COVE HIGH SCHOOL

Trustees Elect Four Of the Teachers For the Fall Term.

WAREHOUSE TALK

E. J. Davis & Sons, of Martinsville, Open Market at Fairmont This Week, and at Walnut Cove Later in the Season —Think Prices Will Be Good.

Walnut Cove, July 20.—At a recent meeting of the high school trustees only four of the teachers for the next term were elected. For the primary grades, Miss Anna Reid, of Pilot Mountain, intermediate grades, Miss Mayme William, of Fairview, assistant high school teacher, Miss Pearl Seagraves, of Holly Springs, teacher of music, Miss Minnie Joyce, of Stoneville. No principal has yet been named but the committee have under consideration applications from some of the best men in the State and will elect one of these within a few days. The school will probably open about Oct. 10.

An enjoyable and profitable refreshment party was tendered at the New warehouse Wednesday evening under the auspices of the ladies of the M. E. church for the purpose of making improvements in the interior of the parsonage. A large crowd was present and a neat little sum was realized from the sale of ice cream, sherbert and other delicacies.

Mr. J. C. Hutcherson left last week with his family for Tabor where he will conduct a warehouse until about Oct 1 when he will return here to assume charge of the New warehouse.

The bond election to be held Aug. 10 when a $2,000 bond issue will be carried or rejected is the subject of very little interest. It would be difficult to predict either the success or failure of the proposition at this time although a great many voters have already registered. Many taxpayers will be unable to vote owing to the fact that they failed to pay their poll taxes.

Messrs. E. J. Davis & Sons, of Martinsville, Va., who will conduct the warehouse this year were in town a short while Thursday enroute to Fairmont where they will open a warehouse this week. These gentlemen who are well versed in the tobacco business are confident that the prices will start off well and while the high prices of 1913 can hardly be expected they are sure the prices will be up to last year's average.

Many from here attended services at Rosebud Christian church three miles west of town Sunday. The services were the opening of a protracted meeting which will continue throughout the week.

Messrs. Jno. G. Fulton, Carl Joyce, J. R. Snyder, Watson Joyce and C. E. Davis made a business trip to Charlotte Friday. The trip was made in Mr. Joyce's Overland and remarkable to state not a breakdown, puncture or any of the evils of auto travel was experienced during the 232 miles traversed. With the exception of a two mile stretch from Fulp to Dennis a perfect sand-clay road covers the entire distance from this point to Charlotte via Mocksville, Statesville and Mooreville thru one of the prettiest agricultural sections of the State.

Messrs. A. W. Davis, S. H. Stewart, W. G. Dodson, Dr. C. R. Hutcherson, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Boyles, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Davis spent Sunday at Moore's Springs and Piedmont.

Mr. Jacob Fulton, Jr., who has been attending Eastman Business College, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., since Jan. 1 is expected home this week.

He will have his preliminary hearing today before Esq. Bessant at Winston-Salem. Able counsel has been employed on both sides. Much surprise is expressed among the people here as Mr. Daub comes from one of the best families in that section.

It Is the Opinion Of Major Stedman That Congress Will Not Convene.

Many Distinguished Guests Now Summering At the Popular Resort.

Piedmont Springs, N. C., July 21.—Congressman Chas. M. Stedman, of the Fifth North Carolina district, does not believe that there will be an extra session of congress soon to consider the German problem, but thinks that President Wilson will be able to handle the situation with the honor and dignity and justice due the American people. Major Stedman is here to spend a week or two at this popular resort, where there are at present more than 100 guests at the hotel, among them many of the most prominent people of the State. Maj. Stedman feels that God Almighty created Woodrow Wilson for the crisis confronting Americans, and that the President's life will be spared to lead this great nation safely and with prestige unimpaired through the perils that beset it. Major Stedman says the policy of England in seizing and holding American commerce has caused serious loss to the tobacco and cotton farmers of North Carolina. He is confident that at the next session of Congress measures will be enacted which will compel the British to respect American rights upon the high seas. Major Stedman is in excellent health and spirits and looks to be in the best physical condition of his life.

Among the many prominent and distinguished people now spending the summer at Piedmont Springs are the following: Mr. Clem G. Wright and family, Capt. Bernard, Superintendent of Maintenance of Ways of the Southern with his family, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Price and family, Major T. J. Murphy and family; H. E. Ballance and Mrs. Ballance, all of Greensboro; Mr. John T. Simpson, of Brown's Warehouse, with his family; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hill, Mrs. C. J. Mock and children, of Winston-Salem; Miss Camille Holt Hunt and Miss Frances Holt Montcastle, Mrs. Capt. S. E. Williams and daughter, Miss Frances, of Lexington; Mrs. C. J. Harris and Miss Adalade Harris, of Concord; Mrs. Will Pannill and children and Miss Ruffin, of Mayodan; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson, and Misses Davis, and Mrs. Walter W. Jones, of Winston-Salem; Miss Mary M. Petty, of Greensboro; Mrs. Lawrence McRae and children, Mrs. E. D. Vaughn and Miss Margaret Vaughn, and Mrs. B. H. Abbott, of Winston-Salem; Dr. S. D. Booth, of Oxford; Mrs. G. W. Pryor, Miss Grace Lawless and Miss Bessie Howard, of Greensboro, and many others.

The hotel's orchestra is composed of F. Karl von Wiegand, violinist, graduated from Ithica Conservatory, with Pittsburg Symphony Orchestra, studied under Floraburg, Berlin Symphony Society.

Miss Beryl Ferguson, pianist,

L. R. H. M., London, England.

Jess L. Alderman, Bass Violinist, studied under Butler of Philadelphia, eight years in the orchestra of the Jefferson Hotel.

L. Kneiling, cellist, many years with leading hotels and resorts in the north.

The orchestra has been enlarged this season by the addition of the bass violin. Fortunately the pianist is an accomplished violinist, making it possible for the orchestra to feature selections as a string quartette, this being the same instrumentation as is employed at the most popular sea side hotels.

The dance music is excellent, the time and selections being superb, and up-to-date, rendered every evening during the week in the cool and spacious ball room from 8 p. m. until 10 p. m.

On Sunday evening the guests are entertained with sacred music of the highest order rendered to perfection by this most gifted and obliging orchestra. Programs for these sacred concerts are sent out each week.

The Piedmont Springs Hotel is fast gaining in popularity as an ideal resort for week end parties. On last Sunday the crowd numbered over two hundred.

ALL RECORDS BROKEN

The Season at Piedmont Springs the Best Yet.

The present season at Piedmont Springs is the best yet experienced by the present management. Not only are the week-end crowds larger than can be handled, but the average crowd, those who remain from one to two or more weeks, is the largest ever known. There are 125 regular guests now staying at the hotel. Last Saturday night and Sunday from 250 to 300 guests were accommodated, while 50 or more were turned away because of the management's inability to handle them.

Among the pleasant visitors at Piedmont Springs are Mr. C. G. Wright and family and Capt. and Mrs. Bernard of Greensboro. Mr. Wright is a lawyer of Greensboro, and a capitalist. He is a man of great public spirit, and the one above all others that made Guilford county the banner good roads county of the State. Capt. Bernard is Superintendent of Maintenance of Ways of the Southern Railway, and is a most agreeable gentleman. There are no better people in the State than these.
