A PLAYHOUSE.

Many persons will be interested to learn that a theatre will probably be established at the county seat of Stokes at an early date. The plans, though modest at the outset, as they should be, are comprehensive. The building is intended to seat comfortably 210 people. The equipment will be modern, and the appointments, though not luxurious, will be comfortable. The latest type of projecting machine will be installed, and the power and light will be furnished by an electric plant. At least one night in the week a high class picture will be shown. As patronage grows, the service will be extended. The promoters figure that the investment will afford reasonable financial returns from the beginning.

The moving picture show is one of America's greatest institutions. High grade films may be interesting, amusing, inspiring. They should be educational and uplifting. The idea that the picture show in the country won't pay, is no longer true. Rural folk enjoy entertainment as much as city dwellers, and they are entirely as willing and able to pay for it. Good roads make it possible now for country people to get together as easily and quickly almost as their town cousins.

The system of good roads which is steadily beginning to encircle the county seat of Stokes will make many things possible which hitherto have been considered impracticable. If the people of Danbury, Peter's Creek and other sections can reach Danbury in 20 or 30 minutes, spend an hour or so looking over the Pathe News, for instance—seeing President Harding deliver a speech three days before at Philadelphia—or look at a giant ocean steamship leaving the dock at New York city loaded with thousands for Europe—or gaze spellbound on a regiment of soldiers charging a mob at San Francisco—or comprehend many and vivid sights in the great world that only occurred yesterday, looking at the real life-size aspects of great things and people just as they happened, right off the reel only two or three days before—they are going to turn loose small pieces of coin for this privilege, and don't you forget it. At the same time enjoy an exciting or amusing serial or two.

The moving picture is one of the great inventions of the age, and one of the most useful, especially to rural districts where the people need more recreation and change to relieve the monotony of farm life. It is healthful, inspiring, uplifting and educational. Let the playhouse come on. It is needed. It will pay dividends. All work and no play, makes Jack a sullen dissatisfied boy; dull of intellect, and itching to leave home for the city. Monotony, drudgery, too much sameness create in father and mother and sister often a fever which leads to Moore, Amelia and Randolph, when a little entertainment on the side might keep them contented citizens with us.

Give us good roads, good schools, good churches, automobiles, moving pictures and the other advantages and improvements, amusements and entertainments of the city, and there will be no need of so much migration to town, and the movement back to the farm—which statesmen are working to create—will get under way.

Farm Land Loans May Be Had At Walnut Cove

Walnut Cove, N. C., Aug. 21.—Through the Atlantic Joint Stock Land Bank of Raleigh C. E. Davis, cashier of the local branch of the Bank of Stokes County, who has been designated to receive applications for loans, is in position to secure applications for farm loans on a 50 per cent valuation for long terms, ranging from 5 years to 33 years. Already several applications have been received and doubtless many parties will avail themselves of the opportunity of securing long time loans in this way. The bank is fortunate in forming a connection of this kind for the benefit of its many patrons.

Result of Races In Plays M. D. HAM HAS AN ACCIDENT

(Reported for the Reporter.)

In the suit case race the girls came out with flying colors, to the delight of the feminine element of the audience and the humiliation and deep chagrin of the masculine element.

In the Dodge Ball game Mr. Ausby Smith's side won with a score of about 18, 8 and 6.

In the Club Relay the boys were victorious and in the Bean Bag Race the girls again wore the laurel.

In the "Roman Soldiers" the English were victorious, taking over all the Romans but two.

Thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor for acting as judges, Mr. Joe Eads as captain of the town side of the relays, altho the town got a "licking."

C. L. Weathers, Director of the Summer School, delighted his audience with a talk on value of play. He spoke of how such an element develops community cooperation and team-work which is necessary to every walk of life. He spoke of how the people of Danbury cooperate on every other project and he proposed a problem: Is your boy and girl getting an equal advantage with the boy and girl in the most favored sections of the county or the State? If not, why not? If you will give him the advantage, how? The answer is the consolidated school which he thinks the people of Danbury are contemplating so that it will be ready for use when the roads are completed, which will be soon.

Robert Fry, Tom Rhodes and Horace Rothrock.

Mr. C. M. Hennis and family, of Sandy Ridge, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. R. S. Ward.

The road from Pine Hall to Dillard is being sand clayed. The work is progressing nicely.

D. H., Jr., the little son of D. H. Carter, has recovered from a severe attack of membranous crop, we are glad to learn.

M. D. HAM HAS AN ACCIDENT

Marriage of Miss Ressie Fowler and Mr. Banner Shelton—Boys Rob Watermelon Patch.

King Route 2, Aug. 21.—There was a surprise birthday dinner at Mr. Lude Venable's last Sunday. There were about 125 people present. The table was about 75 feet long. The birthday dinner was in honor of Mr. Venable.

Mr. M. D. Hamm had the misfortune of breaking his leg last Wednesday while doctoring on a sick mule for one of his neighbors, by the mule falling on him.

Mr. R. R. Smith has a fine water-melon patch this time. Last Sunday afternoon he ran upon two boys of this section in his patch with a melon cut open but they ran and left it. After he went to the house he saw the same boys go back and get them one a piece. We understand that they will be visitors at Danbury at the spring term of court.

Miss Ressie Fowler, daughter of Lucas Fowler, was married to Mr. Banner Shelton last Saturday.

The Amer. Agri. Chem. Co., Greensboro, N. C.

Gentlemen:-

I beg to state that I have closely followed the results of your Basic Lime Phosphate applied to land and in every case it has given perfect satisfaction. I am thoroughly convinced that it is greatly superior to 16 per cent. Acid Phosphate for grasses, clovers and small grains, and I shall not hesitate to advocate its use.
