DANBURY REPORTER

Volume 57.

Established 1872.

Danbury, N. C., Dec. 18, 1929.

No. 3,005

FORMER STOKES CITIZEN PASSES

Christmas Love Feast For King Church-Sick Are Improving -Business Change-Person-

Society of King Moravian Church Stokes county has increased ton-Salem and other points are upon a still place a few miles eight members present. An interesting Christmas program was presented, carrying out the Christmas With Miss Agnes Pulliam in charge several Christmas readings were given which were greatly enjoyed. Following a brief busi- teachers in all the counties and ness session, an enjoyable social hour was spent. The next meeting will be held with Miss Agnes Pull- State. iam in West King.

Homer Slate, who has been very sick with an attack of appendicitis ing of the white teachers in at his home in Pilot View for several days, is slightly improved, his many friends will be glad to learn.

The remains of John Nance, aged seventy-five years, formerly of this section and who passed away at his in Yadkin county, were brought back here and laid to rest in the cemetery at Mount Olive church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. In adlition to the widow the deceased is survived by several sons and daughters.

the Tuttle Service Station on East Main street. They have already taken charge of the business. The name of the station has been chang-€d to The Stokes Service Station.

The following births were regis-Mrs. Ollie Rae Smth, a son and to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Booze, a Messrs. Austin and Simpson Garner, who are in college at Guilford, spent the week-end here the guests of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Love, Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here.

Paul Kiger, of Winston-Salem, and formerly of King, was among the visitors here Sunday.

Gilbert White went to Winston-Salem Monday on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Furches, of tors here Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Brown, all spent Sunday in High Point, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S.

C. W. Spainhower, of Tobaccoviile, was among the visitors here

The condition of Mrs. Patsy Kiser, who has been sick at her home two miles east of town for several weeks, is greatly improved, her many friends will be glad to learn.

Powel Nelson, of the Pinnacle Monday night. section, was fined $5.00 in Justice Mrs. J. Spot J. S. Garner's court Monday morn- ed the devotionals, which was read. ing on a charge of drunkness.

g on a charge of drunkness.

The Christmas Love Feast and andle Service will be held at the After the roll call and treas-Candle Service will be held at the Moravian church the 5th Sunday in December at 4 o'clock. Everybody of business matters of the asinvited to come.

Be Closed Dec. 25-26; Will Reopen Dec. 27

of Stokes County:

The Bank of Stokes County December 25 and 26-reopen- were hostesses for the month. ing for business on December 27th, 1929.

Children playing put the din" in reading.

STOKES IS BELOW STATE'S AVERAGE

Teachers-Figures From Adjoining Counties.

Since 1922-23 the average King, Dec. 16 .- The Ladies Aid training of the teachers of the State Department of Public Instruction, which has just completed a study of the scholastic preparation of white 34 of the largest cities of the

> In 1922-23 the index of train- Wednesday. this school system was 3.86, thus far has brought $8,201 .whereas the past year, 1928-29, 403.94, an average of $17.65 the index of the teachers em- per hundred as compared with ployed was 5.49. In other 43,377,496 pounds for $7,796,words, better prepared teach- 632.77, average $17.95 in 1928. ers are now employed than six The market is this year ahead against the other men, whom years ago.

rural white teachers of the been lower. Goff & Venable have purchased State is now 2.19 college years, and of city teachers 3.44 years gated 3.950,112 pounds, which in college. Thus, it is noted sold at an average of $18.13 that the training of teachers in per hundred, compared with an tered here last week: To Mr. and below the State average of all previous when rural teachers.

> In the adjoining counties the index of white teachers for 1928-29 were as follows:

In 1922-23 the index of training of the white teachers in Surry County System was 3.79, whereas in 1928-29 the index was 5.48; in Rockingham county in 1922-23 the index was 4.63, whereas, in 1928,29 index Tobaccoville, were among the visi- was 6.38; in Forsyth county Dr. Oscar Schaub, of Winston- in 1922-23 index was 4.67, Salem, was a visitor here Sunday whereas in 1928-29 index was

Stone, Mrs. B. J. Stone and Robert training of teachers in the and we hope that the sale here placed. Stokes county system is below will evidence our interest in both Forsyth and Rockingham the battle against the white County Board Of counties, while only one point plague. above Surry county.

Parent-Teacher

A very interesting meet-Misses Ethel and Percie Kirby, of ing of the Parent-Teacher As-Win ton-Salem, spent the week-end sociation was held in the audi-

Mrs. J. Spot Taylor conducturer's report a brief discussion sociation in which plans for extending our six months school to eight months, was the principal theme.

