DANBURY REPORTER

Volume L.

Danbury, N. C., Wednesday, Oct. 4, 1922

No. 2,635

CO-OP MARKET HAS FINE OPENING

Two Million Pounds Tobacco Is Delivered First Day-Deliveries From 34 Grades On 21 Markets Sold Opening Day.

Raleigh, Oct. 4.-With 50,000 members and a large majority of the tobacco in the old belt, the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association went into action Tuesday of this week, Oct. 3rd, on thirty-three markets of Virginia and Western North

The biggest deliveries, the biggest sales and the biggest success of any single day in its history attended the opening of the Tobacco Growers' Association at its 33 warehouses in the bright belt of Virginia and Western North Carolina on Thesday of this week, when two million pounds to the bell fund. brought cash advances to thousands of growers and all deliveries from 34 grades on 24 markets were sold to leading manufacturers during the first day of co-operative marketing in Virginia for highly satisfactory

The system of marketing which has won the admiration of the growers in North Carolina and Eastern North Carolina, is certain to meet with success in Virginia and the old belt of North Carolina, where the solid sign-up and loyalty of the association members has resulted in the formation of 750 local units to further the interests of the associa-

The markets which opened in Virginia this week were Danville, South Boston, Critz, Rocky Mount, Martinsville, Chatham, Gretna, Virgilina, Clover, Clarksville, Chase City, Law-Vista, Empporia, Alberta, McKinney,

In western North Carolina, co-operative marketing is in full swing at Greensboro, Elkin, Reidsville, Mad- used. ison, Mebane, Youngsville, Statesville, Stoneville, Walnut Cove, Mt. Airy, and Leaksville.

-Delightful Trip To Moore's Springs

Walnut Cove, Oct. 2 .- On Sunday, Oct. 24th, the following left Walnut Cove for a pleasant day at Moore's Springs: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Weisner and son Billy, Mrs. G W Stike-leather, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Linville, Mr. W. B. Vaughn, Miss Ruth Linville and Wesley Linville, Misses Susan Gentry, and Emma Lou Sloan. They were joined at Walkertown by Mr. Robah B. Kerner, of Kernersville, and at Rural Hall by Miss Margaret Gentry and Misses Kent Harmon and Grever Utt, of Mt. Airy. No accident occurred on the way and everyone reached the springs feeling their best. After washing the dust from faces and hands and drinking some of that fine water everyone seemed to be ready for dinner. A level place was selected and the see the chicken, sandwiches, pickle, north. cake, pie, etc., disappear one would think the mountain air had a good some kodak pictures came next and some of the nimble ones climbed the mountain while the feeble ones revery pleasant memories of the trip.

Mrs. Brickey Acquitted On Shooting Charge W. F. Carter in Mt. Airy.

Mrs. H. N. Brickey, who some time since shot and killed Sam Early, a negro, at Francisco, has been given a hearing before Justice James Shelton and released, the evidence showing that Mrs. Brickey acted in self de-

The man killed was an employee of Mr. Brickey, the contractor engaged in building the Danbury-Westfield highway. He had stolen some valuable articles from the tent of the contractor, who left the negro in charge of his wife while he went to search for the stolen goods. While Mr. Brickey was away the negro attempeted to strike Mrs. Brickey with

WESTFIELD HIGH SCHOOL OPENS

Fine Bell Placed On the School Building—Dogs Sell For More Money Than Cows-Barn of Tobacco Lost By Fire.

Westfield, Oct. 2.-The Westfield Graded school opened this morning with about 150 children present. Prof. A. W. Wolfe is principal with three enthusiasm manifested at the opening with appropriate speeches, songs, etc., with prayer by Dr. Thos Smith. One important item was the installation of one of the finest bells on any graded school building in Western North Carolina. The citizens of Westfield are indebted to Mrs. M. L. Armfield, of the First National Bank of Mt. Airy, for a contribution of $50 Mr. Purrus Jessup lost a barn of tobacco by fire last night. The tobacco crop is all cured and for a high class entertainment. No s going on the market in large quantities at satisfactory prices. The corn crop is fairly good, with ootatoes better than last year. The general health of this commun-ty is good at this time. There is a good supply of hogs for pork the coming winter.

Possums are plentiful and hound able to be out again. dogs are higher than cows in this Rev. J. L. Powers filled his regular

Fulton-Carter Wedding

Walnut Cove, Oct. 4.—Perfect in | J. Spot Taylor, of Danbury, was every detail was the marriage Wel- in town Monday. nesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Christ's Episcopal church in Walnut and Sunday in town. Cove when Miss Annie Corine Fulton, renceville, Keysville, Rice, Burkeville, Kenbridge, South Hill, Alta of Walnut Cove, was united in the ter, a prominent young lawyer of Mt. Petersburg, Blackstone, and Drakes Airy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F.

