The Year Has Been One of Large Yields In North Carolina

Raleigh, Dec. 2. — The State Board of Agriculture this afternoon heard the annual report of Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, which reviewed most interestingly the progress and work of the past year and presented important recommendations.

He declared that the year just closing has been one of large yields for almost every crop raised in the State for commerce.

The wheat crop he declared to have been the largest in quantity and finest in quality on record for this State, being, he believes, eight million bushels instead of seven million bushels credited to the State by the government reports. The corn crop will probably reach sixty million bushels. The cotton crop he estimated at one million bales, oats, peanuts, sweet potatoes and apples are fine. Irish potatoes being about the only crop that shows any deficiency.

The commissioner asserts that but for the disturbance in commerce by the war the farmers, with the good yields and fair prices realized the past two years, should be in good financial condition, but he fears the habit of buying on credit, which has been so long practiced and become chronic is a great handicap. He mentioned with especial gratification that feeds imported into the State that should have been grown here the past year dropped to twenty million dollars' worth compared with sixty million dollars worth four years ago.

EDITOR OLIVER IS DEAD

He Was One of Rockingham's Prominent Democrats and Was a Deputy Revenue Collector.

Reidsville, Dec. 5.—John T. Oliver, one of the editors and owners of the Reidsville Review, died at his home on Maple avenue at noon today. He was 39 years of age and had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for several years. He was a prominent Democrat and influential in party councils in the county.

Mr. Oliver was appointed deputy revenue collector on December 1 by Collector A. D. Watts. He was a member of St. Thomas Episcopal church, also of the Jr. O. U. A. M. lodge. Funeral and burial was held Sunday afternoon.

He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Lillie Linebery, of Fayetteville, two brothers, R. J. and Manton Oliver, of Reidsville, and one sister, Mrs. T. E. Priddy, of Memphis, Tenn.

Try This For Neuralgia.

Thousands of people keep on suffering with Neuralgia because they do not know what to do for it. Neuralgia is a pain in the nerves. What you want to do is to soothe the nerve itself. Apply Sloan's Liniment to the surface over the painful part—do not rub it in. Sloan's Liniment penetrates very quickly to the sore, irritated nerve and allays the inflammation. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c. of any druggist and have it in the house—against Colds, Sore and Swollen Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

Judge Clark Faints In His Bathroom

Raleigh, Dec. 5.—Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, was in an unconscious condition for several hours last night and is confined to his bed today as the result of an attack that came upon him suddenly about eleven o'clock while he was taking a hot bath. His son, Walter Clark, Jr., found him in the bathroom in an unconscious condition and Doctors J. R. Rogers and W. I. Royster were summoned and worked heroically for some time in bringing him around. When he regained consciousness Judge Clark explained that he had been feeling unwell for several hours and that the bathroom seemed to become overheated and oppressive to him to the extent that he fainted.

He responded readily to treatment and was so much better this morning that he wanted to get up and dress for his judicial labors, but he is being made to keep his bed for a few days to make sure that there is no over-exertion until the effects of the attack are fully overcome.

A Nervous Wreck

Had No Desire To Live

Peruna Is A Tonic and Strength Builder So Says

Mrs. Frank Stroobe, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis. Her letter reads: "I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck. Could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live. Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life."

"I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement." Mr. Charles Brown, R. R. 4, Box 79, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder."

Reserve Banks Will Do Good.

New York, Dec. 3. — Panic due to distrust of banks has been relegated to the museum of antiquities by the new reserve banking system, is the opinion of C. S. Hamlin, governor of the Federal reserve board, voiced this afternoon in a speech before the New York Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. D. C. Taylor, a merchant of Sandy Ridge Route 1, was a visitor here Friday.

TOBACCO AND WAR.

Great Britain Has No Idea of Making it Contraband of War.

New York World. Great Britain's assurance that it has no intention to declare tobacco contraband has more than commercial importance. It makes for solace and comfort and it may promote peace.

An article that is not contraband may be freely shipped to all countries, Germans and Austrians as well as British, French and Russians may supply themselves with America's choicest weed without fear of interruption of the high seas. Controlling most of the ocean routes as it now does, Great Britain in this matter is at least humane and possibly philanthropic.

What greater cruelty could it inflict upon its armed enemies than to deprive them of tobacco? If an American trader appeared in the North Sea with a cargo of foodstuffs, clothing and shoes destined to Germany, his goods might be seized as conditional contraband, for there would be a suspicion that they might find their way to the army. A shipload of tobacco, however, its freight practically certain to go straight to the trenches, would be passed by the watchful cruisers of Albion without protest.

Soldiers can fight for a time without food, with little clothing and in bare feet, but an army in the trenches without tobacco for a day would be lost.
