

SOCIAL EVENTS AT WALNUT COVE

Mrs. Jacob Fulton, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. A. T. Rothrock and Mrs. Howard Woodruff Entertain—Personal Items.

Walnut Cove, Sept. 12.—The board of town commissioners composed of Messrs. H. H. Davis, W. L. Vaughn, A. F. Marshall, and Frank Johnson, had a call meeting in the town hall Monday night.

Mrs. Jacob Fulton, Jr., entertained Tuesday morning at a very delightful bridge luncheon complimenting Mrs. Ernest Vaughn, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is the guest of relatives here. The Fulton home was very inviting with quantities of colorful summer flowers attractively arranged. Pretty place cards decorated in baskets of flowers directed the guests to their places where bridge was played at two tables. The high score prize, a compact, went to Mrs. Leake Lovin. Mrs. Will Wheeler was given the consolation, a hand painted bridge signal. To the honor of the hostess presented an attractive piece of North Carolina pottery. A delicious course luncheon was served of chicken salad, sandwiches, saltines, stuffed eggs, pickles with iced tea and a bright nasturtium adorning each plate. An ice course followed. Those present besides the honoree were Mesdames Leake Lovin, Will Wheeler, Edwin Carter, C. E. Davis, Paul Fulton, Paul Davis, E. P. Pepper, of Danbury. Those invited in for lunch were Mesdames Frank Petree, Roy Vaughn, J. R. Voss, A. T. Rothrock, H. H. Davis, R. A. Hedgecock, Howard Woodruff, George Fulton, and Miss Claude Rierson.

Farmers around this section report that they are all about through pulling tobacco. The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church gave a Brunswick stew Saturday night and cleared $43.50 to go towards the new church building.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis and Mary Frances and Paul Davis, Jr., spent Sunday at Summerfield with Mr. Davis' parents. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis, where the birthday of three members of the Davis family was celebrated. John, of Greensboro, Miss Mary Frances Davis, of Walnut Cove, and Virginia Davis, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Davis, of Greensboro.

Miss Thelma Rothrock entertained at dinner last Friday evening, having as her guests Misses Jimmy Campbell, Nancy Campbell and Thomas Hardy Rothrock.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Hellsbeck are spending a few days in Richmond, Va., visiting Dr. Hellsbeck's brother and Mrs. Hellsbeck is consulting a specialist. Mrs. J. C. Campbell and daughter, Miss Jimmy, and son Wilb's visited relatives at Draper this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adams and daughter, Mrs. Julia Hines, spent the day Sunday with Mrs. H. H. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woodruff entertained at dinner Monday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davis, the host and hostess. A delicious dinner was served.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. T. Rothrock. The president, Mrs. Jim Hutcherson, presided over the meeting. Plans were made to have a chicken barbecue in two weeks. The hostess served refreshments during the social hour following the business session. Miss Claudia and Annie Kate Neal left this week to attend school at Guilford College.

R. B. Webster, of Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ingram, of High Point, were visitors here Sunday.

The state health officer says that of the farmers in eastern North Carolina now hauling their tobacco to market a great number travel at night and "hardly one in a thousand of the horse-drawn vehicles, on the roads carries a light," so he forecasts an increase in collision accidents all through the fall months.

A diplomat is a woman who can interest a husband in the purchase of a fur coat when the mercury is frying around in the nineties.—Detroit Free Press.

SHORES HALL HIT BY ROCK

His Condition Has Been Serious For Several Days — Claud Tucker Arrested and Required To Give $500 Bond.

As a result of a misunderstanding between Shores Hall and Claud Tucker, citizens of the Lawsonville community, Tucker struck Hall on the head with a rock Monday, rendering Hall unconscious for some time and from which he has been confined to his bed since.

Tucker was arrested Tuesday on a warrant sworn out by Hall's relatives, and he was required to furnish bond in the sum of $500. It was necessary to postpone a preliminary hearing of the matter until Hall is able to attend the trial. Date for the hearing has not been fixed, so far as could be learned. Hall is said to be improving, though the wound almost proved fatal.

News Items Reported From Lawsonville

Lawsonville, Sept. 11.—Misses Bessie and Quincy Corns have returned to High Point to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhodes, of Canton, Ohio, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rhodes, this week.

Those that visited Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stovall Sunday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Smith, Mrs. Joe Varner, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Ellis, of Nettle Ridge, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Hub Nicholson and children.

