

A Hand-Picked List of "Eligibles" For Your Dainty Springtime Salads

It has been said that we here in America are the greatest eaters of salads the world has ever known. Crisp, green salads at dinner—vegetable or meat salads for luncheon or supper—fruit salads, in infinite variety, for regular desserts or for party refreshments. Small wonder, indeed, that the aspiring hostess often finds it quite a problem to create something new in this crowded field of foods. And no wonder she sometimes is perplexed about just what to serve with the deliciously different course she has concocted.

For the type of food that accompanies any salad will vary greatly, according to the components of the principal dish. A snappy sandwich, for instance, is exactly proper for serving with vegetable or meat salads, but would be entirely unsuitable with a salad made from fruit. And the sweet sandwich, cookie, or piece of cake that is so delightful with a dainty fruit salad is not at all the type of thing to serve with the salad course at a substantial luncheon or dinner.

Following are a number of suggestions that may help when you are confronted with the problem of what to let accompany some particular, new salad you have created. They have been tested and proved correct from the standpoint of deliciousness as well as dietetics.

A.—To Accompany Crisp Green Salads:

1. Crisp Crackers
2. Paprika Crackers
Spread saltines with soft butter, and sprinkle lightly with paprika. Place in a hot oven until the butter and paprika are blended, and the crackers thoroughly crisp. Serve hot.
3. Cheese Straws
Roll pie pastry 1/4 inch thick. Sprinkle with grated cheese, and roll the cheese into the pastry. Cut into strips with a sharp knife and bake in a hot oven.

B.—To Accompany Fruit Salads:

1. Sandwiches of buttered nut-bread spread with Apple Butter or Fruit Preserves.
2. Small open sandwiches of Currant or Grape Jelly decorated with cream cheese.
3. Cheese Straws.
4. Jam Tea Biscuit
Prepare baking powder biscuit dough, turn out on lightly floured board and pat 1/4 inch thick. Cut with a biscuit cutter. In half of the biscuits make holes with a doughnut cutter or other small round cutter. Place a bit biscuit on a whole one, and fill the center with Fruit Preserves or Apple Butter. Bake in a hot oven about 15 or 20 minutes.
5. Crisp Cookies.
6. Unfrosted angel food or sponge cake.

C.—To Accompany Vegetable or Meat Salads:

1. Devilled Biscuits
Sift together 2 cups flour, 4 tablespoons baking powder, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 2 tablespoons butter, and 2 tablespoons lard and blend thoroughly, using two knives or a fork. When flaky add milk to form a firm dough (about 2/3 to 3/4 cup). Mix lightly and toss on a lightly floured board. Pat about 1/4 inch thick, and shape with a biscuit cutter. Spread each biscuit with a thin layer of devilled ham, prepared by mixing 1 cup cold cooked chopped ham, 1/4 cup chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives, 1 teaspoon Prepared Mustard and 1 tablespoon Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. Cover each biscuit with another one of the same thickness, and bake in a moderately hot oven from 12 to 15 minutes.
2. Cheese Biscuits
To the flour, baking powder and salt in the above recipe add 1/2 cup grated cheese and mix lightly. Add milk to form a soft dough. Pat 1/4 inch thick and shape with a very small biscuit cutter. Bake for 10 to 12 minutes in a hot oven, and serve hot.
3. Sandwiches of chopped nutmeats and sliced Stuffed Spanish Olives, moistened with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing.
4. Sandwiches of prepared Sandwich Relish.
5. Sandwiches of chopped celery and Stuffed Spanish Olives, moistened with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing.

"IT'S ALL IN THE BLOOD."

—“And without shedding of blood is no remission” (Heb. 9:22).

A man in the prime of life lay on his couch. Suddenly laid aside by sickness, from an active business life, and from a place of prominence in the church of which he was an esteemed member and office-bearer, he had leisure to think. Never before, in the days of health and religious effort, had he considered his own personal condition in the sight of God, or where he would go when life was past.

On the Lord's Day afternoon, a friend called to see him, and in course of conversation said to the sick merchant, "I have more than once been at the very gate of death, and I cannot describe what peace I enjoyed at the prospect of meeting God, simply trusting in the precious blood of Jesus Christ as my only plea, my only title."

The sick man raised himself on his elbow and said—"I have been thinking about the same matter a good deal of late. I feel I have not been sufficiently zealous in religion to enable me to say I can look into the future as you do. I would give all that I possess if I could."

"Religion is not a title to heaven, dear sir," replied the Christian visitor. "Religion never gave anybody peace with God, or a title to His Presence. The blood of Jesus Christ alone can do that."

The sick man seemed bewildered. He had been accustomed to think that religion was the very best thing in the world, and that when people spoke of "conversion," "salvation," and "cleansing in the blood of Christ," they simply expressed in that way, and according to their own peculiar creed, the same thing as he called "religion." His friend saw his perplexity, and in order to take full advantage of it, to bring before him the Gospel of God's salvation, he said—"May I read you a short portion of the Bible?" to which he received a glad consent. The portion chosen was the twelfth chapter

I am very grateful to the Democrats of the Twelfth Judicial District for the nomination for solicitor of the district. The Democratic party has always had my whole-hearted allegiance and service. I am deeply appreciative of the support of my friends in every Precinct in the district. I wish to sincerely thank them. My appreciation will be extended personally at every opportunity.

The Primary over, we can now go forward into the Fall Election with a solid Democratic front for the whole ticket, State and local.

of Exodus, in which an account was a solemn silence in the room as he finished reading, a silence which the visitor felt unwilling to break, as it seemed to him that God was working deep conviction by His Spirit through the Word, in the soul of him who lay there.

Sitting up, the sick man stretched out his hand, and grasping the hand of the visitor, said slowly, with great emotion—"It's all in the blood. I see it now, as I never did before. I have been trusting to my religion, and my own righteousness, but now I see clearly that my only title to salvation is in the blood of Christ." The Christian bowed his head in silent thanksgiving to God, and at the request of sick merchant, now filled with peace and joy, he bowed his knees and gave thanks to God for his deliverance and conversion. God raised him to testify to others of the precious blood of Christ, the sinner's only plea and title to heaven.

How many think that religion is a saviour! How many are trusting to their own righteousness and good works to take them, or help them into heaven, whereas God declares that the precious blood of Christ, trusted in by the sinner, is his only shelter from coming wrath. "It is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul" (Lev. 17:11). "The blood of Jesus Christ"—God's only begotten Son—"cleanseth us from ALL sin" (1 John 1:7). "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16: 31).

Commenting briefly on the verses, he said—"It was the blood shed and sprinkled, the blood trusted, and it alone, that gave safety to all within the houses that night. All under the shelter of the blood were safe, all outside it, no matter what their character, were doomed to judgment." There
