Now listen, we never like to boast of one week's sales, but we are merely giving you these facts to correct any wrong impression that some other house can beat us selling tobacco for the highest averages. Get these facts into your head and keep them there: Brown's leads them all, and when you want the top come on to Brown's. Remember that we sell your tobacco every day first or second sale. So whatever day you come, drive straight to Brown's.