Messrs. Harry Corns, Glenn Shelton, Tazzie Priddy and Bill Corns were visitors of Miss Alma Stovall Sunday evening.

Mr. Jim Hutchens, of Nettle Ridge, Va., lost a barn of tobacco by fire last week.

Mr. Gilmer Taylor, of High Point, was a visitor at Jesse Corns' Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. R. Stovall and son, Reid, spent Saturday in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Jim Hutchens, of Nettle Ridge, Va., is very ill in the Stuart hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Stovall, of Roanoke, Va., spent the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stovall.

Mr. Clarence Poore visited Miss Gracie Stovall Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewell Poore, of Lawsonville, visited her parents this week end near King.

Mr. N. B. Gilbert, of Winston-Salem, visited Mr. Jesse Corns Saturday for a short while.

The people of this section are busy taking care of tobacco. The recent rains damaged the crops very much.

Mr. W. R. Stovall, who has been at the Mt. Airy hospital, has returned home and is improving fine.

Mr. Tom Poore, of Lawsonville, spent the week end with his best friend, Miss Elmer Stanley, of Meadows of Dan.

Mr. Elmer Amos was a visitor at Mr. J. C. Handy's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Handy, of Winston-Salem, spent the day Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Handy.

Mr. Reade Stovall and Mr. Clyde Corns visited Misses Nora and Bertie Ellis Sunday evening.

Farmers Violating Traffic Laws

The state health officer says that of the farmers in eastern North Carolina now hauling their tobacco to market a great number travel at night and "hardly one in a thousand of the horse-drawn vehicles, on the roads carries a light," so he forecasts an increase in collision accidents all through the fall months.

A diplomat is a woman who can interest a husband in the purchase of a fur coat when the mercury is frying around in the nineties.—Detroit Free Press.

STATE LETS 13 ROAD CONTRACTS

Stokes Has No Part In Them —More Than Million Dollars Is Involved.

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—Bids on 13 new highway projects announced today by Frank Page, chairman of the state highway commission totalled $1,001,280. The bids involved construction of 55.15 miles of dirt roads, 18.18 miles of hard surface road and a bridge over the Catawba river between Conover and Taylorsville. The highway commission will meet Thursday to formally let construction of the projects, Page said. None of the roads let are in this immediate section.

Sharp Increase In Typhoid Fever Cases

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—A sharp increase in typhoid fever was registered in North Carolina last week, according to reports filed with the state board of health. Fifty-four cases of the disease were reported as against 36 the previous week and 29 during a corresponding week last year.

Whooping cough led all other diseases with 96 new cases reported against 65 the previous week. Diphtheria also registered a sharp gain with 72 cases against 49 the previous week. Scarlet fever jumped from 33 to 51 cases. There were eight cases of smallpox as against nine the previous week.

Most of the diseases which increased are diseases incidental to the opening of schools. Measles declined from 34 to 16 cases.

Forbids Wardens To Use Arms

Charles H. England, State game warden, announces that he has ordered game wardens in the State to carry no arms for the enforcement of laws in their jurisdiction.

"Violations of the game laws is not a felony," he stated in issuing the order, "and we would much rather have any number of violators escape than to have one of our enforcement officers kill or even injure a single individual in this State."

Hunters will be permitted to use automatic and pump shot guns this season, it was announced.

More Tobacco Sold With Prices Better

Goldsboro, Sept. 10.—More tobacco was sold in Goldsboro Monday than on any previous day since the opening of the market and at a higher average. With the arrival of good weather farmers are not afraid to bring out better grades and the tobacco is also in a much drier condition than that sold here last week.

Warehousemen state that better grades are expected right along now. The Goldsboro market is said by those who have visited the markets in neighboring towns to compare favorably with other markets.

Home Coming At Brown Mountain

Brown Mt., Sept. 11.—There will be a Home Coming of the Brown Mountain Baptist church one mile west of the Reynolds High School Sept. 30, reunion gathering of old members from far and near to see old faces, reveal old memories and once more meet together in the old church home. The church sends greetings and a hearty welcome to one and all. Dinner will be served on the ground.

H. D. GEORGE, Clerk.

That woman leader who said women constitute the great silent vote certainly handed a lot of hands a good laugh.—Dayton News.

VIRGINIANS PASS RESOLUTIONS

Gov. Byrd and Senators Glass and Swanson Line Up For Gov. Al Smith.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 11.—The Virginia Democratic Central Committee was on record today as pledged to active support of the national ticket.

