

DANBURY REPORTER

Volume LI.

Danbury, N. C., Wednesday, Dec. 2, 1925

No. 2,799

DENTAL CLINIC BEGINS THIS WEEK

Teachers and Parents Urged To Co-operate With School Officials In Carrying Out Work.

Itinerary for first month of Dental Clinic for Stokes county schools, to be conducted by Dr. J. S. Moore, beginning December 1st:

Germantown School (Center)—Tuesday, December 1st, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Wednesday, December 2nd, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Thursday, December 3rd, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Palmira School (At Germantown)—Thursday, December 3rd, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m., Friday, December 4th, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Pine Log School (At Germantown)—Saturday, December 5th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

King School (Center)—Monday, December 7th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Men View (At King)—Monday, December 7th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Tuesday, December 8th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Mt. Olive (At King)—Tuesday, December 8th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Wednesday, Dec. 9th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Oak Grove (At King)—Wednesday, December 9th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Thursday, December 10th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Dry Springs (At King)—Thursday, Dec. 10th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Friday, December 11th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Creson (At King)—Friday, December 11th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Saturday, December 12th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

King School—Monday, December 14th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Canella (At King)—Monday, December 14th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

King School—Tuesday, December 15th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Haw Pond (At King)—Tuesday, December 15th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Pinnacle School (Center)—Wednesday, December 16th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Chestnut Grove (At Pinnacle)—Wednesday, December 16th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Pinnacle School—Thursday, December 17th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Kallam (At Pinnacle)—Thursday, December 17th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Volunteer (At Pinnacle)—Friday, December 18th, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Pinnacle School—Saturday, December 19th, 9 a. m. to 12 m., Monday, December 21st, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Flat Rock (At Pinnacle)—Monday, Dec. 21st, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Walnut Cove School (Center)—Tuesday, Dec. 22nd, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Tuttle or Isom (At Walnut Cove)—Tuesday, December 22nd, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Walnut Cove—Wednesday, December 23rd, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Rosebud (At Walnut Cove)—Wednesday, December 23rd, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Walnut Cove School—Monday, December 28th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Fulp (At Walnut Cove)—Monday, December 28th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Walnut Cove School—Tuesday, December 29th, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Oak Hill (At Walnut Cove)—Tuesday, December 29th, 1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Walnut Cove School—Wednesday, December 30th, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Thursday, December 31st, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Friday, January 1st, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., Saturday, January 2nd, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

Remainder of itinerary will be published or notices sent to schools, on or about January 1st, 1926.

I wish to request all teachers to co-operate with Dr. Moore in putting this piece of work across. The State is spending quite a sum of money for the welfare of the children in the county and I hope that all those eligible, that is, between the ages of six and thirteen, will take advantage of the opportunity in having their teeth examined, cleaned and looked after properly by Dr. Moore.

Dr. Moore comes to the county highly recommended by the State. I am sure his work will be satisfactory in every respect.

J. C. CARSON, Supt., Stokes County Schools.

KING CONTINUES TO GROW RAPIDLY

Two More Residences Going Up—Lots and Farms Changing Hands—One Home Lost By Fire.

King, Nov. 30.—Mr. Banner Shelton has purchased from Mr. Reed Jones a nice residence on East Main St.

Miss Annie I. Smith, of Boston, Mass., is spending several days with Mrs. B. J. Stone, who resides just South of town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. West spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Martinsville, Va.

J. Thomas Newsom lost his home by fire last Thursday afternoon. All of his household property and wearing apparel was destroyed. Mr. Newsom carried no insurance.

Reed Jones, of Mount Airy, has purchased from Banner Shelton a nice lot on East Main St., on which he will erect a new dwelling.

Material is being placed on the site preparatory to erecting a new home on West Main St. for B. F. Pulliam.

James Jones has purchased from J. E. Stone a forty-acre farm two miles South of town. Consideration three thousand dollars.

Peyton Hutchins, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. R. B. Stanley spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends in Raleigh.

Mrs. N. O. Tuttle and children, of Rocky Mount, are spending a few days with relatives here.

Mr. Theodore Newsom, of High Point, spent Sunday with his parents in Walnut Hills.

