

LOCAL NEWS

Piedmont Springs hotel will open for guests about June 1.

Messrs C. R. Helsabeck and Ben Caill, of Walnut Cove, were visitors here today.

The nice showers this week have been of inestimable value to the young tobacco plants, garden truck, etc.

Messrs. J. D. Martin, W. S. Hart, F. C. Smith and B. A. Overby, citizens of the Smith section, were Danbury visitors Monday.

An auto party composed of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Pepper, Misses Nannie and Blanche and Mr. Thos. Pepper, Jr., visited Danbury Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Martha C. Smith, of Danbury, who has been spending some time at Winston-Salem with relatives, is very ill, her many friends will be pained to learn.

Dr. W. V. McCanless visited Winston-Salem today. Mrs. McCanless, who has been spending some time with relatives in the Twin City, accompanied her husband home.

Dr. S. F. Tillotson was here Monday and paid us a pleasant call. Dr. Tillotson is one of the leading young physicians of the county, and has built up a large practice and an excellent reputation.

The new bridge across the Dan at George's roller mill in northern Stokes was completed this week and the fills at each end of the bridge are being made this week so that it will be open to travel right away.

Joseph Robertson, of Danbury Route 1, was a visitor here today. Mr. Robertson reported that there had not been any rain in his section for many weeks and that tobacco plants were almost destroyed in the Twin City.

A series of revival meetings are in progress here at the M. E. church this week, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. O. P. Routh, who is an untiring worker in the cause. Considerable interest is being manifested in the services.

Miss Alpha Stephens, of Danbury Route 1, was taken to the Twin City hospital Monday by Dr. W. L. McCanless where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. The patient is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. W. Y. Gordon, of German-ton Route 1, was a visitor here on business Monday. Mr. Gordon reports crop prospects excellent in his section. The farmers generally have plenty of tobacco plants, corn is coming up nicely, and the wheat crop is fine.

Mr. S. P. Christian, of Westfield, was among the crowd here Monday attending the meeting of the county commissioners. Mr. Christian reported dry weather in the Westfield country, but since then it has evidently rained there, as the rain of Tuesday morning appeared quite general in this section.

Messrs. Charley and Wesley Mabe, hard-working and honest young farmers of Peters Creek, were in town today. Charley, who is a good looking fellow, is looking for a wife, and some of our energetic young damsels may do well to cast their nets for him.

A horse being driven to a buggy ran away with Mr. Walter Petree here Friday afternoon. The animal ran for some distance down Main street and could not be stopped until it ran against the Presbyterian church, breaking one of the large windows in the church and injuring the buggy considerably. Walter escaped with only a few slight bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bowles, of Walnut Cove, spent a while in town Friday afternoon. Mr. Bowles, who is the well known liveryman of Walnut Cove, has leased the Piedmont livery line, and will operate between the Springs and Walnut Cove the coming season two or three automobiles, besides his excellent livery service. Mr. Bowles will purchase one or more new automobiles, already owning a six-cylinder Studebaker. There is no doubt that service from Piedmont to Walnut Cove this season will be excellent.

Two Farms For Sale.

I will sell one or both of my farms near Smith postoffice. One contains 185 acres, the other 150 acres, both have good dwellings and tobacco barns. Both are unusually fine tobacco land. Will sell cheap and on good terms.

The Boys On the Fork.

By C. F. S.

We are a happy band of boys Living on the Fork, Sporting is our motto, And to the girls we talk.

George Tuttle is our captain And always treats us right, But the way he does his sporting It's an awful, awful sight.

His brother Bev we all adore For he's so nice and good, And poor old Beverly would surely marry

If he only, only could. But R. E. Miller, a different boy, Is very nice and gay,

But before he'd ever marry He would go far away.

But O. G. Rutledge, he has moved To a place out in Forsyth, But he says he's coming back To old Stokes to get his wife.

William Bowles a new arrival Seems to be going some, For when he starts to see his girl He grabs his cap and runs.

And James Burge, a very good boy Once made a nice and noble start, But before he had gotten far He had broken his lover's heart.

And his brother Rob, a wayward boy, We will have to let him go, For it seems that he is bound For a girl down on Route Four.

White Man With Black Liver

The Liver is a blood purifier. It was thought at one time it was the seat of the passion. The trouble with most people is that their Liver becomes black because of impurities in the blood due to bad physical states, causing Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness and Constipation. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clean up the Liver, and give you new life. 25c. at your druggists.

Sherman Tuttle is hard to beat But yet he's very nice, And says the hardest thing for him

Is to get some girl to be his wife. His brother Rich, is a little younger

But yet he's quite as tall, But when he sees his sweetheart dear

Right there poor Richard falls. And Willie Campbell, an amateur, Has been going a little West,

For he says the girls up there Are just a little bit the best.

R. C. Allen, a noble boy, Never likes to tarry, For he says that he is looking For a girl that wants to marry.

And Preston Smith he stays at home For he's so slim and tall And if that poor fellow ever marries

It will fool us, yes, fool us all. Now, poor Gossiper caps the stack And is ugly as home made sin,

But when it comes to sporting He is always poking in.

Now, dear Editor, I want to stop For its time for me to halt, But if this happy band don't marry

It certainly will never be their fault.

—Gossiper.

Whole Family Dependent

Mr. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ohio, writes: "Our whole family depend on Pine-Tar-Honey." Maybe someone in your family has a severe Cold perhaps it is the baby. The original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ever ready household remedy—it gives immediate relief. Pine-Tar-Honey penetrates the linings of the Throat and Lungs, destroys the Germs, and allows Nature to act. At your druggists, 25c.

FER FERTILIZER!

For Sale at Danbury By A. W. Davis.

I have taken the agency for the sale of the celebrated Armour brand of Guano, and will sell at both for cash and on time.

DANBURY

The Armour brand is one of the best fertilizers made for corn, tobacco and wheat.

I am prepared to meet all competition on prices.
Don't make any arrangements to buy till you see me.

I will deliver at Danbury by auto truck. This will be a great convenience to the farmers of the county
