

WAREHOUSE LIST IS MADE PUBLIC

Seventy Have So Far Been Purchased Or Leased By Farmers.

Raleigh, May 4.—The tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association today announced a list of seventy warehouses which they have leased or bought. The announcement was made following several days' conference between the warehouse owners or lessors and T. C. Watkins, warehouse director for this association.

Of the seventy warehouses contracted for by the association, thirty-one carry the contract to purchase the property, 29 will be leased, and the remaining 21 are without decision as to lease or sale, according to the list furnished the newspapers.

The list of warehouses announced as having been bought or leased, or for which negotiations have been closed, are as follows:

A Word To the Voters.

To the Republican Voters: There are several candidates for Sheriff and they are all good men, but you are to select just one. The primary is not far off and you must soon make up your mind. You can make no better decision than to say you are for Charlie Pyrtle. He is making friends everywhere he goes and he will make us a good Sheriff.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

Speech Of Hon.

Robert W. Bingham

The Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association has printed 70,000 copies of the speech of Robt. W. Bingham, the North Carolinian who has led the Kentucky Burley Growers Association to success and recently addressed enthusiastic audiences of business men and farmers in Raleigh and Goldsboro, N. C.

Judge Bingham's speech will be mailed this week to every member of the Association from the Northern limit of the tobacco area in Virginia to the Georgia line in the Tri-State Tobacco Growers, the official organ of the 70,000 organized tobacco farmers.

Any growers who may feel baffled by the smoke screen of misleading statements thrown out by the speculative interest need only to read Judge Bingham's speech to learn of the complete success of the Kentucky burley growers in marketing their tobacco by cooperative sale.

Judge Bingham tells why Kentucky growers in the Association could sell 30,000,000 pounds of their tobacco at one time for a higher price than the average of the open market. He also told why he loaned the organized Kentucky growers a million dollars and willingly offered the Carolian-Virginia Association an advance of $300,000. Describing the tobacco of such cooperative association as that upon which Kentucky banks made a 90-day loan of $4,600,000, as "The safest collateral that the banks have ever had an opportunity to lend money on," he told how the organized Kentucky growers repaid every cent of this money in 40 days.

President James C. Stone, of the Kentucky Burley Growers, also tells in the April issue of the Tri-State Tobacco Grower how the organized farmers of the Kentucky pool have cut the cost of handling their tobacco to 40 cents for each 100 pounds as against the present charges of 80 cents for selling it at auction.

Stating that many growers received more for their first advances in this year's crop than they received from their entire crop last year, the leader of the Kentucky pool said that the average price paid to the organized growers for their tobacco would be close to 25 cents a pound as compared to a lower for the unorganized grower. Other material of interest reaching the growers of three states this week will be messages from Mr. Oliver J. Sands, general manager of the Association, and Mr. B. R. Patterson, general manager of the leaf department.