Mr. G. F. Stone has purchased from his brother, Mr. J. E. Stone, his farm just South of town. Consideration seven thousand dollars. Mr. Stone will move to King where he will be associated with the King Drug Co.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Baker, of High Point, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. E. A. Hauser went to Winston-Salem today to look after some business matters.

Messrs. W. Everett Hartman, Grant Gravitt, Paul Kiser and Hobson Preston left this morning for an extended trip to Florida.

Mr. J. S. Hix, of Greensboro, is a business visitor here today.

JUDGE MEEKINS WARNS OFFICERS

Tells Them They Must Stop Shooting At Supposed Liquor Law Violators—Quotes Law To Them.

Raleigh, Dec. 1.—Judge Isaac M. Meekins told federal officers that they must stop shooting at persons supposed to be prohibition violators.

The judge declared it a violation of the law to shoot at them when they flee and it is, he said, a dangerous thing to shoot into the air to frighten them. The judge cautioned the officers against assuming that violation of the prohibition act is a capital felony. It is against the law, he said, but it is not the worst crime.

He told the officers who had testified that they shot to stop Peyton Edwards in Halifax, that if a man is treated that way he has reason to think that he is being attacked and he can fight back. The judge was not right sure that a legal and moral defense could not be made.

Judge Meekins disapproves the practice of federal officers in persuading others to violate the law in order to make a case. He declared that when he is convinced of such methods used in getting evidence he will discharge the defendant. Mrs. Fannie Brem, a widow with nine children, testified that one Ben Faulkner, who has been getting up such evidence, pretended to be sick and going fishing. He asked her for a pint and she gave the fellow the liquor that her husband had before he died. Faulkner, from her testimony, must have needed the liquor. She said he drank nearly all of it.

White lies usually are yellow. Manilla Bulletin.

DANBURY-WALNUT COVE ROAD HAS THIRD HEAVIEST TRAFFIC

Only Winston-Salem-Rural Hall and Winston-Salem-Yadkinville Roads Have More Traffic Than the Stokes Road—Count Was Made On All Roads Of District November 16.

Traffic on all of the State highways in this district was counted by the patrolmen on November 16th, and according to information given out by the State highway office of this district the Danbury-Walnut Cove highway had more cars on it than any roads in the district except two, namely, the Winston-Salem-Rural Hall Road and the Winston-Salem-Yadkinville road.

Foreign cars observed November 16 were 365.

Observations by highways follow:

Highway 60—Winston-Salem to Greensboro, seven miles southeast of Winston-Salem, 786 vehicles; Winston-Salem to Yadkinville, six miles west of Winston-Salem, 1,853 vehicles; Yadkinville to Winston-Salem, four miles north of Mocksville, 531; Yadkinville to North Wilkesboro, 1 mile west of Yadkinville, 796; Wilkesboro to Winston-Salem, 15 miles east of Wilkesboro, 461; from North Wilkesboro to Dellaplane, 5 miles north of North Wilkesboro, 390; from Wilkesboro to Boone, 12 miles east of Boone, 143 vehicles.

Route No. 75—From Mocksville to Lexington, five miles east of Lexington, 26; from Mocksville to Statesville, five miles west of Mocksville, 372.

Route No. 80—From Mocksville to Salisbury, five miles south of Mocksville, 829; Yadkinville to Mocksville, three miles south of Yadkinville, 212; Yadkinville to Mt. Airy, one mile north of Yadkinville, 614; Dobson to Crutchfield, 4 miles south of Dobson, 135; Mount Airy to Dobson, six miles southwest of Mt. Airy, 254.

Route No. 66—Winston-Salem to Mt. Airy, seven miles west of Winston-Salem, 1,131; Winston-Salem to Mt. Airy, one mile north of King, 869; Mt. Airy to Pilot Mountain, 1 mile north of Pilot Mountain, 447.

Route 89—Westfield to Mt. Airy, six miles east of Mt. Airy, 668; Westfield to Danbury, four miles east of Westfield, 429; Mt. Airy to Danbury, nine miles east of Westfield, 140; Walnut Cove to Danbury, two miles north of Walnut Cove, 928.

Route 26—Elkin to Statesville, seven miles south of Jonesville, 379; Elkin to Doughton, seven miles north of Elkin, 421; Doughton to Sparta, 10 miles south of Sparta, 166; Sparta to Jefferson, four miles east of Sparta, 137; Jefferson to Scottsville, eight miles east of Jefferson, 171.