At a meeting here yesterday addressed by Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate, Governor Alfred E. Smith was endorsed as a man "as Democratic as Jefferson, as brave as Jackson, as honest as Cleveland and as concentrated to popular rights as Woodrow Wilson." Governor Harry F. Byrd introduced resolution to that effect, and it was adopted by rising vote.

Senator Carter Glass pedged himself to take the stump "to maintain party supremacy in Virginia."

"Smith is from the common people," Senator Glass said. "This talk of Tammany—Tammany does not control him. He controls and purifies Tammany. He has driven out the pillagers."

Senator Claude Swanson urged a 50,000 to 75,000 majority be rolled up in Virginia in November.

Old Time Chicken Stew On King Route 2

King, Route 2.—Misses Ruth Carroll, Maud and May Gentry entertained a number of their friends Saturday night with an old time chicken stew at the home of the former. While the young people were playing games the chickens were boiling merrily as if they too were enjoying the occasion. The interest in the games waned considerably as the evening progressed showing that chicken occupied first place in the minds of the crowd. The process of stewing seemed to be a very lengthy one, but at last the stew was done and it took only one call to notify everyone of the fact. The stew was tackled with much vigor and appetites were soon satisfied. After the feast, Percy Shelton and Corbett Bennett made the evening more delightful with string music until time to retire.

About sixty young people were present, and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Walnut Cove Personal Items

Walnut Cove, Sept. 10.—The people of this community are very busy finishing their tobacco crop. Mrs. John Martin spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mitchell, of Belews Creek.

Byron Mitchell, of Powhatan, Va., is visiting his cousin, Miss Maud Mitchell, of Belews Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boles, of Germantown, Mr. and Mrs. Bony Glenn, of Walnut Cove, visited Mr. and Mrs. Strawdy Martin Sunday.

Miss Grace Isom, of High Point, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zack Isom.

Those who motored to High Point Sunday were: Messrs. Harvey Neal, Leonard Fulp, Paul Morgan, Howard Marshall, Reaves Fulp and others.

Misses Ethel Clark, Thelma Ham, and Marion Clark were the guests of Miss Etta Morgan Saturday night.

There will be a lawn party given at Fulp Moravian church Saturday night, September 15. Everybody is invited to attend.

President Cosgrave of Ireland, says each United States citizen owes $160. He'd be surprised.—Macon News.

Tom Tarheel says he always plows under his tobacco stalks as soon as priming is over. It saves fighting insects next spring.

TAR HEELS BUY 163 CARS DAILY

August Sales of 7169 Boosts Average Daily Sales In State During Year.

Tar Heels have purchased automobiles at the rate of over 163 a day for the past eight months of the year, according to figures announced yesterday by Sprague Silver, head of the motor vehicle bureau of the State Department of Revenue, which showed 40,874 cars purchased to September 1. This is an increase of 265 over the 40,609 cars purchased during the same period last year.

August was a good month for automobile agencies, daily sales amounting to slightly over 238 cars, and total sales for the month amounting to 7,169.

Ford sales last month stepped up to first place, displacing Chevrolets which have held first place since Ford stopped manufacturing the old T model. Ford sales for the month amounted to 2,019, and Chevrolet sales to 1,669.

Other cars having sales of more than 100 were: Whippet 409, Pontiac 340, Buicks 322, Chrysler 246, Essex 239, Dodge 212, Nash 150, and Oldsmobile 115.

Buffalo News

Buffalo, Sept. 11.—Farmers in this section are priming tobacco as rapidly as possible.

Those who visited Misses Trudie and Leon Mabe Sunday night were: Mesdames Jessie Shaffer, Kelsie Biggs, Harry Amos, Drue Lemmons.

The guests of Misses Lula, Vassie and Sallie Hennis Sunday were: Mesdames Odell Hawkins, Marion Nelson, Harvey Lemons, Kelsie Biggs and Misses Trudie and Leon Mabe, Hessie Biggs, Nealie and Nellie Joyce, Louise Simpson, Laura Amos and others.

Among those who visited Miss Laura Amos Sunday were Misses Trudie and Leon Mabe, Nellie and Alice Amos, Era and Orene Hennis, Hessie Biggs, and Mesdames Odell Hawkins, Kelsie Biggs, Marion, Jessie Shaffer, Drue Lemmons, Wade Hennis and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce and daughter, Louise Bullin, and her son, visited some of their relatives at Amostown Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lemmons and son visited Nannie Vernon Sunday afternoon.

