

NINETY-FOUR CENTS PER HUNDRED

JOHN T. SIMPSON

What Does That Headline Mean?

It means simply this—that every farmer who sold his tobacco at Brown's got 94 cents per hundred more than the man who sold at some other house. You are a free and independent farmer. Then why not consider these facts as they are? These figures are not of our making but are the official figures of the Winston Tobacco Board of Trade and cannot be denied.

The Winston market sold from August 1st, 1913, to May 1st, 1914, 28,617,711 pounds for $4,427,111.44.

Brown's sold 9,117,977 lbs for $1,468,900.54; average $16.11
All other houses sold 19,499,734 lbs for 2,958,111.90; average 15.17

Brown's Average $16.11. Other Houses Average $15.17

Brown's beat all other houses 94 cents per hundred, which proves that the farmers who failed to sell at Brown's lost $183,296.18. What part of that did you lose? When you sold one thousand pounds of tobacco at some other house you lost $9.40. That's what we say and that's what the Board of Trade figures say also.

John Simpson and Joe Glenn know what the buyers can pay for each grade. That's why your tobacco brings 94 cents per hundred more at Brown's. We will expect you with your first load.

Your friends,

BROWN, SIMPSON & GLENN.

WALNUT COVE DEPARTMENT

CARLOS E. DAVIS, Manager.

Walnut Cove, N. C., Oct. 28, 1914.

Until a late hour last night a long train of covered wagons loaded heavily with tobacco was constantly pouring into the warehouses and today the steady influx of the weed continues. Doubtless one of the biggest sales of the season is being held and prices are holding up remarkably well considering the quality and high order of the offerings. In spite of the break the wide-awake and bustling warehousemen are handling the situation admirably, every available accommodation and courtesy is being extended to the farmers and every pile of tobacco on sale is having the very best attention of the managers and buyers, while it is a rare thing to find a grower who is dissatisfied with his average. On Saturday and Monday the sales were quite light but the quality of the tobacco was good and a splendid average was made at both houses on these two days. Mr. J. A. Dixon who bought on this market last year will go on the floors here this week to buy for the Imperial Company, one of the highest priced concerns on the markets of the world. The personnel of the companies and their buyers on the Walnut Cove market, which may prove of interest to the farmers, is as follows: American Tobacco Co., Mr. H. L. Byrd, buyer; Liggett-Myers Co., Mr. R. P. Sartin, buyer; Imperial Co., Mr. J. A. Dixon, buyer; Export Co., Mr. B. S. Young, buyer. Besides these there are several others who buy a great deal of the weed on orders from the different smaller concerns in Danville, Winston and other places, among these are Messrs. Hutcherson, Ball, Lasley, Fagg and others. Without reflection on any other market there is no doubt that Stokes county farmers will do as well to sell their tobacco in Walnut Cove as anywhere in the state and every man who feels an interest in his county and believes in building up permanent home industries should try selling at least one load with the houses at this place.

There will be an unusually large attendance at the horse sale here Thursday when about forty western ponies, range horses and small mules will be sold at auction by King Brothers. It gives one a thrill of real western life to take a look at these small, swift animals, many of which have never known the restraint of so much as a bridle. A new enterprise to be known as the Joyce-Jones Company will begin business at an early date in the building which was formerly occupied as a livery stable by Mr. R. P. Joyce. The firm is composed of Messrs. R. P. Joyce and C. M. Jones of this place and Mr. J. R. Snyder of Winston-Salem, and they will handle a line of engines, threshers and all kinds of farm machinery and implements. Later on they expect to install a general repair shop in the rear and employ an experienced machinist. Mr. Snyder who will have active charge of the business is well known here, having been with the International Harvester Co. in this territory for many years and is thoroughly familiar with the line which the firm proposes to handle. He has resigned his position with the International Harvester Co. and will enter upon his new duties here Nov. 15.

Mr. Oscar Parham, the thirty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parham, who reside here, was struck and instantly killed by a train in Portsmouth, Ohio, last Tuesday while he was engaged in working on the yards. The remains of the young man were brought here Thursday night and interment was made at Bethlehem church Friday. The parents are the recipients of the sympathy of the community.

The nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gerry died Saturday after a short illness of scarlet fever. The remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon at Fulp in the presence of a host of mourning relatives and sympathizing friends.

Hon. Victor S. Bryant delivered a strong and forceful address on the political issues at the Junior Hall Thursday night to an enthusiastic audience. At the same hall tomorrow night Hon. J. H. Folger, of Mt. Airy, Democratic nominee for State Senator from Stokes and Surry, will discuss the issues in the interest of his party and fellow candidates.

Of interest to the people who travel are the changes recently made by the N. & W. schedule of passenger trains: the early northbound train leaves here now at 7:07, going south; number 35 leaves at 10:51 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Allen, who have for some time resided on Summit Avenue, left last week for Stokesdale where they will make their future home. They leased their home here to Mr. J. A. Lewis, the new liveryman, who will move his family here this week.