Route 67—Sparta to Laurel Springs, three miles south of Sparta, three miles east of Laurel Springs, 24; Laurel Springs to North Wilkesboro, two miles south of Laurel Springs, 54; Wilkesboro to Laurel Springs, 15 miles north of North Wilkesboro, 62; Wilkesboro to Taylorsville, at Moravian Falls, 364.

Route 18—Moravian Falls to Lenoir, six miles west of Moravian Falls, 123; Lenoir to Wilkesboro, six miles east of Lenoir, 99; Morganton to Lenoir, four miles south of Lenoir, 457.

Route 17—Lenoir to Hickory, one mile east of Granite Falls, 836; Lenoir to Blowing Rock, five miles north of Lenoir, 391; Lenoir to Blowing Rock, 16 miles north of Lenoir, 119; Boone to Blowing Rock, four miles east of Boone, 194.

Route 69—Boone to Valle Crucis, 10 miles west of Boone, 161; Todd to Boone, four miles North of Boone, 46; Jefferson to Boone, three miles northwest of Boone, 49; North Wilkesboro to Jefferson, 16 miles north of Wilkesboro, 102.

Route 68—Grasscy Creek to Jefferson, four miles north of Jefferson, 107; Crumpler to Grasscy Creek, four miles north of Crumpler, 40; North Wilkesboro to Jefferson, two miles east of Jefferson, 198.

Dr. S. F. Tillotson Goes To Stokesdale

Dr. S. F. Tillotson, of the King section, has removed to Stokesdale for the practice of his profession.

80 MILES ROAD LET DEC. 8

Stokes Is Scheduled To Get 12 Miles At This Letting By State Highway Commission—Its Location Not Given.

Edolph, Nov. 28.—Two million dollars worth of highway contracts scheduled for letting December 8 will bring the state's total investment in new highway construction begun during 1925 to approximately $20,000,000, setting a notable pace for the first twelve months of an administration that is majoring in both economy and progress. Figures obtained from the state highway commission today list the mileage involved in the investment at 650, of which 425 is hard-surface construction, and the December 8 letting will add 80 miles, sixty of them asphalt or concrete.

The commission's figures on the cost of the year's new projects presents a record that stacks up with the big construction periods inaugurated with the first $50,000,000 highway bond issue. Actual mileage completed in 1925, officials estimated, may run above 1,000 miles and exceed any twelve month period. Actual figures on completed mileage, or the cost, are not yet available, pending the annual check-up at the end of the period.

Adequate finances for the continuance of the present rate of construction through many more months have been assured through highway issues of the legislature, county loans and federal aids. Highway Chairman Frank Page reported to Governor McLean some months ago that road building the first two years of the McLean administration would exceed construction figures for any other like period. The governor is enthusiastically behind the program, and it will receive further boosting during his tenure of office. The projects to be let to contract December 8 are located in nine counties. Cumberland will get twelve miles; Wake, seven miles; Davidson, twelve; Rockingham, seven; Richmond, nine; Alexander, nine; Stokes, twelve; Jackson, twelve and Swain six.

TRAFFIC TOLL IN STATE LAST WEEK

Had More Than Any State In The South; Florida Close Second With 7.

Atlanta, Nov. 30.—A slight decrease in the number of deaths and a small increase in the number of injuries from traffic accidents in the south from the week previous are shown in a survey made for the past week by the Associated Press today.

There were 33 deaths in the past week compared with 36 for the week before and 232 injuries as compared with 179 the prior week.

The reports came from 11 states. North Carolina took the lead in the number of deaths with eight. Florida following a close second with seven. Georgia was an easy winner in the injured column with 56, Florida being her nearest competitor with 36 injuries.

Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana reported no deaths while Virginia, reporting three deaths, claimed immunity from the injury column.

A tabulation by states follows:

State	Deaths	Injuries
North Carolina	8	28
Virginia	3	0
South Carolina	2	5
Georgia	3	56
Florida	7	36
Alabama	0	12
Mississippi	0	20
Louisiana	0	20
Arkansas	2	30
Tennessee	3	20
Kentucky	5	5

If security comes, can disarmament be far behind?—Providence Journal.