An address, "How May the Church and School Help Relig-To the Customers of The Bank ion to Build Character," by Rev. F. E. Hartsfield, was greatly enjoyed.

During the social hour which other growths. at Danbury, Germanton, King, followed, a very unique contest and Walnut Cove desires to extree had been arranged on

A. G. Sisk were appointed hostessees for January meeting.

Our idea of a retort comes from the Soviet republic.

TOBACCO MARKETS MAN AND STILL

In the Training Of Her School Up To Saturday 46,470,246 Two Others At Still Make Their Pounds Had Been Sold On Winston - Salem Market -Average Price So Far $17.67.

> Tobacco markets at Winsdays today (Wednesday.)

Monday, but small sales were 4 gallons of whiskey . anticipated for Tuesday and

The crop sold on the market The average training of all turns, but the average price has of. Golden claimed that he had

> The past week's sales aggrepounds were sold.

Buy Christmas Seals

Tuberculosis now on in Stokes county and earners Mr. Grist said. thousands of other communities in the United States.

these attractive little stickers November, as compared to 2.are used to fight tuberculosis, 642 placed in November of the dread scourge of mankind, 1928. But, the applications for It is a cause that deserves the jobs this year were more than the establishment of another It is thus seen that the unstinted support of all citizens, double the number of persons

The little stickers can be had by communicating with Mrs. Association Meet R. H. Morefield, County Chairman, at Danbury, N. C.

CLOSE TODAY TAKEN YESTERDAY

Escape-Four Gallons Whiskey Seized.

When Deputies Cleve Law son and Berkley Smith came Main street Thursday evening with 1.62 years, it is learned from closing for the Christmas holi- south of Danbury yesterday they found it in full blast with The Winston-Salem market three men in attendance. Two up to Saturday had sold 46,470,- of the men escaped but Wiley Rosebud and probably others. 246 pounds thus far. Ware- Golden, colored, was taken, tohousemen expected a large sale gether with the still and about

> The officers state that they so far have not given out their names.

Golden was brought here and given a trial, being released on a bond for his appearance at court as a witness of last in pounds and total re- it is learned he gave the names nothing to do with the still.

Carolina Has Over 200,000 Unemployed

Raleigh, Dec. 16.-North the Stokes county system is average of $18.58 for the week Carolina's great army of the could withdraw any year dur-3,189,154 unemployed numbers between 200,00 and 250,000, Frank D. Grist, State Commissioner of Labor and Printing estimates.

> This number of somewhere The sale of Christmas seals, around a quarter of a million andertaken by the National jobless persons includes only Association, is those who are customary wage

The seven State-Federal Labor bureaus of the State placed The proceeds of the sale of only 1,353 people in jobs in

The members of the Stokes County Board of Agriculture mittee of fifteen members from held a meeting in the court the various tobacco growing for 9 months. Defendant givhouse at Danbury 11th. Under the leadership of committee of fifteen members District Agent, E. S. Millsaps will write a contract and members The Bible still outsells any a long time program of Agriculture was adopted. This tion of the North Carolina toRoy Hicks, torium of the school house book published, and, if you program stressed the growing bacco growers before the 1930 want to know, it is still being of more food and feed crops. tobacco crop is ready to go on Details of the program will be the market.

Details of the program will be the market. announced latter.

The Law Against Pulling Holly or Other Evergreens, or Committing Any Other Trespass Elder J. A. Fagg Along the Public Highways of North Caro-

As the holidays approach, on his own lands, or without the con-desecration of the evergreens sent of the owner thereof, who shall

OF PROPERTY ALONG THE thirty days: CAROLINA.

Carolina do enact: Section 1. Any person, not being discharge of their duties.

of the mountain country has already begun, and cars and trucks are seen going through State highways of North Carolica loaded with holly, spruce or or within a like distance of any oth- hope was entertained for his er public road or highway, willfully recovery early today. Mr. tal this evening being shot in It is a violation of the law commit any damage, injury, or for any person to cut or re- spoilation to or upon any tree, wood, and Walnut Cove desires to extend holiday greetings, and to thank one, and all, for their patronage during the past year. The office personnel desire a holiday; therefore, the various offices will be closed December 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed December 25 and 26—reopen.

When the december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed be december 25 and 26—reopen.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel devarious offices will be closed and Miss Janie Martin, who were hostesses for the month.

