"LIVE AT HOME" MOVEMENT STARTS

Supplies At Home.

Raleigh, March 4. - A definite start is being made this week in the work of putting over Governor Cameron Morrison's "Live at Home" campaign, John Paul Lucas, of Charlotte, who has been secured to organize and direct the campaign, has opened an office in the State Department Annex, and the preliminary work in prospect is not new to Mr. Lucas, who had active direction of the Food Production and Conservation Campaign in North Carolina during the war, first with the State Food Commission, and later the United States Food Administration, and who is "loaned" to the state for this particular work by the Southern Hill. Public Utilities Company for Mecuni. which he is advertising and publicity manager.

During the campaign emphasis | Chapel. will be laid not upon the production of food supplies for the market, but upon the production by every family of food and feed supplies sufficient to supply its own establishment. More and better gardens, more poultry, Effort Will Be Made To one or more cows for each fami-Agriculture and the State College of Agriculture and Engineering, but also of the Department of Education, the State Board of Health and other agencies of the state government.

The campaign which is being inaugurated will be intensively conducted and will cover a period is already underway. The work of eight or ten weeks. The organization to be built up will reach into every township of every county in the State.

Down and Timber Is Broken Badly.

King Route 2, March 6.-We had the largest sleet last Wednesday night that we ever had in this section so the old people say. It damaged the timber and broke up the fruit trees and the Quickstep Telephone lines were tore all to pieces and will take about $300 to get them back in shape. Near the switchboard at G. W. Smith's, the lines blocked the mail carrier for several days. With several hands it will take a good while to get lines in 315 N. Main Street, operation.

There is a good deal sickness through this section at present.

Mrs. G. W. Smith is very sick at this writing.

It looks as if the tobacco crop will be a failure as there is but little plant land fixed.
