

HAPPENINGS AT WALNUT COVE

(Continued from page 1.)
the school there.

Misses Eula and Violet Tuttle returned to Greensboro Sunday evening where they are teaching. Miss Myrtle Tuttle returned to Germantown Sunday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Germantown school. Miss Helen Tuttle returned to North Carolina College, Greensboro, Tuesday where she is a student.

Mrs. Smith Robinson, of Columbia, S. C., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. W. Davis, the first of the week. Mrs. Davis entertained at three tables of bridge in honor of Mrs. Robinson on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Laura Davis visited relatives in Winston-Salem last week.

Mrs. John Floyd and children, of Madison, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Creakman.

Miss Clara Woodruff and Mrs. Burnett are spending the week in Asheville.

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Moore, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. George Fulton and Mrs. Paul Davis were in the Twin City yesterday a short while.

Miss Annie Rierson is confined to her home this week with illness.

John Woodruff is a patient at a Winston-Salem hospital where he will have one or more minor operations.

Rev. A. H. Marshall, of Mt. Airy, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Walnut Cove, Jan. 3.—We all enjoyed being at Miss Margaret Marshall's and Miss Freida Voit's party last week. The whole school attended. Hassel Taylor won the "Booby" prize at Margaret's party.

Miss Sudia Manuel has returned home after a visit to her grand-mother at Kernerville.

Miss Hazel Creakman entertained a number of her friends at a bridge party Saturday afternoon. Miss Sudia Manuel won a beautiful luncheon set for highest score.

Miss Emma Neal went to Greensboro this week on a shopping tour.

Paul Davis, Jr., is now going to school at Walnut Cove.

H. A. Lindler has returned to Walnut Cove after spending the holidays at his home in Chapin, S. C.

"Happy" Voss has returned to his home on Walnut Cove Route 1, after being gone for about two years. He has been in High Point working quite a while. He also enjoyed a nice trip to Florida the past summer.

Carl Newsum, of Winston-Salem, was in town Monday.

Miss Mary Lewis, of Winston-Salem, is spending a few days with Mozelle Boyles.

Miss Kate Frye entertained a few friends at her home Friday night. Refreshments were served.

Miss Mozelle Boyles spent the week end in High Point.

Walnut Cove, Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Voit and little daughters and little Miss Mildred Brodie spent Thursday in Winston-Salem with Mr. and E. M. Myers and family.

Misses Carrie Williams and Rebecca Bowles and Peter Redman spent Sunday in Winston-Salem visiting Miss Williams' aunt, Mrs. D. C. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooks and little daughter, of Roanoke, Va., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooks.

Miss Mary Zimmerman spent the week end in Danbury visiting Miss Nancy Lee Dunlap.

"WE"

By Colonel Charles A.

LINDBERGH

The greatest story of one-man adventure ever written! This manuscript "WE" was painstakingly written in the Lone Eagle's own "longhand." Every word of it is precious not only because it goes into the telling of a great story, but because it reveals accurately the spirit of Charles A. Lindbergh.

This manuscript—Lindbergh's own story—is to be printed in The Charlotte Observer unaltered and unadorned. It is the real story of "WE," by the articulate member of that famous partnership.

"WE" is a story that will live forever. No living American will want to forego reading this epic tale to be published for the first time in any newspaper.

BEGINS JANUARY EIGHTH

In the Foremost Newspaper of the Two Carolinas

The Charlotte Observer

Little Miss Louise Myers, of Winston-Salem, spent several days with little Miss Phyllis Voit.

Misses Unice Isom and Blanche Boyles, of Guilford hospital at High Point, spent the holidays with their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Myers and Mr. Hubert Myers, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday in the home of I. S. Voit.

John McCollough, of Natural Bridge, Va., is visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. E. S. Zimmerman is rapidly improving after being confined to her bed for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Tuttle and children, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here with friends.

The weekly prayer meeting was held at the home of I. S. Voit Tuesday night with 22 present. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Reid Joyce next Tuesday night, with Evelyn Mitchell and Nell Joyce as leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore entertained a number of young folks at their home Saturday night. Enjoyable games were played throughout the evening and near mid-night refreshments were served. Just before 12 o'clock the party went to the church, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Moore where they sang and rang the bell until the old year was passed and the new year was here. Each and everyone reported a joyful time.

Walnut Cove, Dec. 31.—Misses Evelyn Mitchell and Nellie Joyce spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Ralph Blum, of Winston.

Miss Carrie Fowler and little "Mitch" Fowler spent Christmas holidays with Mr. and Fowler at Mt. Airy.

Mrs. H. E. Blackburn and Mrs. William Marshall spent Friday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Miss Grace Joyce is visiting relatives in Leaksville.

