NOTICE OF LETTING OF BRIDGE CONTRACTS IN STOKES COUNTY.

On the first Monday in December, 1923 the Stokes County Highway Commission will receive bids until 12 o'clock, noon, for the construction of the following bridges. Bids will be received at their office in Danbury:

Three bridges in Big Creek township: Two small beam bridges on the Collinstown road and one truss bridge with beam approaches at Joyce's mill, over Dan river. For these bridges the county will furnish all the steel for the truss except the four end posts and the four shoes. The county will also provide all steel for the beam spans on the Collinstown road bridges.

For the following bridges the contractor will furnish all material: Beam bridge of three spans over Little Yadkin near King, beam bridge of one span over Little Snow Creek on the Priddy road, beam bridge of two spans over Snow Creek on Priddy road.

Bids must be made on each bridge separately. And bids should be made out for the bridges for wood floors and also for concrete floors. No bridge will be considered that is of less than ten ton capacity, with the stress of the steel at 16,000 pounds.

Certified check of five per cent of bid must accompany the bid. Check should be made in favor of S. P. Christian, Chairman of Highway Commission. Bond will be required of the successful bidder of $2,000 plus twenty-five per cent of the contract price of the work.

The Highway Commission reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

For further information apply to S. P. Christian, Westfield, N. C., or J. J. Taylor, Danbury, N. C.

NOTICE OF RE-SALE OF VERY VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of the will of Elkany Moran, deceased, and a decree of the Superior Court of Stokes county, rendered by A. J. Fagg, C. S. C., in the special proceedings entitled Austin Moran, executor of the estate of William Elkany Moran, deceased, vs. Fraud Moran, et al, appointing the undersigned to make sale of the hereinafter described lands, I, Austin Moran, executor of the estate of William Elkany Moran, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, on the premises, on—

SATURDAY, NOV. 24, 1923.

At the hour of 2 o'clock, P. M., the following described lands, to-wit: Two certain tracts or parcels of land in Quaker Gap township, Stokes county, North Carolina, lying and being on the waters of South Double creek, and adjoining the lands of P. R. Nelson, James Moran, J. W. Burwell, and others, being the two tracts of land that William Elkany Moran owned at the time of his death, and willed by him to his six children, and also being the two tracts of land conveyed by deed to William Elkany Moran by Z. T. Smith and wife. One tract containing 51 acres, the other tract containing 52 2-5 acres, making in all 103 2-5 acres. The said tracts adjoin each other. The deeds to the above described lands are recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Stokes county, N. C., in Book 52, page 322, and Book 41, page 89, respectively, to which reference is hereunto made for metes and bounds and for a fuller and more complete description of said lands.

There is situated upon the above described land one frame two-story dwelling house with nine rooms, one frame feed barn and four tobacco barns.

There is about fifty acres of the above described land in cultivation. The remainder of the land is in timber.

The land described above is adapted to the growth of tobacco, corn and wheat, and the said tracts of land are on the State highway leading from Winston-Salem, N. C. to Mount Airy, N. C., by the way of Gap postoffice.

Ten per cent of the purchase price of said lands to be paid by the purchaser on day of sale. Balance of purchase price to be paid when the sale is confirmed. Sale subject to the confirmation of the court.

This 12th day of Oct. 1923.