BIG DAY AT DILLARD

Jr. O. L. A. M. Of Pine Hall and Dillard Hold Picnic and Present Dillard School With Bible and Flag.

Dillard, Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving day the Jr. O. L. A. M. from Pine Hall and Dillard, with quite a number of friends met at the Dillard school building for a picnic and to present to the school a bible and flag.

The house was called to order by N. P. Bryant, principal of the school, who called Rev. Tom Glenn to offer a prayer after which he turned the meeting over to Mr. J. H. Carter, of Pine Hall, who in turn introduced Rev. Bud Joyce, who explained the principles of the Junior Order in a very impressive way and after the song, "Star Spangled Banner," presented the flag and bible, which was accepted by the principal N. P. Bryant, after which Attorney J. A. Joyce, of Reidsville, delivered a very fine address on the principles of the Junior Order and universal education. After the flag was raised every body was invited to place their dinner on the table, prepared for that purpose, after the table was filled with Stokes county's good entrees the remainder was placed under the table. There were sixty cakes on the table, several chickens, pork, beef, opponium and everything good to eat was there.

After dinner the Dillard boys played the Sandy Ridge school boys a game of Basket Ball, which resulted in a score of six to four in favor of the local team.

The Dillard girls then played with a score of six to one in favor of the Dillard school girls.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and the dinner also the games though the wind was a little cold.

After dinner the Dillard boys played the Sandy Ridge school boys a game of Basket Ball, which resulted in a score of six to four in favor of the local team.

The Dillard girls then played with a score of six to one in favor of the Dillard school girls.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and the dinner also the games though the wind was a little cold.

Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and the dinner also the games though the wind was a little cold.

FEDERAL COURT HAS BIG JOB

Term Begins Dec. 7th At Greensboro With Nearly Five Hundred Cases On Docket.

Twenty-two cases were entered yesterday on the docket for a term of federal district court here, added to the 474 cases already on the docket. The term of court will start here December 7, which is the first Monday in the month.

It does not seem possible that all these cases can be tried at the term, the first week of which has been scheduled for trial of cases in which charges are made of violation of the national prohibition law, violation of the anti-narcotic law and other infractions. However, Judge E. Yates Webb the past week in Wilkesboro disposed of about 200 cases in three days, getting through in time to adjourn court for the observance of Thanksgiving. A large number of the cases at the Wilkesboro term of court were for violation of the prohibition law.

It is probable that some others will be added to the docket before the term of court is started. The total now is 496 and the 500 mark will probably be exceeded this week.

While Judge Webb will preside over the first week of court, Judge H. H. Watkins, of the western South Carolina federal district, will come here to preside over the second week, when the Salisbury banking cases are slated for trial. In those cases J. D. Norwood, J. K. Doughton and M. L. Jackson are charged with violation of the national banking laws, the result of the failure of the People's National bank, of Salisbury, in June, 1923.

The term of court scheduled here has no time set for its adjournment and it appears that it may run close to Christmas day, if not up to that day.—Greensboro Daily News.

Still Captured In Smithtown Section

Prohibition Officer P. L. Flineham yesterday captured a copper still of about 50 gallons capacity in the Smithtown section. A quantity of beer was also destroyed. The still was not in operation when found and no arrests were made.

JUDGE STACK WEDS WINSTON LADY

Romance of Years Ago Culminated in Wedding of Jurist And Mrs. M. B. Brittain—Were Childhood Lovers.

Winston-Salem, Nov. 28.—A marriage of much interest to their friends occurred here today when Judge A. M. Stack, of Morgantown, one of the Superior court judges of North Carolina, and Mrs. M. B. Brittain, a charming resident of this city, surprised their friends by being united in marriage.

The wedding was a quiet one, solemnized at 10:30 this morning at Centenary parsonage, Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of the bride and a former pastor of the groom, officiating.

