HIGH SCHOOL OPENS

Two Hundred and Thirty-Two Pupils Enroll On Opening Day At Walnut Cove

TOBACCO MARKET

Warehouses Hold Opening Sales With Fair Breaks—Baptists Purchase Lot For Church—New Cafe To Open Soon—Other News of Our County Town.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 5.—The high school held its formal opening Thursday morning when teachers, patrons and pupils assembled in the auditorium for the purpose of becoming acquainted and the assignment of studies. Several instructive addresses were made by the teachers, committee and others who were present. The opening proper of the school occurred Monday with 232 pupils in the building, the largest opening enrollment in the history of the school. These students divided into the respective rooms show a total of 47 high school students, 45 in the sixth grades, 70 in the intermediate classes and 70 in the primary department. 270 pupils are enrolled on the census and practically all of these in addition to others coming in will enter school this month. According to the reports of the teachers the school is crowded and the building is entirely inadequate for the number in attendance. The committee are busy endeavoring to devise some means of securing another room when another teacher will be employed. This is destined to be a banner year for the school with the splendid faculty in charge as follows: Principal, Prof. E. S. Hendren, of Pilot Mtn., assistant principal, Miss Pearl Seagraves, of Mt. Holly, intermediate department, Miss Mayme Williams, of Asheville, primary grades, Miss Anna Reid, of Pilot Mtn., teacher of music, Miss Minnie Joyce, of Stoneville.

The tobacco market opened here today with a fair break of tobacco which sold for a satisfactory price. An excellent bunch of warehousemen are in charge of the market and it is a foregone conclusion that more tobacco will be sold here this year than ever before. Messrs. E. J. Davis & Son, of Martinsville, Va., are managers of the old house while the New house is being managed by Messrs. J. C. Hutcherson and Henry McGehee, of Reidsville. Many of the big manufacturers are represented besides a number of leaf dealers and others. Practically the same line-up of buyers are here this year as last. Mr. H. L. Byrd, of Martinsville, for the American, Mr. R. P. Sartin, of Burlington, for Liggett-Myers, Mr. B. S. Young, of Durham, for the Export.

A strong effort is being made to make this a six million pound market this year. Mr. J. C. Hutcherson whose ability in well known from his splendid work last year is auctioneer at the New house while Mr. T. L. Tapscott, of Burlington, auctioneers for the Old house. All grades of tobacco are selling for a good price while prices for bright grades are exceptionally good. It is the opinion of many that the farmers will make no mistake by selling early this year.

SUNDAY EVENING GUN-PLAY IN THE MOUNTAIN

Sidney Love, Love-Mad, Shoots Frank Brown and Will Thomas, Is Himself Shot Four Times, Kills His Own Horse, and Lands Safely in Jail—An Amateur Jesse James Affords An Afternoon's Excitement For the People of Moore's Springs and King.

Sidney Love is in jail here charged with shooting Frank Brown at Moore's Springs and Deputy Sheriff Will Thomas at King Sunday afternoon. The prisoner is himself wounded in four different places, none of which are giving him much trouble, as follows: Twice in one arm, once in the other arm, while one ear has been clipped with a bullet. These wounds were received in the fight near King, when the officers tried to arrest him. In the hospital at Winston-Salem, very seriously wounded, Deputy Thomas lies with a pistol ball under the third rib, which possibly passed through his liver. At his home near Moore's Springs, Frank Brown suffers with two shots, one in the arm, the other in the hip. He is not seriously hurt.

The fight began at Moore's Springs about five o'clock Sunday afternoon, when young Brown was shot by Love, and it ended one hour and fifteen minutes later on the other side of the mountain, near King, seventeen miles distant, when Love, resisting arrest by Thomas and Spainhour, shot down Thomas, killed his own horse, and was himself shot by the two officers. The latest news received from Thomas is not reassuring.

The story of the affair reads like a page from a dime novel, or a chapter from the escapades of some of the feudists of the mountains of Kentucky. There is a woman in the case—a girl about 15 years old, Miss Minnie Wall, of Wade Mecum, daughter of Mr. John Wall, said to be a young lady of attraction. At the jail last night, a Reporter man tried to interview young Love, but he was shrewd enough not to talk much. He did not mind saying that he was the son of Will Love of Tobaccoville, and that his mother and father were living, likewise three brothers and one sister. He has recently been spending a good deal of time at and around King. He would not answer the direct question as to why he shot Brown, and stated that Brown had not figured very largely in the affections of Miss Wall. As Love lighted a cigarette, he told the newspaper man that he had been showing attentions to Miss Wall for four or five months. He was asked how long Brown had been courting the lady, and
