Big Campaign Already In Limelight

Biggest Extra Vote Offer That Will Be Made in this Circulation Drive Ends Saturday Afternoon, Jan. 28

The great EXTRA VOTE OFFER, which is in effect this entire week, gives the real workers an opportunity seldom ever offered early in the campaign. Usually the biggest EXTRA VOTE OFFERS or inducements are made later on in the race and they are given at a time when subscriptions are harder to find.

The Circulation Drive is conducted upon entirely different lines from the ordinary "voting contest." The Danbury Reporter is not attempting to decide the most popular man or woman by any means. There is very little similarity to a "contest" in the Circulation Drive.

The awards will be made strictly upon a basis of results the candidates secure during the campaign. "Results count," is a time worn slogan and it applies forcibly in the Circulation Drive. The campaign is purely a business proposition wherein men and women enter into competition with each other on the same basis and the results obtained decide the size and nature of the reward.

Every day—
New ambitions are aroused—
New determination springs forth—

And—new nominations are added to the roster of those who will compete in The Danbury Reporter Circulation Drive. The great prize distribution continues to excite enthusiasm throughout the Danbury Reporter's territory. Interest is increasing with every day that passes.

The Circulation Drive has made a hit everywhere. Those who wished to take a little time to study the campaign carefully before sending in their nominations have found that the Circulation Drive offers the most equitable opportunity to obtain a rich reward that has ever been made in this section. Names of men, women, boys and girls continue to arrive to be placed in the list of nominations.

Opportunity Appreciated.

With such a wonderful array of prizes to compete for as the Danbury Reporter has provided, it is no wonder that the enthusiasm provoked has spread into practically every home in the large territory this newspaper blankets.

That out-of-town candidates are keenly alert to the unusual opportunities they have of winning a fine motor car is evidenced by the splendid interest manifested in the prizes. Every rural route should have a representative in the Circulation Drive as all compete upon the same basis and persons residing even on rural routes have an equal opportunity with everyone else to win the very best prizes. Subscriptions may be secured anywhere and positively no limit is placed on one's territory.

Outside Interest Grows.

Towns outside of Danbury are now starting to line up their favorites with an eagerness that bids fair to make the race an interesting one.

The importance of being earnest in everything one does, whether it is at work or play in order to obtain the most gratifying results, is an exemplary idea that fits nicely into the policy that members adopt to advantage. Haphazard methods lead a person on and on, and though one may seemingly accomplished things, one never attains an ultimate end. A systematic canvass of one's closest friends first will bring best results. Then, after one has seen one's best friends and acquaintances one should spread out to new territory, so to speak, and make a systematic canvass of "the other fellows" friends and acquaintances. You have a lot of friends and hundreds of acquaintances after once you begin enumerating them. Everyone of them is a prospect, for they all read newspapers. Everyone knows that the Danbury Reporter is a splendid newspaper. It is surprising with what ease and how quickly you will be able to send your votes soaring.

Enter now! Make use of the nomination coupon. In a day or two you will be able to get enough subscriptions to send you well on your way to the ownership of one of the big automobiles.

Biggest Vote Offer.

This is positively the very biggest EXTRA VOTE OFFER that will be made and those who do their best work now will have much to be thankful for when the votes are counted.

Out of town members should bear in mind particularly that all subscriptions that are mailed Saturday and bearing a postmark to show that they were mailed that day will be accepted by the Campaign department to apply on the big EXTRA VOTE OFFER. A very decided drop will be made in the number of EXTRA VOTES allowed for subscriptions after Saturday afternoon, January 28th. Now is the time for one to put in his best efforts getting subscriptions.

W. H. FLINCHUM PASSES AWAY

Death Occurred In Greensboro At Home of His Daughter Thursday Night — Funeral Here Saturday.

W. Harden Flinchum, of Piedmont Springs, died at the home of his daughter in Greensboro Thursday night, after an illness of about three weeks with pneumonia and pleurisy. Nearly all of the members of the family were with him at the time of his death, as the end had been expected for several days.

The deceased, who was aged 76 years, 7 months and 19 days, was well known throughout this section, and was an excellent citizen and a Christian gentleman. He will be greatly missed by his county and the whole community, as well as by his good family.

At the time Mr. Flinchum was taken ill he was returning from a visit to his son, Posey L. Flinchum, who is a prohibition agent in New Bern, and was forced to take his bed when he arrived at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Z. T. Sherrill, in Greensboro.

The deceased is survived by his wife and several sons and daughters. The children by the first wife who are living now are Mrs. Thornton Smith, of Pilot Mt.; Mrs. D. D. Bennett, of Cornatzer; Mrs. Ephriam Simmons, of the Walnut Cove community; Mrs. Tom Flinchum, of Danbury Route 1, and James T. Flinchum, of Danbury. By the last wife the children are Mrs. Z. T. Sherrill, of Greensboro; Mrs. R. D. Trent, of Ridgeway, Va.; P. L. Flinchum, of New Bern, and Sidney A. Flinchum, of Danbury. One sister and one brother survive. They are Mrs. J. T. Nelson, of Danbury Route 1, and J. S. Flinchum, of Pilot Mt., while there are thirty-three grandchildren.

The funeral services were conducted here in the M. E. church Saturday afternoon by Elders J. A. Fagg, of Winston-Salem; Watt Tuttle, of Meadows, and W. J. Brown, of Danbury Route 1. Notwithstanding the severe cold day the attendance on the services was large.

DIX NUNN TOSSES HAT IN THE RING

Quaker Gap Candidate For Republican Sheriff, Announces That He Will Be in the Fight Again — Will Frank Dunlap Stand Pat?—Year 1928 to Be Full of Pep and Ginger.

The good year Nineteen Hundred Twenty-eight, now in its unfolding, bids fair to be another live one—full of ginger and pep—for local politics.

The following announcement has just reached the Reporter, with request for publication:

"Editor Reporter:

"During the fall and winter I have been approached and urged by many of the good people of Stokes county to become a candidate for Sheriff, and after careful consideration, I have decided to say, that I will be a Republican candidate for sheriff of Stokes county, subject to the approval of the people's wishes expressed through the primaries. May I say further, I will duly appreciate the support of my friends.

J. R. NUNN."

Many people are wondering if Frank Dunlap will again stand pat, while his friends battle for his nomination. There are possibly other candidates who will also contest for the office of Sheriff, among these E. R. Nelson, who made the race two years ago but who, with Nunn, was defeated by the present incumbent, J. Frank Dunlap.

The political pot does not usually boil as early as the cold month of January, but developments now indicate the seething undercurrent that is liable to burst forth at any moment.