The wedding possesses an element of romantic interest. When Judge Stack was a young man practicing law in Danbury he met and became engaged to Miss Mary Belle Craven, then a girl of 16. They were perfectly devoted to each other and indulged in the usual dreams of future happiness. Miss Craven's father was a Methodist preacher and in the course of time the conference moved him elsewhere. The daughter was too young to marry and went away to school. For a long while there was a correspondence that breathed the most ardent affection. But, mutually, the letters came less frequently and finally ceased. Time and separation had shattered love's young dream. Each passed out of the life of the other. Each married another and lived happily. But life's sunshine was succeeded by shadows. Death entered their homes and removed their companions. Then came the sorrowful days and lonely years. The former lovers never saw each other again from the day that they parted as sweethearts until the early fall of this year when Judge Stack held court in Winston-Salem. Then it was that chance had a part in their lives. At the noon recess one day he stepped in the store of D. G. Craven and there the couple met again for the first time in years. Their casual meeting brought tender recollections of other days. There was a call that evening and the intervening years were talked over. Another and another call followed. In passing through Winston-Salem, going to his courts in nearby counties, other calls were made. Having loved once, it was easy for them to fall in love again. Their second love was stronger than their first. Today's marriage was the culmination of a beautiful romance. The happy couple left for eastern Carolina to spend their honeymoon. On Monday morning Judge Stack will open court in Greenville. Governor McLean having assigned him to hold a special term of two weeks in Pitt.

The wedding was a quiet one, solemnized at 10:30 this morning at Centenary parsonage, Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of the bride and a former pastor of the groom, officiating.

The wedding possesses an element of romantic interest. When Judge Stack was a young man practicing law in Danbury he met and became engaged to Miss Mary Belle Craven, then a girl of 16. They were perfectly devoted to each other and indulged in the usual dreams of future happiness. Miss Craven's father was a Methodist preacher and in the course of time the conference moved him elsewhere. The daughter was too young to marry and went away to school. For a long while there was a correspondence that breathed the most ardent affection. But, mutually, the letters came less frequently and finally ceased. Time and separation had shattered love's young dream. Each passed out of the life of the other. Each married another and lived happily. But life's sunshine was succeeded by shadows. Death entered their homes and removed their companions. Then came the sorrowful days and lonely years. The former lovers never saw each other again from the day that they parted as sweethearts until the early fall of this year when Judge Stack held court in Winston-Salem. Then it was that chance had a part in their lives. At the noon recess one day he stepped in the store of D. G. Craven and there the couple met again for the first time in years. Their casual meeting brought tender recollections of other days. There was a call that evening and the intervening years were talked over. Another and another call followed. In passing through Winston-Salem, going to his courts in nearby counties, other calls were made. Having loved once, it was easy for them to fall in love again. Their second love was stronger than their first. Today's marriage was the culmination of a beautiful romance. The happy couple left for eastern Carolina to spend their honeymoon. On Monday morning Judge Stack will open court in Greenville. Governor McLean having assigned him to hold a special term of two weeks in Pitt.

The wedding was a quiet one, solemnized at 10:30 this morning at Centenary parsonage, Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of the bride and a former pastor of the groom, officiating.

The wedding possesses an element of romantic interest. When Judge Stack was a young man practicing law in Danbury he met and became engaged to Miss Mary Belle Craven, then a girl of 16. They were perfectly devoted to each other and indulged in the usual dreams of future happiness. Miss Craven's father was a Methodist preacher and in the course of time the conference moved him elsewhere. The daughter was too young to marry and went away to school. For a long while there was a correspondence that breathed the most ardent affection. But, mutually, the letters came less frequently and finally ceased. Time and separation had shattered love's young dream. Each passed out of the life of the other. Each married another and lived happily. But life's sunshine was succeeded by shadows. Death entered their homes and removed their companions. Then came the sorrowful days and lonely years. The former lovers never saw each other again from the day that they parted as sweethearts until the early fall of this year when Judge Stack held court in Winston-Salem. Then it was that chance had a part in their lives. At the noon recess one day he stepped in the store of D. G. Craven and there the couple met again for the first time in years. Their casual meeting brought tender recollections of other days. There was a call that evening and the intervening years were talked over. Another and another call followed. In passing through Winston-Salem, going to his courts in nearby counties, other calls were made. Having loved once, it was easy for them to fall in love again. Their second love was stronger than their first. Today's marriage was the culmination of a beautiful romance. The happy couple left for eastern Carolina to spend their honeymoon. On Monday morning Judge Stack will open court in Greenville. Governor McLean having assigned him to hold a special term of two weeks in Pitt.