Mr. J. C. Hutcherson, one of the managers of the New Warehouse, moved his family from Reidsville here last week and is occupying the beautiful new cottage recently erected on North Main street.

Among those who attended the Stokes County Fair from here Thursday were Mr. J. Wesley Morefield and family, Mrs. H. H. Davis, Mrs. E. A. Rothrock and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neal, Mrs. S. C. Landreth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Southern; Messrs. Frank Southern, J. F. Hawkins and others. It is learned that Mrs. Landreth exhibited a nice pen of chickens which took the first prize.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Tuttle and Mr. O. N. Petree motored over to Winston-Salem Thursday, attending the performance of Mutt and Jeff at the Auditorium.

Attorney W. Reade Johnson, of Winston-Salem, spent Saturday in town looking after some legal affairs.

Mr. R. L. Murphy went to Winston-Salem Friday attending to some business affairs.

Mr. Thos. W. Lawson, a good citizen of the Pinnacle section, was a visitor here Saturday.

Messrs. C. H. Davis and H. L. Byrd spent Sunday at their homes in Martinsville, Va.

The Junior flag raising and picnic at Tuttle's school house Thursday was a well attended and successful event. Splendid addresses were made by Messrs. H. C. Sapp and J. H. Whicker, of Winston-Salem. A bountiful dinner was served and every body appeared to enjoy the affair immensely.

Mr. A. E. Storde, the popular night operator at the N. & W. depot, left this week for New York and other northern cities to spend a two weeks' vacation. He is being relieved during his absence by Mr. Bryant.

Messrs. S. H. Stewart, Elwood Boyles, Watson Joyce, Jacob Fulton, Lacy Keacham, Paul Fulton and Newton Young composed an automobile party to Winston-Salem and Greensboro Sunday afternoon.

Misses Willie and Louise Hairston left today for Manatee, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Work has been finished on the hill near the home of Mr. Joel W. Allen and the top-soil has been put on. This is presumably all the work that will be done on the streets here this fall although during rainy weather the streets are in a fearful condition in the main business section. The condition of the streets can be tolerated fairly well because only autos, horses, mules and vehicles must traverse them but the crying need of the town now so evident during the recent rains is devising and building of some kind of sidewalks. Everybody walks and the town would present a far better appearance if some means were devised by which residents and strangers alike could get to the business houses without having to be reminded at every step of the prevalence of King Mud.

Mr. Wyatt Joyce, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. P. G. Smith has accepted a position with the old warehouse.

The Ladies Home Journal, The Saturday Evening Post, and The Country Gentleman, each $1.50 per year. Your subscription or renewal will receive prompt and careful attention. Upton G. Wilson, Madison, N. C. 21 Oct 21

WILLIAM ANDREW MARTIN.

William Andrew Martin, son of the late Samuel and Sallie F. Martin, of Stokes county, was born in Rockingham county, July, 1845. He grew up on his father's farm near Aversville and attended the public schools during his boyhood days from which he obtained a very good English education. Young Mr. Martin was an apt scholar, expert penman and a good mathematician. He joined the Confederate army at 18 years old as a private in 1862. He served in the war nearly four years. He was taken as a prisoner in Feb., 1865, at Mobile, Ala., and carried to New Orleans. He was there put on a vessel and carried up the Mississippi river to Vicksburg and kept there till the surrender. He was turned loose from prison in May, 1865, fifteen hundred miles from home without money and without friends and no way to get home but to walk, but the young man was brave and being inspired by the love for home and loved ones he started on foot for North Carolina. He got home about the middle of January, 1865, and went to Sandy Ridge and was employed by his Uncle Nicholas Martin to sell goods in a country store. He left Sandy Ridge in 1868 and went to Atlanta, Ga. He there met Miss Sallie E. Prather, a teacher in the graded school of that city. They soon became lovers and were married in 1870. He got employment with the Rankin-Lamer Drug Co., of that city. He afterwards became a stockholder and the business manager of that firm. Mr. Martin was a shrewd business man, a hard worker and a close observer of the times. He won for himself many friends in that great Southern city. He stayed in business till the year 1910. His health gave way and he sold his interest and retired from business. He was never very well any more and on Oct. 9th his life ended and his immortal soul claimed citizenship in heaven. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Grant Martin, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. John Miller, of Atlanta. He also has six living brothers and four sisters in North Carolina, namely, John Martin, of Winston-Salem, Matt Martin, of Greensboro, George R. Martin, of Madison, J. S. Martin, of Williamston, S. P. and Joe Ham Martin, of Sandy Ridge, Mrs. T. M. Martin and Mrs. Sallie Martin, of Sandy Ridge, Mrs. John W. Gann, of Madison and Mrs. Bob Gann, of Mayodan. Mr. Martin was a faithful member of the Baptist church. He professed a hope in Christ in the year of 1875 and united with the first church of the city of Atlanta. His funeral services were held Oct. 10th at the First Baptist church of the city after which he was laid to rest in the cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Brother, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.
