HANES LINVILLE OUT AGAIN.

Walnut Cove's Popular Postmaster Shaking Hands With His Friends and Himself--Congratulations.

The Reporter was very glad to see Postmaster P. H. Linville in town this week after his lying in for several days from a serious buzz-car accident. Now that it is all over, nobody killed and the wounds about healed, we may contemplate the funny side of the accident. Hanes declares there is no funny side to it. But the people of Walnut Cove are able to perceive that not all was solemnity. Imagine a Ford jumping along the macadam road at 12:30 in the night, on the return from Winston-Salem. All hands in excellent spirits, the beautiful stars shining overhead and the road just fine. The car was not traveling more than 55,—saving rubber, you know, as never more than two wheels were on the ground at once.

Of course nobody knows exactly how it happened, but everyone agrees that something did happen. The air suddenly became full of Walnut Cove sports. Jacob went straight up, Watson took a side-swipe, Carl fell back towards Winston, while the 300 more or less pounds of the Postmaster's avoirdupois continued on towards Walnut Cove, followed by the car, which jumped on him and kicked him. When Hanes hit the ground Dr. Fulp, who had just retired from a late case and was yet awake, felt the impact. The noise awoke John Vince Marshall, at his home five miles away, who thought it was a freight wreck. Carl Joyee, one of the spilt, decided the millennium had come, and was lying off thirty feet or more praying to somebody to come and take the car off. But there was nothing on him but the laprobe, and when he discovered this his joy knew no bounds.

It was most fortunate and happy that the accident was no more serious than it was.

Mr. J. P. Lynch, of Pilot Mtn. Route 1, was here Monday. Mr. Lynch says the wheat crop isn't half sown in his section.

Coughs That are Stopped.

Careful people see that they are stopped. Dr. King's New Discovery is a remedy of tried merit. It has held its own on the market for 46 years. Youth and old age testify to its soothing and healing qualities. Pneumonia and lung troubles are often caused by delay of treatment. Dr. King's New Discovery stops those hacking coughs and relieves la grippe tendencies. Money back if it fails. 50c. and $1.00.

Mr. T. V. Sizemore, of Germantown Route 1, has the thanks of the Reporter for a sack of the very best apples we have seen lately. They were grown in Mr. Sizemore's large orchard.

Mr. Walter Petree, who is teaching near Mayedan, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. Thomas S. Petree, of King, spent Sunday here with his parents.

Lost.

At Danbury, Oct. 25th, a scarf pin with a gold dollar on it. Suitable reward will be paid for its return to the Reporter office at Danbury. It
