COUNTY FATHERS.

New Board Meets Monday-- County Officials and Road Commissioners In Three Townships To Be Sworn In.

The newly elected Board of County Commissioners will meet here Monday in their first monthly session.

The county officers recently elected will be sworn in and enter on their new terms at this meeting of the board. Also the newly elected road commissioners in three townships - Sauratown, Meadows and Danbury - will be sworn in and enter on their duties.

There will probably be a good number of citizens in attendance at the meeting of the commissioners Monday.

Mr. Mabe Sells Farm At $2,000 Profit

Messrs. Wesley Mabe and John Mounce were here Monday. The former gentleman recently sold his farm to the latter and the title was transferred Monday.

The farm which Mr. Mabe sold was bought by him eight years ago for $1,000 and Mr. Mounce paid him $3,000 for it. It lies in Sauratown township, six miles north of Walnut Cove.

As was stated last week Mr. Mabe has purchased a farm in Guilford county near Oak Ridge. The farm contains 100 acres and Mr. Mabe paid $4,250.00 for it. He is considering buying another farm near Walnut Cove and if this deal is made he will likely not leave Stokes as he intended doing.

Cole Blease Again Empties the Prison

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 25-- Governor Blease late today granted pardons, paroles or commutations to 101 prisoners now serving sentences in the South Carolina penitentiary or in the county convict squads. There will be fewer than 50 prisoners left in the state prison here tomorrow.

Clemency now has been extended so 1,430 prisoners by the governor since he assumed the office in January, 1911. His second term as the state's chief executive will expire January 12, 1915.

Exports Show Big Increase In October

Washington, Nov. 25. -- The American export trade, retarded by the European war, showed signs of revival during October. The month ended with a balance of trade in favor of the United States of more than fifty-seven million dollars, according to statistics issued today by the Department of Commerce. The total, however, is almost seventy-eight million below October, 1913.

HE WAS UNPREPARED.

The Recent Big Snow Caught One Stokes Citizen In Bad Plight.

A Stokes citizen residing on King Route 2 writes the Reporter of his experience on the morning of the recent snow. His letter follows:

King Route 2, Nov. 25.

Dear Mr. Editor:--So far as I have any history the snow on the 19th was the biggest that ever visited this section in November. It seemed to the writer that the wind accompanying the snow was the severest he ever felt and it seemed to come from the north, south, east and west all at the same time.

We farmers had been busy sowing grain up to the time of the snow and had not had time to get up our wood for the winter, so there was a terrible time at my house about 5 o'clock when the madam called me and said get up and make a fire. I rolled out and asked her where the wood was and she said there was no wood except a few stumps in the kitchen that she had to get breakfast with. I asked her where the axe was and she said it was away down in the woods where I had it cutting saw logs last spring, with the handle broken out. Soon I got the stumps and poured oil over them to start a fire to cook breakfast. By this time she told me that the hogs were out of the pen and that all the chickens were standing in the snow nearly frozen. When I finished this job I was informed that there was not a bit of flour in the house. Pretty soon I was on my way to mill but I found the creeks frozen over. But I finally got my mule across and arrived at the mill and found the miller gone to his home about three miles away, so I started on over there, and when I got there luck started to change for I found that he had a great log fire and had just killed hogs the day before. So after he had brought out his little brown jug we had a fine breakfast with plenty of pork and hot biscuit, and I soon forgot about the old lady and the kids and the war with Europe, and we had a great time. SCRIBBLER.

Misses Mary and Janie Martin spent Thanksgiving at their home here. They were accompanied by Miss Kate McPherson, a teacher in the high school at Walnut Cove.

Kerosene Is Good for Cleaning Wood, Metal, or Cloth

If people would but use kerosene more they would find it a great help. Put a little on a cloth or soft paper and wipe off the finger stains around the door-knob, and the window glass. A little in the water with which woodwork is washed, especially porch floors, will loosen the dirt and discourage bugs. Should the zinc under the stove be dirty let it stay damp over night with kerosene and next morning wipe it off. Kerosene and fine ashes will scour rust spots from iron stoves. It will brighten the hearth, and remove the dull look of old furniture, if a very little is applied with elbow grease. It will often turn a white spot on the varnish to its own color. Vaseline stains should be soaked in kerosene before soap and water touch them. It is also a solvent for grease and a dried spot, such as axle grease, on overalls, will wash easier for being soaked in it. It is cheap and is a fine fuel making kerosene stoves an easily procured comfort.