The office personnel developed from the abded the cutter of this graden, crops, and the cutter, winter, crops, the december, crops, and of the skin when he was struck by a bi Mrs. R. H. Morefield and Mrs. AN ACT TO PROTECT OWNERS ($50) or imprisoned not exceeding Provided, however, STATE HIGHWAYS OF NORTH that this act shall not apply to the officers, agents, and employees of in the United States who think three eye witnesses. The in-The. General. Assembly, of North the State Highway Commission or that the farmer lives off the county road authorities while in the

STOKES PEOPLE ATTEND MEETING

County Was Represented Well At Meeting of Farmers In Raleigh-Important Matters Discussed.

About twenty Stokes county people were in Raleigh Tues-Tobacco day to attend the Growers' meeting held at State College. The communities represented were Walnut Cove. Pine Hall, Meadows, German-Lawsonville, ton, I'wo cars traveled together Walnut Cove. from Those traveling together were Messrs. H. L. Gibson, Joe Fowler, J. A Newsum and J. L. Tilley with recognized the other men but and Mr. Jim Young and his son and Mr. Meadows together.

> by Hon. James C. Stone, tobacco representative of the Federal Farm Board. Mr. Stone recform of co-operative marketing association through which the Federal Farm Board could reach the tobacco growers in its financial aid to them He stated that the Farm Board could not deal with individuals, nor with small units of co-operative associations. He ommended organization along and to pay cost. state lines. He advised that no farmer be allowed to join the tract be made so that a man if any members took advantage of the privilege of withdrawing that they be not allowed to come back into the association within a period of two years. Mr. Stone also stated that the organization should not be established against the tobacco manufacturers, but to co-operate with them; and that the producers, manufacturers and consumers should all represented on a board to determine prices. A vote was taken to determine the sentiment regarding $500 bond for good behavior. the organization of the tobacco growers of North Carolina. With approximately 500 tobacco growers voting, there were only three that voted against co-operative association in this

Mr. I. O. Schaub, State Director of Extension work, served as chairman. Resolutions were passed asking Mr. Schaub Agriculture Meets to appoint a committee of five members which in turn should wife, ordered to pay clerk $125 appoint an organization comsections of the State. The en 5 days to make a decision.

> J. E. TREVATHAN. County Agent.

Desperately III

Elder James A. Fagg is desperately ill in a Winston-Salem hospital suffering with blood poisoning. Very little lace L. Hanks, 24, Stokes coun-Fagg recently suffered a slight the abdomen yesterday, it is fat of the land.

ROAD SENTENCES IMPOSED HERE

Stokes Criminal Court Adjourned Late Saturday Afternoon After a Full Week's

Last week's special term of Stokes criminal court came to a close late Saturday afternoon, after being in session six days. Pinnacle, Judge MacElroy and Solicitor Spruill left for their homes immediately after adjourn-

The proceedings of the court County Agent J. E. Trevathan, up to last Wednesday were reported in the last issue of this The meeting was addressed | paper. Cases disposed of after that time were as follows:

Jim "Rabbit" Martin, assault ommended the organization of with deadly weapon, not guilty. Susie George, colored, assault with deadly weapon, fined $50 and cost.

Hunter Manuel, breaking and entering, ordered to pay clerk $28.00 for use of Sam Jessup,

Carl Brim, Jas. Ziglar and association without first read- Odell Tatum, colored, assault, ing the contract, that the con-fined $50 each and one-third ing the month of May, but that and was given 6 months on > Bud Fulton, retailing, transporting and operating car while intoxicated. Fined $50 and cost and not to operate car for 3 months.

> George Fulton, colored, affray, 3 months on road.

Rural Reid, manufacturing liquor, to pay cost and give

Grady Hall, operating car while intoxicated, not guilty. Geo. Fulp, manufacturing liquor, 6 months on road. Ed Mabe, operating car while intoxicated, fined $50 and cost and not to drive car for three

Bob Covington, assault on

Walter Collins, assault, fined

Roy Hicks, larceny of auto-

Dewey Gunter, drunk and disorderly, sentenced to jail until cost is paid.

Young Stokes Farmer Wounded By Rival

Danville, Va., Dec. 16.-Walty farmer was in a dangerous condition at Memorial Hospidown a lane with her cousin when Radcliff followed them There are still some people and shot Hanks. There were jured man was brought here where surgeons on operating found a serious situation.