

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The premium list for the Mt. Airy fair has just come from the press and is a very liberal one. The Mt. Airy fair will open Tuesday, Sept. 17th, and run five full days.

Rockingham county's forty odd school buses are undergoing repairs and being put in fit condition for the opening of the schools in October. No fatalities have been recorded in Rockingham since the school buses were inaugurated there.

One of the State highway patrolmen visited Danbury Saturday afternoon and several owners had their attention called to infractions of the automobile law. Licenses were taken from several small passenger cars that had beds on them and were being used as trucks. The owners were instructed to buy delivery car licenses before using the trucks any more.

W. R. Stovall, road supervisor in Snow Creek township, has been suffering several days with blood poisoning in one of his hands, but is improving at this time.

Mrs. L. J. Young was taken suddenly ill on Saturday and has been confined to her home, but is improving.

Mrs. E. P. Pepper and children, Fred, Emorie and Julia spent a few days the past week at Walnut Cove with relatives.

Mrs. S. C. Rierson, Misses Claude and Estelle Rierson were visitors in Danbury Sunday.

Misses Luna Taylor and Janie Martin, who have been attending summer school at N. C. C. W. have returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Morefield and adopted son, Joe Martin, and Robert Sisk have returned from an extended trip north.

Thurman Martin returned Friday from a visit to his wife at Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Martin is spending the summer with her mother.

Frances Martin has accepted a position at Kernersville.

Mrs. W. G. Petree and children and Easley Joyce spent Saturday at Martinsville, Va. attending the celebration of the road opening.

James B. Joyce is the champion snake killer of this community. On last Friday he killed twenty-nine snakes about two miles from town.

Little Miss Angela Taylor was confined to her home with sore throat the latter part of the past week.

Mrs. Charles Joyce and son, Dick, of Winston-Salem, spent several days the past week at Piedmont Springs.

Miss Mattie Sue Taylor, who is attending summer school at Guilford College, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. S. Taylor, at Piedmont Springs. She had as her guest Miss Elizabeth Tucker, of Charlotte.

Rev. J. F. Manuel, pastor, will begin a protracted meeting at Bethel Baptist church next Sunday night, July 28, at eight o'clock. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Earley Smith, of Danbury Route 1, spent last week at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Flora Jones, of Walnut Cove, spent the past week here with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Jones. Sheriff John Taylor has about recovered from an illness with tonsilitis.

Mrs. D. M. Pyrtle is spending some time with her parents in Winston-Salem.

Miss Mildred Perkins, of Selma, is the guest this week of Miss Mary Martin. Miss Martin spent last week in Winston-Salem visiting Miss Nannie Dodson.

Miss Elizabeth Martin left Tuesday to spend some time at Bethania with relatives.

The swimming pool at Piedmont Springs is expected to be completed this week.

Pinnacle Route 2

Pinnacle, July 22.—The revival services which have been in progress at Brim's Grove for the last week closed Sunday morning. The sermons by Rev. Frank Swanson have been greatly enjoyed by the large attendance. As a result of the meetings pastor Burrows received into the church three new members.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King, of Winston-Salem, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. J. King Sunday.

Miss Farrow Snider visited Miss Avolene Boyles Monday afternoon.

A very interesting game of ball was played Saturday afternoon by Pinnacle and the Mingo Box Co., of Winston-Salem.

Nathaniel Spainhower, who resides just east of town has the distinction of having cured the first barn of tobacco in this section. He made a very good cure.

Miss Thelma Newsom has returned to her home here after spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Clarice Tuttle, at Rural Hall.

A very interesting game of ball was played here Saturday between the Red Gose team of King and the Pinnacle Sluggers resulting in a score of five to four in favor of the home team.

Rev. Joseph Hall, of Westfield, filled his regular appointment at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Mr. Ruskin Holder wishes to thank the neighbors and friends for their assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of Mrs. Holder.

Vester Moran, of Valdosta, Ga., is spending his vacation with relative and friends here. Mr. Moran holds a position as manager of the F. W. Woolth store at Valdosta.

I am requested to correct an error which appeared in the King news letter in last week's Reporter. The Sprinkle reunion will be held at the home of John Bennett Sprinkle near Mount Pleasant church the third Sunday in August instead of the second Sunday as previously published. Everybody cordially invited to attend and bring well filled baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rall, who reside on Depot Street, are the glad parents of a new baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilson, of Germantown, were among the visitors here Sunday.

This section was visited by a heavy rain and wind storm Thursday which did considerable damage to the corn and tobacco crop.

Paul Ashburn, of Winston-Salem, is spending a few days here the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Grady E. Stone.

Rev. J. R. Jenkins, the pastor, is being assisted by Rev. Mr. Pratt, of Rural Hall, in a series of meetings which are being held at Trinity Methodist church just west of town.

The King Christian Sunday School went on a picnic to James' Park Friday. There were about fifty in the party and it was a very enjoyable occasion for all who attended.

The King Tigers took one away from the Brown and Williamson team on the King diamond Saturday. The score stood nine to five.

