THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

LESSON TEXT—II Tim. 3:14-17; Ps. 119:7-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Bible.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Bible.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Read the Bible?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What the Bible is For.

I. The Scriptures Are Divinely Inspired. (II Tim. 3:16).

The first thing to be settled concerning the Canonical Scriptures is their inspiration and authority. In the Scriptures God is at "sundry times and in divers manners" speaking to man (Heb. 1:1). Paul in this passage declares them to be "God breathed," meaning that the utterances of Holy Writ were God's breath in men's mouths. The Holy Scriptures do not merely contain the Word of God, but are in verity the message of God to men.

II. The Value of the Scriptures (II Tim. 3:14-17).

1. Able to make wise unto salvation (v. 15).

Salvation is in Christ alone. It is secured through faith in His finished work on the cross. True wisdom leads to Christ crucified, since there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:12), and without the shedding of blood there is no remission (Heb. 9:22).

2. Disciplines the life (v. 16, 17).

In this "doctrine" is set forth the necessary standard of conduct. The only place to find the teaching of God is in His Holy Word. It not only sets forth a standard of life, but it reproves—confutes error. The way to deal with error is not by denunciation but with a positive presentation of truth. The Word corrects (sets straight the dislocations of personal and social conduct), instructs in righteousness, and equips for service.

III. The Nature and Effects of God's Law (I Psa. 19:7-11).

1. Perfect.

It is without flaw; converts and restores the soul; turns man back to holiness and to God.

2. Sure.

It is absolutely dependable. God cannot lie. Man's reasoning changes, but God's Word endures forever. It makes wise the simple. Not only does it make wise unto salvation, but wise regarding the legitimate things of this world.

3. Right.

The precepts and judgments of the Lord are expressions of absolute righteousness. They fill the believer with rejoicing.

4. Pure.

There is in it no mixture of error. It makes no compromise with that which is untrue. Because of this it enlightens the eyes.

5. Clean.

The Word affects the life. Its cleansing is from within and from without.

6. True and righteous.

The decisions of God's Word are true, without exception. The judgments of God's Word are unimpeachable. Because of these qualities God's Word is more to be desired than the choicest gold. Obedience thereto brings great reward.

IV. The Prayer of the Believer (I Psa. 10:12-14).

The life brought face to face with God's Word is seen as sinful. The soul cries out for

1. Cleansing (v. 12).

The perfect laws reveal the imperfections of the life. The Word of God reveals sins of which the individual may be ignorant (I Sa. 6:5).

2. To be kept from presumptuous sin (v. 13).

Presumptuous, arrogant sins are peculiarly dangerous. In the Mosiac economy no sacrifice was provided for such sins.

3. Freedom from the dominion of such sins (v. 13).

How awful is the slavery of those who are in bondage to presumptuous sins.

4. That the words of the mouth and meditation of the heart be kept acceptable in God's sight. From how many dangers the believer would be freed if the words and meditations of the heart were kept in line with the Holy Scriptures.

Our Possessions

I will place no value on anything I have or possess, except in its relation to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.—David Livingstone.

Let It Rather Be Healed

Lift up the hands that hang down, and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.—Heb. 12:12, 13.

Hopelessness of Hypocrisy

For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul? Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?—Job 27:8, 9.

Patrician Party Sandwiches

WHEN the fourth Earl of Sandwich originated that delectable combination of bread with other foods (the sandwich), so he wouldn't have to leave the gaming table to eat, he started a food combination which has grown far beyond its early prospects but which has kept, however, its patrician associations.

Today we serve sandwiches at teas, formal and informal, at bridge parties, at buffet suppers, at picnics—in fact any time we have guests and wish to serve a light but festive repast.

Make Them Pretty

Although sandwich making is simple, there are a few pointers which, if known, will make their production easier and quicker. The most important point, perhaps, is that the bread should be a day old. If fresher, it is too soft to cut easily into the quarter inch slices; if older, it may be dry. Butter which has been creamed until soft, a variety of fillings and a silver knife, are other essentials of successful sandwich making.

The shape plays an important role in making sandwiches a treat to the eye. So use your fancy cookie cutters. And remember to add a bit of colorful food to your filling—again for the delight to our eyes.

Sandwiches which will be sure to seem delicious to guests are given below:

Chicken-Nut Fillings: Mix together contents one small can of boned chicken, diced, one cup chopped nuts, one-half cup mayonnaise, one teaspoon salt, and paprika to taste. Spread between white or whole wheat bread cut in fancy shapes appropriate to the occasion.

Not Too Nutty

Ripe Olive and Nut Fillings: Chop finely the contents of a small can of ripe olives and chop an equal amount of walnuts or blanched almonds if you prefer. Moisten with mayonnaise dressing and spread between thinly sliced and buttered bread, cut in crescents. Press a caper in each end of the crescent.

Shrimp Filling: Melt one and one-half tablespoons butter and add one and one-half tablespoons flour. Stir until smooth, then add one and one-half tablespoons butter; stir until the butter is thoroughly mixed, then remove from the fire and cool. Open a can of shrimps, and chop. Moisten with as much of the white sauce as is necessary and season with salt, paprika and lemon juice to taste. Spread on one slice of unbuttered bread and cover with a slice of buttered bread.

Rolled Asparagus Sandwiches: Entirely remove crusts from all sides of a very fresh loaf of bread. Cut in thin slices, pile together, wrap tightly in a damp napkin and let stand several hours in a cool place. This softens the bread so it will roll without breaking. Then spread each slice with well-softened butter. Dip a drained stalk of canned asparagus in mayonnaise, place it on the bread and roll the bread tightly around it. Fasten with a toothpick. Rolling the finished pieces tightly in a napkin also helps to keep them from unrolling. Before serving, tie each sandwich with narrow ribbon of a color which will harmonize with your other decorations.

Checkerboards

Pimiento Mosaics: Drain the pimientos from a small can and then run through the meat grinder; drain again. Cream the ground pimiento with unsalted butter. Cut three slices of white and of graham bread one-half inch thick. Spread a slice of graham bread with the butter, place a slice of white bread on it, butter the bread and cover with another slice of graham. Repeat the process with the other three slices, but begin with the white bread. Put both piles in a cool place under a weight. When the butter is firm trim each pile and cut in half-inch slices. Butter these and put together in such a way that a white block will alternate with a graham one, giving a checkerboard effect. Again place in a cool place under a light weight and when the butter is hard cut in thin slices and serve.

Tongue and Mushroom Sandwiches: Shred contents of a can of cooked tongue and add one-half cup chopped, canned mushrooms, two tablespoons chopped dill pickles and three tablespoons prepared dressing. Spread between slices of nut bread and cut in fancy shapes