Carter, also of Mt. Airy. Rev. J. R. Mallet, of Wilmington, officiated and the ring ceremony was

The church was artistically decorated with ferns and brides roses, the color scheme of white and green which in the soft rays of the autumn sun, and the candles, made a most impressive scene.

Miss Elizabeth Fulton, sister of rendered several selections preceding as a recessional, Mendelsshon's wedding march.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the Junior Vested choir advanced up the aisle singing "O, Perfect Love." Just behind them was the bride, rest ing on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom, who entered from the vestry room, with Rev. Mallet.

Miss Fulton was attired in a tailored gown of midnight blue cloth, with hat and accessories to match. She bride's roses and lillies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carter left by automoviands spread out picnic fashion. To bile for Washington and other points

The bride is the eldest daughter of fulton, and is affect on the appetite. After dinner a graduate of the N. C. College for Women. handsome and useful gifts, consist- gest individual banker in this counmained below, but some pictures ting of cut glass, linen and silver, among the gifts being a chest of eilver from the groom's parents, and ting of cut glass, linen and silver, all returned home tired, but with silver from the groom's parents, and less wealth $100,000 a day, through a chest of linen from the bride's the busy season, is probably unemother, and a handsome check from her father. On their return the bride and groom will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: W. F. Carter, Sr., Frank Francisco School Jitney Carter, Cecil Carter, Archie Carter, C. W. Fulton, Joe Haynes, Dr. Hollingsworth, and Miss Lucy Reece, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. J. J. Adams, Mrs. Julia Hines, and Mrs. Everett Matthews, Howard Fulton, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. E. P. Pepper of Danbury.

Mr. C. C. Campbell, of Smith, was visitor here today. Mr. Campbell is suffering right severely from asthma recently.

Roy E. Leake installed a gasoline a chair when she shot him, killing filling station at his store here yes-

SOME HAPPENINGS AT WALNUT COVE

Co-operative Market Has Good Opening There-Chautauqua Coming this Week-Personal Items.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 3 .- The Farmers' Co-operative Marketing warehouse opened this morning with many loads of tobacco on the floor. The ssistant teachers. There was much house has been put in good condition and every convenience and courtesy possible will be shown the farmers who market their tobacco at his place. Miss Nell Hutcherson, who has for several days been ill, is able to resume her work in the school room. The Radcliff Chautauqua will be in Walnut Cove three days this week, beginning Wednesday. Two programs are given daily, in the afternoon and et night. It is a splendid company of people and the chautauqua stands tending one of these performances. W. L. Nelson, who holds a position with one of the Winston-Salem warehouses, spent Saturday here at his home with his family.

one will regret the time spent in at-

Mrs. T. J. Davis, who has been confined to her room with sickness, is appointment at the Missionary Baptist church here Sunday morning and evening.

C. E. Davis spent Monday in Greensboro on business.

S. C. Rierson, Jr., spent Saturday

R. S. Nunn spent Monday in Winston-Salem.

J. B. Woodruff spent Monday in Greensboro.-Dr. J. W. Slate was a visitor to Greensboro Monday .-- C. W. Floyd, of Roanoke, was in town Saturday .- M. O. Jones and wife Journal: spent a short while here Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jones.-Miss Estelle Rierson spent Sunday here with relatives .- Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Davis the color scheme of white and green and children, of Greensboro, visited being carried out in every detail, Mrs. T. J. Davis here Sunday.— Sheriff Wm. L. Woodruff, of Wilkes- children. boro, spent Sunday here with the He steals places in traffic and "cuts Woodruff family.-Edwin Carter, of in" regardless. Miss Elizabeth Fulton, sister of Mt. Airy, spent the week end here.—the bride, presided at the organ and Mrs. S. C. Rierson is spending a few days in Germanton with her sister, curve. the entrance of the bridal party, and Mrs. L. M. McKenzie.-Mrs. G. S. Hill is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Murphy.-John A. Burton spent the week end here with his

Ford Is Richest Man Says Wall Street Paper

Henry Ford is the richest man in the world, according to an article in the Wall Street Journal.

"Henry Ford has in the Ford Motor Company, the largest income wore grey furs and a corsage of and it capitalized, the largest for- Business Change tune in the world," said the news-

"Profits before taxes for 1922 will

She was the recipient of many $180,000,000 in cash, he is the lar-other lines of business. try, if not in the world.

"His income, adding to his boundqualed in history.

"If he continues to pile up cash at this rate he cannot long denounce Wall Street or the money powers of the world."

