KING TO HAVE NEW BAPTIST CHURCH

Two New Residences Started—W. F. Grabs Loses Apple House By Fire—Fiddlers' Convention Saturday Night.

King, April 11.—W. F. Grabs, a veteran fruit grower of this place, had the misfortune to lose his apple house by fire last Tuesday. Practically all of Mr. Grabs' wearing apparel was burned. The origin of the fire is not known but it is believed to have caught from a defective flue.

Material is being placed on the site preparatory to erecting a new home for Alva Turner in Walnut Hills.

Work has been commenced on a new Baptist church on west main street. This is the second Baptist church for King and will be known as the King Baptist Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Stone, of High Point, are spending a few days with relatives and friends here.

Work has been commenced on a new home for W. S. Holder on north Depot Street.

Peyton Hutchins, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with his parents on east Main street.

Work on the new ten thousand and dollar Stone building at the corner of Depot and Main streets is well underway and will be pushed through to completion at an early date.

Rev. Paul H. Newsum, of this place, filled his regular appointment at Indian Grove near Mount Airy Sunday.

W. T. Newsum, of this place, is serving on the jury at Stokes court this week.

B. L. Manning, of Winston-Salem, was here Monday attending to some business matters.

A force of carpenters went to work this morning on a new addition to E. P. Newsum's dwelling on west Main street.

Dr. R. S. Helsabeck and Dr. G. E. Stone are attending court at Danbury this week.

An old time fiddlers' convention will be held here next Saturday night.

Mrs. B. J. Stone is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Schaub, at High Point.

Sam Riggs was arrested in the Campbell section yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Henry Dunlap.

Riggs is alleged to have been interested in a still that was captured near his place early this week. He gave bond for his appearance at a hearing before Justice N. A. Martin to be held here Saturday.

Meeting of Ladies Missionary Society

The Womans Union Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. H. M. Joyce Wednesday afternoon at two thirty o'clock with the president, Mrs. J. S. Taylor, presiding. The meeting was opened with the song, "Jesus Shall Reign." Mrs. J. Frank Martin read for the scripture lesson, the fifth chapter of Ephesians. "Present Day Missionaries" was the topic for the afternoon. Mrs. W. J. Hackney read a splendid paper on "Why We Should Appreciate the Missionaries."

Bible verses on the subject of Mission work were given by each member. Mrs. H. M. Joyce spoke interestingly of several Presbyterian Missionaries who are personal friends of hers and who are on the Mission field in China. Mrs. J. S. Taylor told of the Mission work of the Friends, especially a Mission post in Africa, which is self-supporting. Mrs. M. O. Jones read an article on Moravian Missions in Alaska.

A paper on the Episcopal Missions in the mountain regions of Western Carolina, and Tennessee, was prepared by Mrs. R. H. Morefield and read in her absence by Mrs. N. E. Pepper. The program was concluded with a vocal solo by Mrs. N. E. Pepper. A social half hour followed during which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. N. E. Pepper, served refreshments.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. O. Jones. Mrs. N. E. Pepper and Mrs. John Taylor were appointed to arrange the program.

Walnut Cove Ice Plant In Operation

Walnut Cove, April 13.—The new ice plant is in operation now and deliveries are being made each day. D. T. Ramsey, proprietor of the new enterprise, has met the great need of the town.

E. O. Creakman has opened up a new filling station just across Dan river, on the hard-surface road to Madison. He is also preparing to open up picnic grounds and a bathing pool.

Congratulations From Mr. Gawthrop

Greensboro, April 12. Danbury Reporter, Danbury, N. C. Gentlemen:

Very heartily we congratulate you on the fifty-fifth anniversary of your newspaper. It is an unusual experience in modern business life that any enterprise continues uninterrupted for that length of time. That you have served your community with increasing usefulness for fifty-five years is a high tribute to the integrity and the earnestness of purpose of the management.

We hope that the newspaper will long continue its useful service to the community which it now serves. More than that, we hope that your zone of influence will continually widen.

Yours very truly,
J. A. GAWTHROP, Sec'y.
Greensboro Chamber Com.

Contractor Martin Breaks Record

On Wednesday of the past week Contractor Martin's forces who are paving the Danbury-Walnut Cove road, poured eight hundred lineal feet of concrete in one day. Six hundred feet is considered a fine day's work. A mile or more of the road has been finished from Meadows toward Walnut Cove.

Francisco Needs Another Mail Route

R. R. Collins, who was here a few days since from the Peters Creek community, told The Reporter of a movement that is on foot to secure another rural mail route from Francisco to the Peters Creek section. This service is badly needed as it requires several days to get a letter to or from the community in which Mr. Collins resides.

PINNACLE A "Coming" City.