Ollie L. Pulliam and family, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives here.

TWO MEN TAKEN AT STILL MONDAY

Sixty Gallon Copper Vessel and Eight Stands Of Beer Captured By Prohibition Agents.

Sam Wilson and Dolphus Jones, both colored, were arrested at a still Monday four miles north of Walnut Cove by Prohibition Agents Kennedy and Dettler.

The plant was in operation when found and the men made no effort to escape. The still was of about 60 gallon capacity and eight stands of beer were found at the place.

Wilson and Jones were brought here before U. S. Commissioner N. A. Martin who fixed their bonds at $500 each. Both men are in Stokes jail.

News and Personal Items From King

King, July 22.—The Ladies' Aid Society of King Moravian church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. S. W. Pulliam with fourteen members and two visitors, Mesdames J. M. Southern and John Hill Wharton present. After a brief business session interesting talks on missions were made by Mesdames Southern and Wharton. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Stone on west Main street. The hostess assisted by Mesdames Helsabeck and Newsom served a delicious salad course. The society would be glad to serve a supper for a Sunday School class from some church.

Miss Ruth Stevens, of Durham, is spending a few days here the guest of Mrs. C. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pulliam, Rev. P. H. Newsom and Miss Annie Newsom spent Sunday with friends in Reidsville.

Nathaniel Spainhower, who resides just east of town has the distinction of having cured the first barn of tobacco in this section. He made a very good cure.

Miss Thelma Newsom has returned to her home here after spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Clarice Tuttle, at Rural Hall.

A very interesting game of ball was played here Saturday between the Red Gose team of King and the Pinnacle Sluggers resulting in a score of five to four in favor of the home team.

Rev. Joseph Hall, of Westfield, filled his regular appointment at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Mr. Ruskin Holder wishes to thank the neighbors and friends for their assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of Mrs. Holder.

Vester Moran, of Valdosta, Ga., is spending his vacation with relative and friends here. Mr. Moran holds a position as manager of the F. W. Woolth store at Valdosta.

I am requested to correct an error which appeared in the King news letter in last week's Reporter. The Sprinkle reunion will be held at the home of John Bennett Sprinkle near Mount Pleasant church the third Sunday in August instead of the second Sunday as previously published. Everybody cordially invited to attend and bring well filled baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rall, who reside on Depot Street, are the glad parents of a new baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilson, of Germantown, were among the visitors here Sunday.

This section was visited by a heavy rain and wind storm Thursday which did considerable damage to the corn and tobacco crop.

Paul Ashburn, of Winston-Salem, is spending a few days here the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Grady E. Stone.

Rev. J. R. Jenkins, the pastor, is being assisted by Rev. Mr. Pratt, of Rural Hall, in a series of meetings which are being held at Trinity Methodist church just west of town.

The King Christian Sunday School went on a picnic to James' Park Friday. There were about fifty in the party and it was a very enjoyable occasion for all who attended.

The King Tigers took one away from the Brown and Williamson team on the King diamond Saturday. The score stood nine to five.

Ollie L. Pulliam and family, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives here.

News and Personals Of Lawsonville

Lawsonville, July 22. — We are having plenty of rain at present and the crops are looking fine.

Misses Elizabeth Moore and Mattie Lou Barker, who have been spending sometime at Lawsonville and Sandy Ridge visiting friends, have returned to their home in Nickelsville, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson spent Thursday night in High Point visiting relatives.

Carlos Priddy called on Miss Rona Rhodes Sunday afternoon.

Those visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Wood Tuesday night were Misses Elizabeth Moore, Mattie Lou Barker, and Lucy Spencer, and Messrs. Leone Dillon, Goffrey Smith, Lindsay Hawkins, Ernest and Reid Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Spencer spent the day Sunday with their son, Mr. J. H. Spencer.

Miss Ruby Shelton, Messrs. Forest Spencer, Vester Rhodes, Roy Shelton, Carl Ray Flinchum and Jewel Mabe visited Misses Blanche and Gladys Wood Sunday.

Miss Lucy Spencer visited Miss Ruth Lawrence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Steele spent Sunday with Mrs. Steele's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

An ice cream supper was given at Mr. Carl Mabe's store Saturday night. A large crowd attended and everyone had a jolly time.

Mr. and Mrs. Davie Steele and family and Mr. Troy Shelton visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shelton Sunday.

Meadows-Danbury S. S. Convention

Written for the Reporter.

The township convention, comprising Meadows and Danbury townships, met at Palmyra church at 10:30 A. M., N. O. Tedder, president, presiding.

The convention opened with a song, "Stand Up for Jesus," after which Rev. J. W. Campbell led the devotional service. Following the devotional, the Palmyra Sunday School gave a very fine program, consisting of songs, recitations, drills, and other interesting numbers.

Following the program, Rev. J. W. Campbell delivered a speech on the "Activity of the Sunday School Work."

The attendance record was good, there being in all about 200 people attending the convention. Out of eight Sunday Schools in this township groupe, five schools were represented.