Delivered Monday

The Stokes Board of Education was in session here a short while on Monday, transacting only routine business.

A large Dodge jitney purchased by the school board some time since for the school at Francisco was delivered to the board Monday by Geo. H. Fulton, the Dodge dealer. The jitney will probably accomodate 25 or 30 school children at a time and is well arranged. The children from several school districts will be brought in to and carried home in the afternoon.

CO-OPS OPEN AT WALNUT COVE

About 60,000 Pounds Of Tobac- Chairman Of State Board Of Pictures Of Them Taken-No co Pooled the First Day-Farmers Appear Satisfied With Advances Received - Large Crowd In Attendance.

The Stokes county receiving station of the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Marketing Association was formally opened Tuesday at Walnut Cove under the supervision of John C. Hutcherson and assistants. A representa-tive of the Reporter who visited the station found quite a large number of farmers present with loads of tobacco. It was estimated that from 60,000 to 75,000 pounds of the weed had been pooled the first day, the farmers receiving advances of something like 33 1-3 per cent. of the present market valuation. A card was posted, showing a schedule of advance prices being paid, as follows:

Primings, 40 cents to $7.60. Smoking lugs, 4 cents to $8.40. Cutter leaf, 40 cents to $20.00. Wrappers, $20 to $28.

A large number of members of the association were present, all of whom expressed themselves as satisfied with the workings of the new system, while a number were enthusiastic.

Among the prominent members of the association who were present was noticed: Will R. Petree, R. J. Petree, F. E. Petree, E. A. Rothrock, W. W. Ferguson, several of the Tuttles, J. H. Speas, A. J. Fair, Geo. Newsom, Alex Rutledge, W. Y. Gordon, and many others.

Knocking the Mut Motorist

The following article was awarded first prize in a recent "Knockers" Contest," conducted by the Syracuse

I knock the mut motorist.

He leaves the curb without signal stops suddenly in traffic without

He uses his horn instead of his brakes in a street filled with playing

Overtakes and passes another car near the brow of a hill, or on a sharp

Stops his car on a curve in the road without getting out of the roadway. He hogs the road.

His lights are blinding, nor will he dim them-damn him.

He drives with a snoot full. He is a curse—an abominationan affliction to humanity.

I knock him. By A. M. Taylor, Assistant Ad-exceed $125,000,000; after taxes they Service Co. here has sold out to the hundred thousand pounds. Mr. Galting farmers behind in turning land will be $110,000,000, or about $100 a cares of the building formerly occupied by Motor Co. could be capitalized at Auto Service Co. Messrs. P. W. $2,000,000,000 and pay five per cent. Davis and Jacob Fulton, former own-"Ford condemns bankers, but with ers of the Auto Service Co. will enter

Jerry Baker Makes

Jerry Baker, a well known weather in attendance ever seen here. prophet of this section, is said to pre- | It is estimated that two thousand dict that it will not rain any more for citizens and farmers were here at Baker's prognostications this is only gratified the members, but en-Jerry will prove to be a false prophet.

W. J. Brown Makes Good Sale Tobacco

as follows: 164 pounds at 40, 46 at and hear him. the Francisco school each morning 30, 62 a 70, 136 at 52. Mr. Brown is a very fine tobacco grower.

BOOKS OPEN OCTOBER FIFTH

Elections Issues Letter To County Chairmen Of Election Boards.

Raleigh, Sept. 27.-Registration man of the Board of Elections.

Chairman Pearsall's letter modifies picture of them taken. torney generaal on Sept. 15, 1902, disposed of. held that "20 days for the closing of the registration books did not include the Sundays in that period."

there has been as many as twelve sessions of the gneral assembly and no change has been made in the language of the section so constructed by the general assembly. And since 1902 this construction of the law has een uniformly observed.

"In deference to the opinion of the attorney general and long continued and unbroken custom, I modify that part of my letter of Sept. 16th and advise that the registration books may be opened on Octo-ber 5, 1922."

DEMOCRATS TO

Executive Committee To Consider Important Campaign Large Attendance Desired.

Chairman R. B. Tuttle has called Saturday, October 7, at one o'clock,

Important matters are to be transacted, and all members of the committee, and all other Democrats in terested in success, are urgently invited to be present.

John Galloway's Crop Tobacco Goes To Co-Ops Pleasant church Sunday.