The wedding was a quiet one, solemnized at 10:30 this morning at Centenary parsonage, Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of the bride and a former pastor of the groom, officiating.

The wedding possesses an element of romantic interest. When Judge Stack was a young man practicing law in Danbury he met and became engaged to Miss Mary Belle Craven, then a girl of 16. They were perfectly devoted to each other and indulged in the usual dreams of future happiness. Miss Craven's father was a Methodist preacher and in the course of time the conference moved him elsewhere. The daughter was too young to marry and went away to school. For a long while there was a correspondence that breathed the most ardent affection. But, mutually, the letters came less frequently and finally ceased. Time and separation had shattered love's young dream. Each passed out of the life of the other. Each married another and lived happily. But life's sunshine was succeeded by shadows. Death entered their homes and removed their companions. Then came the sorrowful days and lonely years. The former lovers never saw each other again from the day that they parted as sweethearts until the early fall of this year when Judge Stack held court in Winston-Salem. Then it was that chance had a part in their lives. At the noon recess one day he stepped in the store of D. G. Craven and there the couple met again for the first time in years. Their casual meeting brought tender recollections of other days. There was a call that evening and the intervening years were talked over. Another and another call followed. In passing through Winston-Salem, going to his courts in nearby counties, other calls were made. Having loved once, it was easy for them to fall in love again. Their second love was stronger than their first. Today's marriage was the culmination of a beautiful romance. The happy couple left for eastern Carolina to spend their honeymoon. On Monday morning Judge Stack will open court in Greenville. Governor McLean having assigned him to hold a special term of two weeks in Pitt.

The wedding was a quiet one, solemnized at 10:30 this morning at Centenary parsonage, Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of the bride and a former pastor of the groom, officiating.

The wedding possesses an element of romantic interest. When Judge Stack was a young man practicing law in Danbury he met and became engaged to Miss Mary Belle Craven, then a girl of 16. They were perfectly devoted to each other and indulged in the usual dreams of future happiness. Miss Craven's father was a Methodist preacher and in the course of time the conference moved him elsewhere. The daughter was too young to marry and went away to school. For a long while there was a correspondence that breathed the most ardent affection. But, mutually, the letters came less frequently and finally ceased. Time and separation had shattered love's young dream. Each passed out of the life of the other. Each married another and lived happily. But life's sunshine was succeeded by shadows. Death entered their homes and removed their companions. Then came the sorrowful days and lonely years. The former lovers never saw each other again from the day that they parted as sweethearts until the early fall of this year when Judge Stack held court in Winston-Salem. Then it was that chance had a part in their lives. At the noon recess one day he stepped in the store of D. G. Craven and there the couple met again for the first time in years. Their casual meeting brought tender recollections of other days. There was a call that evening and the intervening years were talked over. Another and another call followed. In passing through Winston-Salem, going to his courts in nearby counties, other calls were made. Having loved once, it was easy for them to fall in love again. Their second love was stronger than their first. Today's marriage was the culmination of a beautiful romance. The happy couple left for eastern Carolina to spend their honeymoon. On Monday morning Judge Stack will open court in Greenville. Governor McLean having assigned him to hold a special term of two weeks in Pitt.

PREACHING APPOINTMENTS

For Danbury Circuit M. E. Church.

Pastor J. E. Hipp, of the Danbury circuit M. E. church, has arranged the following appointments for the several churches on his charge.

First Sunday—Bethesda, 11 a. m., Pine Hall, 3 p. m.

Second Sunday—Davis Chapel, 11 a. m., Wade Mecum, 3 p. m., Danbury, 7:30 p. m.

Third Sunday—Pine Hall, 11 a. m., Forest Chapel, 3 p. m., Bethesda, 1:30 p. m.

Fourth Sunday—Danbury, 11 a. m., Davis Chapel, 7:30 p. m.

Stokes Farmers Report Loss Of Tobacco

Farmers in every section of the county report that tobacco has been stolen from their barns and pack houses within the past few days. At Westfield last week Walter Jackson lost three or four hundred pounds, while two or three of his neighbors also had tobacco stolen from their barns. One farmer reported the loss of considerable corn from his field. None of the guilty parties have been apprehended so far.

A conservative politician is one in office.—Columbia Record.