Miss Nelie Rierson spent Christmas holidays in Greensboro visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mitchell, of Winston-Salem, spent Monday with relatives here.

Misses Ethelyn and Katharine Brodie entertained quite a number of their friends at their home at a watch party on New Year's night. After a number of games were enjoyed the hostess, assisted by Misses Ruth Mitchell and Mabel Flinn, served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blum, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitchell.

Germantown Couple Married Sunday

Germantown Route 1, Jan. 3.—Miss Macie Slate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Slate, and Mr. Unie Kiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kiser, were quietly married near here Sunday afternoon by Justice of the Peace J. W. Fowler. Both of these young people are from prominent families of this section and have many friends who will be interested to learn of their marriage.

Miss Hazel Rutledge entertained a number of her friends last Saturday night at a delightful party. Games were played after which different kinds of fruit was served.

Miss Ethel Boles, a student in Guilford College, spent the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Boles.

Joe Boles, of High Point, spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. T. J. Boles.

Misses Ethel, Iris and Beulah Boles entertained a number of their friends on last Thursday night.

Among those who visited at Mrs. T. J. Boles' Wednesday night were Misses Sallie Fowler, Iris and Beulah Boles, Hazel Rutledge and Messrs. Lamon White, Broadus Rutledge, Charlie Rutledge, Walter Fulp, Posey Slate and Raymond Fulp and others.

Those who visited Miss Nellie Lewis last Monday night were Misses Iris and Beulah Boles, Sallie Fowler, Mae and Cleone Boles, Macie Slate, Mammie Southern and Messrs. Thurman and Cecil Holland, Lamon White, Charlie Rutledge, Cubie Kiser, Roscoe Vaughn, Unie Kiser, Walter Fulp, Raymond Fulp.

HOME

"HOWBEIT, JESUS SUFFERED HIM NOT, BUT SAID UNTO HIM, GO HOME TO THY FRIENDS."—Mark-5-19.

EVERY PERSON, even a dog, has a home. To have a home was the first purpose of our Caveman ancestors. It is the strongest, inherent instinct of civilized humans. About the home centers the strongest emotions.

EVERY MAN CAN have a home if he consistently saves a part of even moderate earnings.

ANY BANK will help you build and own a home. ANY BANK will gladly give you details on how to build and own a home. All you need is the ability and willingness to work and save a part of your earnings.

HOME OWNERS ARE OUR BEST CITIZENS.

"—And desire shall fail! Because man goeth to his long home and the mourners go about the streets—Eccl-12-5.

The Bank of Stokes County

RESOURCES OVER $2,000,000.

"The Strongest Rural Bank in North Carolina."

DANBURY.

WALNUT COVE.

GERMANTON.

KING.

Rural Hall To Play Reynolds High School

Rural Hall, Jan. 4.—Rural Hall high school, claiming the championship basket ball team of Forsyth county, again this year will play the R. J. Reynolds high school at Winston-Salem Saturday night, Jan. 7. This promises to be a fine game. Winston-Salem will be looking to get revenge for the licking Rural Hall gave her last spring in the Winston-Salem Journal Tournament, while Rural Hall hopes to keep up her winning streak of eleven wins and a single defeat to Guilford College Reserves.

The Rural Hall All-Stars, former players of the Rural Hall high school, will play against the faculty of R. J. Reynolds high school in a preliminary game. The first game will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The games will be on Winston-Salem's court. The largest crowd of followers ever to see a mid-season game is expected.

Any man who works only for pay seldom does his best.

Appointments For Methodist Church

Pastor Hackney, of the Methodist church here, announces appointments for preaching until further notice, as follows:

- 1st Sunday, Bethesda, 11 a. m.; Pine Hall, 3 p. m.
- 2nd. Sunday, Davis Chapel, 11 a. m.; Wade Mecum, 3 p. m.; Danbury, 7:30 p. m.
- 3rd Sunday, Pine Hall, 11 a. m. Forest Chapel, 3 p. m.
- 4th Sunday, Danbury, 11 a. m.; Davis Chapel, 7 p. m.
- 5th Sunday, Danbury, 11 a. m.; "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

STEEL ROOFING

All Lengths—6 to 12 foot and roll double X lock.

Paroid Roofing, all weights. The price cut for January.

SHORE MERCANTILE COMPANY

The Big Store.

King, N. C.

Home is Where MOTHER Is

Handsome, Durable, Moderate Priced Furniture and Furnishings will make her happier and less tired.

MUSIC

by the world's masters make the farm people happy and is as necessary as handsome, durable, moderate priced Furniture and Furnishings.

A VICTROLA will make your home cheerful.

"Your Home Should Come First"

HUNTLEY-HILL-STOCKTON CO.,
Opposite Postoffice Cor. Trade and Fifth Sts.
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.