Greensboro, Sept. 30 .- The Clerk just signed an order directing the dis- urday. posal of the tobacco grown on the Everything is being put in readisell the entire amount of the tobacco vertising Manager, Franklin Auto-mobile Company, Syracuse, N. Y. Service amount of the total be the big to the Tri-State Tobacco Growers' held here. Co-operative Marketing Association. The King Tigers lost to Pinnacle fore his death to deliver all his tobacco to the association. While the Pinnacle diamond. At Walnut Cove amount of the tobacco grown on the estate of the deceased is unknown, Walnut Cove, Oct. 2 .- The Auto it is understood that it will be several

Market Opens At Pilot Mountain

Pilot Mountain, Oct. 3.-The cooperative market, which is managed by Nat H. Lewis, opened here today. Scary Prediction There was probably the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of farmers a period of six years, basing his pre-the opening, which was ushered in by diction on certain infallible signs music and the 30,000 pounds of to-To those who have confidence in Mr. bacco were sold at prices which not to sign up.

Hon. W. D. Siler To Speak Here Oct. 10th

Hon. W. D. Siler, of Pittsboro, will W. J. Brown, of Peters Creek town- in Danbury on Tuesday night, Octoship, was here yesterday on his way ber 10th, 1922. Mr. Siler is a promi-killed when officers are reported to home from the tobacco market at nent and well known speaker and have fired on an automobile supposed Winston-Salem, where he sold 40% the public, both ladies and gentle- to contain whiskey. The federal ofpounds for $187.38. The grades soid men are cordially invited to come out ficer in the case is said to have been

> R. B. TUTTLE. Chairman Dem. Ex. Com.

State Library SIXTY-SIX STILLS CUT HERE MONDAY

Satisfactory Bid Is Received And Stills Are Not Sold-Axe Was Used Freely.

At the meeting of the county comoks for the election to be held Nov. missioners here Monday an order was 7th, may be opened on October 5th. made for the cutting up of the stills Chairman of County Boards of Elec- stored in the county jail. There were tion were advised of this ruling to sixty-six of the stills and before day by P. M. Parsall, State Chair- being cut they were stacked up in a huge pile in front of the jail and a part of a letter sent to the county cut they were offered for sale as a chairmen on Sept. 16, in which it whole but no satisfactory bid was rewas stated that Oct. 7 was the date ceived. The stills were cut into so set for opening the registration many pieces that they were beyond books. In the letter sent out today repair and the county will have to Mr. Pearsall explained that the at- find a junk dealer before they can be

"Since that time Mr. Pearsall said Death At King; Personals and News

King, Oct. 2 Mack Caudle, of Johnson City, Tenn., spent the week end with his parents who reside here. Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gravitt, a son. Mr. E. P. Newsom has purchased from Mr. Birthel Bennett a nice residence lot on west Main street.

Mr. Walter Sprinkle, who for years held a position as traveling salesman for the Reynolds Tobacco Co., with headquarters at Macon, Ga., and who gave up his work on account of poor health, has regained his health and accepted a position with MEET AT CAPELLA the Boyles Company of this place.

Mr. T. S. Petree, cashier of the branch office of the Bank of Stokes County here, has resigned his position and accepted a position with the Matter Saturday, October 7 Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. at Winston-Salem. Mr. Petree has a host of friends here who are sorry to see him leave. He will be succeeded by Mr. the Democratic executive committee H. H. Leake, of Danbury, who comes of the county to meet at Capella next well recommended as an experienced bank man. Mr. Leake will remove his family here.

We are having a fine school here this season with over two hundred students enrolled.

Mr. James Culler spent Sunday with relatives in Mt. Airy. Mrs. Allison Reid died at her home near Tobaccoville Saturday. The interment was conducted from Mount was about 70 years. Attorney Reid Johnson, of Winsof the Guilford Superior court has ton-Salem, was here on business Sat-estate of the late John M. Galloway, ness for the big Stokes County Fair, this year. J. H. Moore, the adminis- which takes place Oct. 17, 18, 19, 20 trator is authorized by the order to and 21. It is predicted that this will be the biggest and best fair ever in a game of ball Saturday on the

Mr. Seth Boles of Hamlet spent Sunday with his parents near here. The continued dry weather is get-

Several from here attended the Mt. good fair and large crowds.

Mr. Coy D. Slate went to Danbury on business today. Mr. J. S. D. Pulliam made a business trip to Winston-Salem today.

Ordered To Shoot '# In Self-Defense Only

Asheville, Sept. 25 .- R. A. Kohloss, prohibition director for North Carolina, issuing a statement in Shelby, said he had instructed officers under him that if they could not capture a moonshiner except by shooting him, let him go.

"Capture him," said Mr. Kohloss' instructions, "if you can by all reasonable means, but do not shoot him unless he tries to do you harm. Shoot only in self-defense.

Director Kohloss made this stateaddress the voters in the court house ment in speaking of the recent case in which a woman was instantly lying on the ground, stunned, when deputy sheriffs are alleged to have fired on the car.