NOTICE.

State of North Carolina, Stokes County. In the Superior Court. The Bank of Stokes County, Plaintiff.

Against Maggie Moore and her husband J. E. Moore, Defendants. NOTICE OF ISSUING OF A SUMMONS AND OF A WARRANT OF ATTACHMENT.

In the above entitled cause it appearing to the court upon affidavit filed that the defendants, Maggie Moore and her husband, J. E. Moore, are non-residents of North Carolina, and cannot be found therein, and that personal service of summons cannot be made upon them and that they are necessary parties to this action, or that if they are residents of the said State, they keep themselves concealed therein, to avoid the service of summons, and to defraud their creditors, and that the plaintiff has a good cause of action against them, to-wit: promissory notes the principal and interest of which amount to $634.17. The said defendants executed and delivered said notes to the said plaintiff in the years of 1923 and 1924. That the defendant, Maggie Moore, has property in the State of North Carolina, against which an attachment in this cause has been issued, on this the 29th day of June, 1925, which warrant of attachment is returnable into the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Stokes County, N. C., on the 30th day of July, 1925.

It is therefore ordered by court that publication of notice of the issuing of the summons and warrant of attachment be made for four successive weeks in the Danbury Reporter, a newspaper published in Stokes County, N. C., notifying the defendants, Maggie Moore and her husband, J. E. Moore, to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court in Danbury, N. C., on or by the 30th day of July, 1925, and answer or demur to the verified complaint now on file in said cause, and also notifying said defendants of the issuing of the warrant of attachment herein, which is returnable into the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Stokes County, N. C., on the 30th day of July, 1925. And let the defendants take notice that if they fail to appear and answer or demur to the complaint, on or by said 30th day of July, 1925, the relief prayed for in the complaint will be granted.

This 29th day of June, 1925. A. J. FAGG, Clerk Superior Court. J. W. Hall, atty. for plaintiff.