A committee appointed by the president, composed of J. S. Chapman, G. Ross Meadows, Will Crews, and J. B. Greene, reported the next convention to be held at Peniel Holiness church on the second Saturday in July 1930.

The convention then accepted the resignation of the president and elected in his stead Mr. Doss Bowles, president; Mr. M. O. Jones, Danbury, was appointed secretary.

Renew Your Subscription today. Do it NOW.

Stokes Boys Going To State College

Stedman Mitchell and Louis Trevathan, of Walnut Cove, will represent Stokes county at the Boys and Girls 4-H Club Short Course to be held at Raleigh during the week of July 29th to August 3rd. Louis Trevathan will represent this county in the Health Pageant to be staged by 4-H Club boys and girls at State College during the week of the Short Course. Louis and Stedman are both members of the Stokes county Calf Club now being organized. Other boys and girls may join this week and have an opportunity to go to Raleigh next week. All boys and girls who wish to take this trip should write to me at once, as I will arrange all the details of the trip. No boy or girl can take this trip until they have enrolled in the 4-H Club, as this Short Course is intended for 4-H Club members only. Make applications for enrollment now, so you will have an opportunity to go to Raleigh. The cost is very low. The entire cost for board and transportation to and from Raleigh will not exceed $10. All boys and girls at the Short Course will be under the supervision and discipline of county and home demonstration agents. Those from Stokes county will be responsible to me for good behaviour. Satisfactory arrangements can be made for girls as well as for boys.

J. E. TREVATHAN, County Agent.

Walnut Cove Items

Walnut Cove, July 23.—Roy E. Mitchell left for New Port News Saturday.

Mrs. John W. Martin was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mitchell, of Belew's Creek.

Misses Annie and Ruth Carter spent Sunday with Miss Lela Martin.

Misses Blanche and Laura Martin and Mr. Paul Morgan were the guests of Miss Elma Welch Sunday.

Messrs. John and George Martin spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Charles D. Martin.

Mr. Earle Flinchum has accepted a position with the Walnut Cove Motor Co.

Messrs. Arthur Johnson, Joseph Fulp and Joe Neal, of Walnut Cove Route 2, and John Brim, Robert Morefield and William Sands, of this place, are spending a few weeks in Columbia, S. C., with the National Guard troop of Madison.

There will be a lawn party at Fulp's Moravian church Saturday night, July 27th, by the young people's class and the ladies auxiliary. Everybody is invited to come.

Young's Reunion To Be At Salem Chapel July 28

Young's reunion will be held at Salem Chapel church located in the Dennis section about 3 miles from Walnut Cove, Sunday, July 28. On that day Mr. Young will celebrate his birthday anniversary. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

Appointments For Methodist Church

1st Sunday—Bethesda 11 a. m.; Pine Hall 3 p. m.; Forest Chapel 8:00 p. m.

2nd Sunday—Davis Chapel 11 a. m.; Vade Mecum 3 p. m.; Danbury 8:00 p. m.

3rd Sunday—Pine Hall 11 a. m.; Forest Chapel 3 p. m.; Bethesda 7:30 p. m.

4th Sunday—Danbury 11 a. m.; Vade Mecum 3 p. m.; Davis Chapel 7 p. m.

5th Sunday—Danbury 11 a. m.; Bethesda 3 p. m.

Belief in a creed will not change a character; yet faith in the divine personality of Christ will revolutionize a life. —N. C. Christian Advocate.

Schedule of Services Episcopal Churches

Rev. D. W. Allen, minister in charge with residence at Walnut Cove, announces the following schedule of services in Episcopal churches in the towns mentioned:

1st Sunday, Mayodan, 11 a. m., Germantown 8 p. m.

2nd Sunday, Walnut Cove, 11 a. m., Mayodan, 8 p. m.

3rd Sunday, Mayodan, 11 a. m., Stoneville, 3:30 p. m., Walnut Cove, 8 p. m.

4th Sunday, Walnut Cove, 11 a. m., Madison, 8 p. m.

FLY-TOX is protecting millions of homes from mosquito invasion. The entire home can be freed from mosquitoes in a few minutes. Take an improved FLY-TOX Hand Sprayer and spray FLY-TOX toward and against the ceiling until the finely atomized spray reaches every part of the room. Also spray the hangings, closets and screens. It is absolutely stainless, safe, and has a perfume-like fragrance. FLY-TOX is the scientific product developed at the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Research Fellowship. Every bottle guaranteed.—Adv't.

"The Effects of Synthetic Nitrogen and Concentrated Fertilizers on Cotton and Sweet Potatoes," is the title of Experiment Station Bulletin 266 recently published at the State College of Agriculture. Copies will be sent free to citizens of the State making request to the agricultural editor.

SPECIAL PRICES

FOR JULY

IN EACH DEPARTMENT.

It will pay you to trade at the Big Store. We buy for cash, save the discount and sell for less.

DRESS GOODS

NOTIONS

SHOES

Shore Mercantile Co., Inc.

KING, N. C.

F. E. SHORE, Manager.

Complete Department Store.