaker, full of humor and enthusiasm and will doubtless be heard by a packed audience.

On the commodious floor of the New Warehouse Saturday night from eight to twelve o'clock the young people enjoyed an old-fashioned dance to the strains of ante-bellum music rendered by the Stokesburg string band. Nearly everyone in town was present besides numerous visitors from Germantown, Danbury, Winston-Salem, Leaksville, Stoneville, Reidsville and other places and practically everybody young and old joined in the stately Old Virginia Reel and those who for various reasons didn't take an active part when the band struck up on "Flop Eared Mule" sat impatiently by and kept time to the music. Mesdames R. A. Hedgecock, G. H. Semple and Lola Bennett chaperoned the party, while the hosts, Messrs. P. W. Davis, W. L. Burke and R. L. Vaughn, assisted by Mrs. P. W. Davis, Misses Mary Martin and Eunice Vaughn, received the guests. Delicious punch was served by Misses Sallie Fulton and Julia and Rhoda Adams, assisted by Messrs. Paul Fulton and E. D. Matthews.

Mr. Cabell Tuttle and Miss Carrie Brown were quietly married here Sunday morning by Elder J. A. Fagg. Mr. Tuttle is a prosperous farmer residing near here and is the son of Mr. Caleb Tuttle, while the bride is the charming young daughter of Mr. W. R. Brown of the same community. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Miss Eunice Vaughn delightfully entertained a few of her friends at a rook party last Wednesday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Julia Adams. After several interesting games refreshments were served by Misses Mary Martin and Sallie Fulton. Those present on this pleasant occasion were Misses Claudia and Stella Rierson, Julia Adams, Sallie Fulton, Lillie Joyce, Mary Martin, Bernice Woodruff, Mrs. T. J. Covington; Messrs. Jacob and Paul Fulton, C. H. and Harry Davis, Wendell Hamilton, Wm. Hester and Dr. W. H. Critz.

Mrs. Duggan, of Sumnerfield, is visiting her daughter,

Mrs. P. W. Davis here this week.

Rev. H. A. Willey filled his regular appointment at the Episcopal church Sunday at 11 A. M. and at 7:30 P. M. He will also hold services Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

Messrs. O. J. Cates and Wesley Mabe spent Friday in Greensboro on business.

Prof. Wm. Graves, principal of King High School, was here a short while Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Nelson and Mr. W. L. Nelson, of Danbury, spent several days here this week.

Mr. Geo. H. Semple went to Richmond, Va., Friday on business connected with the warehouses.

Elder Barnard and other of the Primitive Baptists held services at the Junior Hall Friday night.

Mr. S. P. Christian, of Westfield, was in town between trains Saturday evening.

Messrs. J. N. Young, Ben

Neal, P. H. Linville and C. E. Davis went to Danbury Sunday night.

Messrs. J. A. Whitten and son, Brewer, are here this week with a small drove of horses.

Mr. J. H. Lewis, of Winston-Salem, visited his sister, Miss Ozelle, who is teaching in the high school Sunday.

Mr. Jno. W. Kurfrees was a business visitor here Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Davis, Mrs. J. H. Fulton and Miss Sallie Fulton are among those who spent a day shopping in Winston-Salem this week.

Miss America King, of Pilot Mountain, was the guest of Mrs. J. N. Young Sunday and Monday.

Miss Edith Petree spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Attorney J. W. Hall, of Danbury, was here a short while Friday enroute to Winston-Salem.

Miss Louella Fulp, principal of the school at Rosebud, was here shopping Saturday.

Mr. Carl Ray, the Stokes wonder and the pride of the baseball world so far as the Carolina league is concerned, spent Saturday night in town accompanied by Mr. W. G. Petree.

Mr. Alex Rogers, of Smith, one of the most substantial farmers in his section, was here Monday with tobacco and was well pleased with his sale. Mr. Rogers has recently purchased a Ford from the Walnut Cove Motor Co.

Messrs. R. T. Spencer, E. C. Sheppard, D. C. Taylor, L. D. Hole, P. C. Sheppard, Mal Taylor and other good citizens of northern Stokes were here Sunday enroute to the association.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Joyce, who has been quite ill, is considerably improved.

Mr. J. C. Joyce, of Guilford College, spent several days here the past week.

The county candidates wound up their campaign of the county here Saturday. A large crowd greeted them at this place although very little interest is being manifested in politics here and the remaining few days before the election promise to be quiet ones.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." For sale by All Dealers.