Miss Leon Shaffer, of Winston-Salem, visited Mrs. Fred Amos Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. S. Coleman Gave Chicken Stew

King Route 2, Sept. 11.—A large number enjoyed a chicken stew given by Mr. Gloma home here this week. Miss Barow Saturday night.

Miss Pauline Grabs visited Miss Sarah Tuttle last week.

Those who visited Misses Joy and Hope East Sunday were: Misses Olive and Mozelle Newsum, Clara, Beulah, Nonnie and Joy Watts, Ette and Sarah Tuttle, Hazel Tuttle and Messrs. Wesley and Bill Tuttle, Calvin and Thurman Holland, Wesley and Edgar Watts, Otis and Raymond Tuttle, Norman Wagoner, Herman Tuttle, Taft Bowman, David Montgomery, Orville Redman and David Morefield.

Mrs. R. S. Coleman gave a chicken stew Tuesday night. Many friends and relatives were present.

Miss Maurine Young spent the week end with Misses Mozelle and Olive Newsum.

Miss Ruby Rutledge, of Germantown, spent the week with Miss Pauline Wall, of Rural Hall.

Miss Erlene Edwards spent the week with Mrs. W. M. Barr.

Boys shouldn't smoke before they are twenty-one, says Babe Ruth. In the meantime they may get some pointers on how to do it gracefully by watching mother and little sister.—Florence (Ala.) Herald.

KING NEEDS TOURIST HOTEL

Much Travel Through the Town —To Hold Family Reunion— Luther Lawson Steps On Nail—Other Items of News.

King, Sept. 10.—The McGee and Walker reunion will be held at the old home place of W. E. McGee on the Rural Hall-Germantown road the fourth Sunday in September. Everybody invited to come and bring a well filled basket.

Ray Kiser, of Winston-Salem, was among the visitors here Sunday.

Albert Petree, of Cincinnati, O., is spending a few days with relatives and friends here. Mr. Petree who has lived in Cincinnati for about thirty years, holds a position with the Norfolk & Western railway company as locomotive engineer. Mr. Petree was reared near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lindsay, of Youngstown, Ohio, were here with a view to locating here. They state that they are getting away from the severe winters in northern Ohio. They were very favorably impressed with the town of King.

J. A. Long has returned from the tobacco market at Kingstree, S. C., where he handled leaf tobacco this season.

Mr. Austin Garner and Miss Marguerite Slate left last week for Guilford College, where they will enter college.

The following births were registered here last week: Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. Lawson, a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Foy Tuttle, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Baker, a son.

Mr. Sam Tesh and family, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here as the guests of relatives.

Yancey Garner, aged eighty-nine years, is very sick at his home here. His recovery is regarded as doubtful.

Luther Lawson, who resides two miles west of town stepped on a nail which had been left in a piece of old lumber at his home last Friday. The nail went almost through his foot. He was attended by Dr. Stone and is getting along as well as could be expected.

A. Carnichael and family, of Harlan, Ky., are spending some time with relatives here.

Dr. R. S. Hellsbeck has returned from a visit to Richmond, Va., where he went on professional business.

Arthur Daub is preparing to open up a new meat market in the Kiser building on Main street.

Eugene Idol, of Greensboro, and formerly of King, was here Saturday shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances. Mr. Idol stated to your correspondent that this was his first trip to King in fifteen years and that the town had grown so much that he hardly knew where he was.

There is a fine opening here for a small tourist hotel since King is on the Great Lakes to Florida Government highway. Tourists from almost all parts of the United States pass through here daily. It would pay some one with a little money to invest to get in on the ground floor.

Tom S. Petree, of Winston-Salem, was a visitor here Saturday. Always glad to see you, Tom.

John Kiger, of Thomasville, spent the week end with relatives and friends here.

Fred E. Shore has returned from a business trip to Galax, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Culler, of Thomasville, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tuttle, of Rural Hall, spent Sunday here as the guests of Mrs. Tuttle's father, Mr. T. F. Newsum.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kirby, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives in Walnut Hills.

There will be a musical and song service at the King Moravian church next Sunday at three o'clock P. M. Everybody invited to attend this service.

The King Tigers lost to Capella in a game played on the King diamond Saturday. Some clever work was done by both teams. The game was hard fought from the start, resulting in a score of five to two. Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Pulliam, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barber and Messrs. John Spainhour, P. H. Newsum and Roy Snider all spent Sunday with friends in Reidsville.